Required Textbook: Various Etude Books and Solo's as prescribed by instructor.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Course Description: The student enrolled for a half-hour lesson is required to practice 5 hours per week and the student enrolled for an hour lesson is required to practice 10 hours per week. Students taking private lessons are required to enroll in a performing ensemble. Some exceptions may be considered depending on the student's level of performance on their instrument. Students should check with their private lesson instructor to see if they are exempt from an ensemble. All students will perform an (optional mid-term) final jury over music studied during the semester. Students performing a solo with a piano accompaniment should secure an accompanist for their jury. Students must have their own instrument.

Course requirements: All students will be required to perform on a final jury exam. Proper dress for this performance is required. Dress slacks and shirt are required. Coat and tie are optional. No jeans, no T-shirts, no athletic shoes, or ball caps should be worn.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula: 15 % attendance 60% preparation of material 25% final jury.

Grading Scale:

A Superior achievement of student learning outcomes

B Outstanding achievement of student learning outcomes

C Achievement of minimum course student learning outcomes (Not recommended for music majors)

D Marginal achievement of course student learning outcomes

I A temporary grade given to indicate that, in the instructor's judgment, the student can complete the student learning outcomes within a specified extension of time. F Failure to achieve course student learning outcomes

W Withdrawal on or before the "W" date as specified in the College Calendar

It is the responsibility of the student to withdrawal from the course

Make-Up Policy: Due to the nature of private lessons being on a weekly basis it will be up to the student to discuss with the instructor the times when a make-up lesson can be given. In some situations a makeup lesson may not be possible. Missed lessons will be made up at the discretion of the instructor.

Attendance Policy: The nature of this course is such that one should attend all scheduled sessions. There is a clear and direct correlation between attendance and success in the classroom, therefore regular attendance is strongly urged. None excused absences can result in the student being dropped from the class by the instructor.

Tardiness Policy: This class begins promptly at the scheduled time. Tardiness (being late to class) has a detrimental impact on the student's performance in the class.

Withdrawal Policy: It is the student's responsibility to acquire and complete the drop form when the student ceases to attend the class. Any student who ceases to attend the class and fails to withdraw will receive a grade of "F" for the course. The instructor also reserves the right to withdraw any student due to insufficient academic progress in the class.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Holly Bankston at 409-933-8520. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Early Warning Program: The Counseling Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Warning Program. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Warning Program you will be contacted by someone in the Counseling Department. As student success and retention is very important to us, someone from the Counseling Department will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Classroom Conduct Policy: College of the Mainland requires that students enrolled at COM be familiar with the Standards of Student Conduct, which can be found in the on-line Student Handbook. <http://www.com.edu/student-services/student-handbook.php> . Students should act in a professional manner at all times. Disruptive students will be held accountable according to college policy. Any violations of the Code of Conduct will result in a referral to the Office for student Conduct and may result in dismissal from this class.

Academic Dishonesty: Any incident of academic policy will be dealt with in accordance with college policy and the Student Handbook. Academic dishonesty – such as cheating on exams is an extremely serious offense and will result in a grade of zero on that exam and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate discipline action.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is using someone else's words or ideas and claiming them as your own. Plagiarism is a very serious offense. Plagiarism includes paraphrasing someone else's words without giving proper citation, copying directly from a website and pasting it into your paper, using someone else's words without quotation marks. Any assignment containing any plagiarized material will receive a grade of zero and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate discipline action.
