

Brooks Lewellen
Email: blewellen@com.edu

Education:

M.A., History, University of Houston at Clear Lake, 2007.
B.A., History, University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, AR, 1998.

Professional:

Teaching Assistant, 2005-2006. Graded students' work, prepared material for course. Helped design, propose and research a new Graduate class at the University of Houston at Clear Lake.

Professor, 2007-Present. Teaching U.S. History 1301 and 1302 at Houston Community College Northwest at both the Spring Branch Campus and Katy Campus. Experience teaching several mini 3 week courses. Received high remarks, recognition and an award from Houston Community College from students as a result of the Course Observations.

Professor, 2010-2012. Teaching U.S History 1301 and 1302 at Alvin Community College at the Pearland Campus. Many students sign up for the second part of the class the next semester. Only taught during the Fall and Spring Semester.

Professor, 2011-Present. Teaching U.S. History 1301 and 1302 at College of the Mainland at Texas City. Have taught both Fall and Spring Semesters as well a Summer Class in 2011, and one more this coming Summer. Many students have resigned up for the second part of my class or take the other one that was offered the following the semester. I am completing the third and final module to be able to teach online or Distance Education classes currently, and am scheduled to teach 2 online classes this coming Fall.

Professor, 2012-Present. Teaching U.S. History 1302 and 1302 at San Jacinto South. Have taught both Fall and Spring Semesters as well a Summer Class in 2013, and have been offered to teach 2 in the Fall of 2013. Many students have resigned up for the second part of my class or take the other one that was offered the following the semester.

Substitute Teacher.

Managing the class and engaging students in history.

Presentations:

The Palatines: A Religious, Economic and Political Displacement, Research and Creative Arts, UHCL, April/2006.

Professional Organizations:

American Historical Association
Phi Alpha Theta
UHCL Film & History Club
History Club
Nominated for Who's Who

Service:

Piper Award Committee – UHCL, 2006.
Computer Instructional Committee – UHCL, 2006.
SGA Representative – UHCL 2005-2007.

Research Interests:

France, Italy and German history from 1200 A.D. to 1900 A.D.
Europe and American relationships before WWI
European countries after WWI
Germany from 1914-89
German relationships with Poland, Czech, Austria, Hungary