Qualitative

What did you think were the best things about this course? -

- I think that Mrs. Kirkland was a really good teacher. She was always very nice and made the class room have a good environment to where I didn't feel uncomfortable when asking questions. Super understanding, but I learned a lot.
- Mrs. Kirkland will do anything to help a student out when in need.
- I think the best thing about this course is how informative the instructor (Professor Kirkland) is. This time period of English I've often seen as very hard to understand, but Professor Kirkland always makes sure that we were able to understand the text. While providing how the meaning relates to the text.
- The best thing was getting experience on how college assignments and classes work at a high school level.
- I think the Teacher is the best part of this course, she very much is accommodating and very nice, I have never had a problem with her and that's saying something because I am not the best student ever. I feel bad for her due to the fact that a lot of the time I am not a good student for her when she deserves only the best.
- Mrs. Kirkland is the best professor that could be teaching this course.
- How Mrs.Kirkland helped us understand the material and topics we discussed in class.

What were the course's weaknesses and areas in need of improvement? -

- Nothing
- I feel as if British literature in general is kind of boring but maybe the earlier books can be changed out to make it a little bit more engaging. The books in the later half of the 2nd semester are way better than the first ones.
- There were no weaknesses I noticed.
- I haven't see many, if any, weaknesses in the course. I feel that if I had any issues they would be listened to something would have been adapted.
- None. She is perfect!
- I don't think there were any weaknesses. Her class has been my favorite COM class.

Positive aspects of the facilities (classroom arrangements, computer hardware/software/support, etc.). -

- I would say the support she gave us.
- She always helps us with any support on technology that she can!
- The room was always clean and well organized. Smelled great, which was a nice bonus. I enjoyed having access to the Microsoft Suite for completing my work. Especially OneDrive allowing me to have access to all my files on any device.
- A positive was learning college material while still in a high school setting.
- The room is nice and welcoming, I wish more teachers would decorate their rooms to show their personality more.
- The classroom is a very comfortable environment.

Negative aspects of the facilities (classroom arrangements, computer hardware/software/support, etc.). -

- Nothing
- The school sometimes stinks but thats it.
- There were no negative aspects of the facilities I noticed.
- No negative aspects about the facility, I normally use Canvas which I think is laid out in a more understandable way than Brightspace. I often found myself confused on how it was organized. Which has never been an issue with Canvas.
- None.
- I don't think there were any negative aspects of the classroom.

Please add any additional comments you may have about this course: -

- Mrs. Kirkland deserves the best!!!!

- The Instructor deserves a raise big time

I found this course evaluations system easy to use. -

- Yes
- Yes
- Yes, although I wish that the questions weren't phrased in the way of, "Would you say that you've learned A LOT from this course", but instead "Would you say that you've learned from this course". I feel like this matches the answer ratings better (I hope that's a good way of describing the answers). I feel like when approached with this question of "A LOT" I often feel like I should answer the question in a lower answer bracket then it should be answered in.
