

Annlyn S. Gunn

Professional Experience

Adjunct Instructor – EDUC 1301

August 2024-Present College of the Mainland Texas City, Texas

- Familiarity with strategies for engaging students, accommodating different learning styles, improving retention, and fostering a student-centered learning environment;
- Understanding of child development and growth;
- In-depth knowledge of the course material and program area being taught;
- Proficiency in record-keeping practices and procedures;
- Ability to monitor and assess student outcomes;
- Competence with relevant computer applications, particularly word processing and email;
- Experience with, or openness to learning, the latest educational technologies and online instruction methods;
- Strong written and verbal communication skills appropriate to the position and educational level;
- Effective interpersonal skills for interacting with students, colleagues, supervisors, and the public.
- Expertise in teaching methodologies and training approaches;

CTE Instructional Coach

August 2024-Present Dickinson High School Dickinson, Texas

- Academically and instructionally coaches CTE teachers, providing lesson planning assistance and teaching strategies to enhance classroom instruction;
- Analyzes student performance data to help teachers make data-driven decisions that improve learning outcomes;
- Leads the creation of engagement-focused PD resources, ensuring improved student engagement and compliance;
- Strong written and verbal communication skills appropriate to the position and educational level;
- Supports curriculum alignment by ensuring teachers' lesson plans align with state standards, school objectives, and best practices;
- Promotes reflective practice by encouraging teachers to assess and adjust their instructional techniques through self-evaluation and peer feedback;
- Expertise in teaching methodologies and training approaches;

Ready, Set, Teach! Program Coordinator

August 2024-Present Dickinson High School Dickinson, Texas

- Familiarity with strategies for engaging students, accommodating different learning styles, improving retention, and fostering a student-centered learning environment;
- Understanding of child development and growth;

- In-depth knowledge of the course material and program area being taught;
- Proficiency in record-keeping practices and procedures;
- Ability to monitor and assess student outcomes;
- Competence with relevant computer applications, particularly word processing and email;
- Experience with, or openness to learning, the latest educational technologies and online instruction methods;
- Strong written and verbal communication skills appropriate to the position and educational level;
- Effective interpersonal skills for interacting with students, colleagues, supervisors, and the public.
- Expertise in teaching methodologies and training approaches;
- Lead and coach nationally qualified Ready, Set, Teach! students, preparing them for competitions and teaching careers;
- Developed and implemented lessons a partnership with College of the Mainland;

Child Development Teacher

August 2023-Present Dickinson High School Dickinson, Texas

- Familiarity with strategies for engaging students, accommodating different learning styles, improving retention, and fostering a student-centered learning environment;
- Understanding of child development and growth;
- In-depth knowledge of the course material and program area being taught;
- Proficiency in record-keeping practices and procedures;
- Ability to monitor and assess student outcomes;
- Competence with relevant computer applications, particularly word processing and email;
- Experience with, or openness to learning, the latest educational technologies and online instruction methods;
- Strong written and verbal communication skills appropriate to the position and educational level;
- Effective interpersonal skills for interacting with students, colleagues, supervisors, and the public.
- Expertise in teaching methodologies and training approaches;

Second Grade Teacher

2021-2023 Silbernagel Elementary School Dickinson, Texas

- Familiarity with strategies for engaging students, accommodating different learning styles, improving retention, and fostering a student-centered learning environment;
- Understanding of child development and growth;
- In-depth knowledge of the course material and program area being taught;
- Proficiency in record-keeping practices and procedures;
- Ability to monitor and assess student outcomes;
- Competence with relevant computer applications, particularly word processing and email;
- Experience with, or openness to learning, the latest educational technologies and online instruction methods;

- Strong written and verbal communication skills appropriate to the position and educational level;
- Effective interpersonal skills for interacting with students, colleagues, supervisors, and the public.

Third Grade Teacher

2020-2021 Ralph Parr Elementary School League City, Texas

- Familiarity with strategies for engaging students, accommodating different learning styles, improving retention, and fostering a student-centered learning environment;
- Understanding of child development and growth;
- In-depth knowledge of the course material and program area being taught;
- Proficiency in record-keeping practices and procedures;
- Ability to monitor and assess student outcomes;
- Competence with relevant computer applications, particularly word processing and email;
- Experience with, or openness to learning, the latest educational technologies and online instruction methods;
- Strong written and verbal communication skills appropriate to the position and educational level;
- Effective interpersonal skills for interacting with students, colleagues, supervisors, and the public.

Education

- 2020 – Texas State University – San Marcos, Texas
Bachelor of Science (Interdisciplinary Studies)
 - Dean’s List Fall of 2019
 - Dean’s List Spring of 2020
 - EC-6 Certification
 - ESL Certification
- 2024 – Lamar University – Beaumont, Texas
Master of Education (Teacher Leadership)
- 2024-Present –Lamar University– Beaumont, Texas
Principal’s Certification

Trainings Provided

- AI in the classroom
- Elementary Phonics
- Special Education Curriculum Integration
- Technology in the Classroom