Question:	What did you think were the best things about this course?
Response Rate:	66.67% (6 of 9)
1	Working at your own hours
2	We didn't have any projects.
3	The textbooks.
4	The professor
5	The personal experiences of the instructor made this course and program real and relevant for me.
6	Nothing

Question:	What were the course's weaknesses and areas in need of improvement?
Response Rate:	55.56% (5 of 9)

1	The instructor seems burned out and not very empathetic to her students. She disappeared from April 1-20th with no check in announcements to the class. She did not seem to care if students were successful. The third exam was a timed exam with no mention from the instructor that it would be timed. I think her methods were not effective for a Coding class with beginning students. In my this class could be great with an engaged instructor that understands what its like to be a novice Coding student.
2	Nothing
3	No instructor guidance or communication Assignments submitted in February and still not graded 2 months later
4	More learning information
5	It didn't help that the professor would go over last weeks work when we were on a new chapter.

Question: Please add any additional comments you may have about this course:

Response Rate: 33.33% (3 of 9)

1	This should be an in-person class only.
2	I think this course should not be paired with 3 other stringent courses in one semester. I think more practice exercises would have been helpful instead of discussion questions.
3	Horrible communication from the instructor - not impressed with this instructor at all
