

HIST 1302 Sec. 011IN
United States History II
Spring 2022
Online

Instructor Information: Shane Puryear, M.A. (swest2@com.edu)

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means.

Office hours and location: N/A

Required Materials: Henretta, et al. America's History Concise Edition (9th Edition)
A good dictionary or access to one.
Access to a computer with access to the internet.
Microsoft Office
Access to a camera. (Your smartphone will be sufficient.)

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Course Description: A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the Civil War/Reconstruction era to the present. United States History II examines industrialization, immigration, world wars, the Great Depression, Cold War and post-Cold War eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History II include American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, urbanization and suburbanization, the expansion of the federal government and the study of U.S. foreign policy. Credit by examination is available. Prerequisite: TSI Reading 351 or equivalent developmental course.

Determination of Course Grade:

Modules (80 pts each): This course is divided into five (5) self-contained modules which contain activities that must be completed in order to be successful in this course. Each module consists of the following activities.

- Module Course Content (including textbook reading)
- Module Primary Document Assignment (20 pts)
- Module Quiz (10 pts)
-10 Questions with a 10 minute time limit.
- Module Exam (50 points)
-50 Multiple Choice Questions with a 60 minute time limit.

Presentation: There will be a presentation during this course. (50 points)

Extra Credit: There will be extra credit opportunities as the course progresses. Do not ask for extra credit as these opportunities will come around as they will. I do not negotiate extra credit. Any opportunities I give for extra credit or due dates for said extra credit are at my sole discretion and aren't up for discussion.

Make-Up Policy: If you miss an exam, you will need to let me know either in class or via email. If you miss an exam you need to provide DOCUMENTED PROOF of why you missed the exam. The only situations in which a make-up exam will be allowed are GENUINE AND DOCUMENTED EMERGENCIES. Since the exams are taken on Blackboard, I expect this to be an EXTREMELY rare occurrence. There are no make-ups for assignments. Simply not being prepared for an exam is not a valid excuse for not turning in an exam on the scheduled date and time.

Grade Determination

Your final letter grade will be based on a point system where you can earn up to 745 points. The following assignments will be used in determining your grade.

- Module Exams: 50 points each, 250 points total
- Module Quizzes: 10 points each, 50 points total
- Module Primary Document Assignments: 20 points each, 100 points total
- Presentation: 50 points
- Total Possible Points: 450

The following point totals will be used in determining your final grade. Please note that, although I am more than happy to discuss your progress in the course or issues you have in the course, under NO circumstance will I negotiate grades.

- A: 402 – 450
- B: 357 – 401
- C: 312 – 356
- D: 267 – 311
- F: 0 – 266

Attendance Policy: The nature of this course is such that one should plan to spend at least 4-6 hours per week on course related activities.

Withdrawal Policy: It is the student's responsibility to acquire and complete the drop form when the student ceases to attend the class. Any student who ceases to attend the class and fails to withdrawal will receive a grade of "F" for the course. The instructor also reserves the right to withdraw any student due to insufficient academic progress in the class.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor.

Expectations of Students:

- Students need to log into the course website at least 5 times a week
- Students need to prepare to spend at least 8-10 hours per week on the course website going through the lessons and completing assignments.
- Student need to understand that, although this is an online course, this is not a self-paced course. Modules will be open at appropriate times and there will be due dates for module activities.
- Students need to make sure that they have access to a reliable computer and internet connection.
- Students need to make that do no procrastinate and get their obligations taken care of in a timely fashion in case of technical issues.
- Students need to be active participants in this course in order to be successful.
- Students need to actively communicate with me when situations arise or when they have questions over the material.

Expectations of Your Instructor

- I will do everything I can to make sure that student emails are responded to within 24 hours during the week.
- Work will be graded as promptly as possible with feedback given.
- I will be an active participant in this course if and when necessary.
- I will be an active facilitator to ensure that students are contributing to the course and that the course itself is a safe place and conducive to learning.

