

Curriculum Vitae
David Kelly, M.A.
Ckelly10@com.edu

Mission Statement

To become a part of a community that prizes the enhancement of their students, provide the foundations for a successful learning atmosphere, and to share my appreciation and passion for history in an educational environment.

Education

Master of Arts in History University of Houston-Clear Lake	2017
Bachelor of Arts in History University of Houston	2011
Monsignor Kelly Catholic High School Beaumont, Texas	1994

Book Reviews

Rev. The Fall of the Ottomans: The Great War in the Middle East, by Eugene Rogan. Maydan (March 2018) www.themaydan.com

Awards and Recognitions

Outstanding Graduating Graduate MA student University of Houston-Clear Lake	2017-2018
--	-----------

Relevant Work Experience

Adjunct Professor of History	2020-Present
Substitute Teacher – Alvin Independent School District	2015-2020
Houston Museum of Natural Science	2011-2014
United States Marine Corps	1993-2001

Research Interests

- 20th Century U.S. History
- Global History of the Cold War
- U.S. Interventionism in Latin America and the Middle East
- Decolonization in Africa during the Cold War