

MUAP-2231-090C3-FA2025-Kates
Name of Course - Individual Clarinet Lessons
Course Semester FALL 2025
Time and days of course – TBA

Instructor Information: Dr. Cindy Kates, ckates@com.edu, (409) 933-8348 music office
(I do not have an office phone number).

Student hours and location: schedule.

Required Textbook/Materials: Various Etude Books and Solo's as prescribed by instructor.

Course Description: The student enrolled for a half-hour lesson is required to practice 5 hours per week and the student enrolled for an hour lesson is required to practice 10 hours per week. Students taking private lessons are required to enroll in a performing ensemble. Some exceptions may be considered depending on the student's level of performance on their instrument. Students should check with their private lesson instructor to see if they are exempt from an ensemble. All students will perform an (optional mid-term) final jury over music studied during the semester. Students performing a solo with a piano accompaniment should secure an accompanist for their jury. Students must have their own instrument.

Course requirements: All students will be required to perform on a concert performance and a final jury exam. Proper dress for this performance is required. Dress slacks and shirt are required. Coat and tie are optional. No jeans, no T-shirts, no athletic shoes, or ball caps should be worn. Please contact instructor if performance clothing is needed. (Black attire is normal concert attire.)

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula: 15 % attendance 60% preparation of material 25% final jury and performance, bonuses will be given if student chooses to try-out for All-State-Band, or All-State-College-Band.

Grading Scale:

A - Superior achievement of student learning outcomes

B - Outstanding achievement of student learning outcomes

C - Achievement of minimum course student learning outcomes (Not recommended for music majors)

D - Marginal achievement of course student learning outcomes

I - A temporary grade given to indicate that, in the instructor's judgment, the student can complete the student learning outcomes within a specified extension of time. F Failure to achieve course student learning outcomes

W Withdrawal on or before the “W” date as specified in the College Calendar

Late Work, Make-Up, and or Extra-Credit Policy:

Make-Up Policy: Due to the nature of private lessons being on a weekly basis it will be up to the student to discuss with the instructor the times when a make-up lesson can be given. In some situations, a makeup lesson may not be possible. Missed lessons will be made up at the discretion of the instructor.

Attendance Policy: The nature of this course is such that one should attend all scheduled sessions. There is a clear and direct correlation between attendance and success in the classroom, therefore regular attendance is strongly urged. None excused absences can result in the student being dropped from the class by the instructor.

Tardiness Policy: This class begins promptly at the scheduled time. Tardiness (being late to class) has a detrimental impact on the student’s performance in the class.

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook <https://www.com.edu/student-services/student-handbook.html> An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers.