Communication Policy: I need you to adhere to the following guidelines as it pertains to communication and discussion for our class. These policies over email etiquette and netiquette as a whole. If you have any questions over these policies, please get ahold of me.

- Email is the best way of getting ahold of me. My email address is indicated in the syllabus. Please email me using your official COM email address as I will not respond to personal email addresses. This policy is set up for two reasons. Firstly, mail from personal email addresses will usually end up in my spam folder and I might not see it. Secondly, in order to adhere to FERPA, using your official email address will ensure that I am actually communicating with you.
- I will do my best to respond to emails within 24 hours during the school week.

- As it pertains to email netiquette, I expect all correspondences to be in a professional format and tone. All emails should have a descriptive subject, use of my proper title and last name in your salutation, and be in a college level tone and format (make sure that they are proofread and without slang). Make sure to sign your emails with your name, class and section you are in, and return email address.
- As it pertains to discussion forum netiquette, please remember that an online classroom is still a classroom and we must all respect it as though this were a face to face class. Your posts need to stay on topic, demonstrate college level writing, and be well thought out. Your posts need to be well written and well thought out. If you use another source, make sure that you give that source credit. Above all else, make sure that you treat everyone on the discussion forum with respect, even if you disagree with them.

Tips For Success:

- Log on to the course website at least 5 times a week and be prepared to spend 8-10 hours a week on this course.
- Make sure to complete all activities for every module.
- Take detailed notes.
- If you are confused about a concept presented in the course, ask for clarification.
- Study, study, STUDY.
- Use the study technique that works best for you (highlighting, flashcards, study groups, etc.).
- Read the textbook and lessons carefully and for retention.
- Make use of email.
- If a situation occurs that affects your progress in the course, LET ME KNOW.
- If you are not doing well in the course, don't wait until the last week of class to contact me. The sooner we can address your issues, the better chance we have a resolving them.

Counseling Statement: Any student that is needing counseling services is requested to please contact Holly Bankston in the Student Success Center at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. Counseling services are available in the student center for free. Appointments are strongly encouraged. However, some concerns may be addressed on a walk-in basis.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Holly Bankston at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is in the Student Success Center in the student center.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention is very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Classroom Conduct Policy: College of the Mainland requires that students enrolled at COM be familiar with the Standards of Student Conduct, which can be found in the on-line Student Handbook.

<http://www.com.edu/student-services/student-handbook>. Students are expected to be familiar with and abide by the Student Code of Conduct. Any violations of the Code of Conduct will result in a referral to the Dean of Students and may result in dismissal from this class.

You are college students, NOT customers. Your tuition does NOT entitle you to a grade. It does NOT entitle you to do whatever you wish to do in our online classroom. Your tuition only entitles you to attend this institution provided that you follow the rules set forth by the College of the Mainland and the rules that I have set for the class. We are all adults (This goes for dual credit students as well. When you enroll into my class, I consider you a full-fledged college student and adult). Let us all act as such. Although this is an online classroom, it is still a classroom nonetheless. Let us respect it as such. Disruptive and abusive behavior will not be tolerated. As instructor, I reserve the right to expel anyone from the online classroom or discussion forums at my discretion if his or her behavior is deemed disruptive or abusive. Furthermore, I reserve the right to withdraw anyone from the course if their behavior is consistently disruptive or abusive to myself or your fellow students.

Academic Dishonesty: Any incident of academic policy will be dealt with in accordance with college policy and the Student Handbook. Academic dishonesty – such as cheating on exams is an extremely serious offense and will result in a grade of zero on that exam and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate discipline action.)

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism is using someone else’s words or ideas and claiming them as your own. Plagiarism is a very serious offense. Plagiarism includes paraphrasing someone else’s words without giving proper citation, copying directly from a website and pasting it into your paper, using someone else’s words without quotation marks. When in doubt – cite!! Any assignment containing any plagiarized material will receive a grade of zero and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate discipline action.
