Office hours and location:

By phone conference/email/text. Feel free to call M-F 9-5. If I can't answer, I will return the call if you leave a message. Please reach out for a scheduled appointment if necessary.

Required Textbook/Materials:

Gateways to Art (PURCHASE HERE IN THE COURSE SHELL OR GO TO BOOKSTORE FOR CODE TO USE YOUR FINANCIAL AID)

Course Description: A general introduction to the visual arts designed to create an appreciation of the vocabulary, media, techniques, and purposes of the creative process. Students will critically interpret and evaluate works of art within formal, cultural, and historical contexts.

Course requirements:

This course required you to log in and work towards specific due dates. You must be self-motivated and organized.

- READING: You will read in your textbook (loaded in the course shell) every week. You will complete a reading activity every week.
- DISCUSSION QUESTIONS: You will participate in a discussion every week.
- ASSIGNMENTS: You will complete a number of assignments throughout the weeks.
- EXTRA CREDIT: Throughout the semester you will have some extra credit offerings. These can be used to "make up" points from missed or late assignments or just to bolster your existing grade. These are offered during some of the weeks.

Course Outline: see published course schedule for specific due dates

- Week 1 Fundamentals of art
- Week 2 Media and Process
- Week 3 Art History
- Week 4 Themes of Art
- Week 5 Final thoughts

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula: (methods of evaluation to be employed to include a variety of means to evaluate student performance)

Reading Assignments	40@ 10 pts each	400	40%
DQ's	5@ 25 pts each	125	7%
Assignments	4@ 100 pts each	400	40%
Other Points	3@ 25pts each	75	13%
Total		1000	100%

XCred 4@ 25 pts each (use this to fill in missed assignments or late points)

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy:

Late Work: Late work will be allowed for up to 4 days with a 10% penalty for each day including weekends and holidays. After the 4-day window, no work will be accepted. No late work will receive an A. Plan to do extra credit to make up lost points.

Make-Up Work: Make up work is generally not permitted but will be discussed on as needed basis. Please reach out if you have concerns or special circumstances.

Extra Credit Projects: Extra credit may be given during the course of the semester but it is not guaranteed. Do not rely on extra credit as a grade boost.

Attendance Policy:

Students are expected to login at least 3 times per week and check announcements and course materials. Expect to put in about 9 hours a week. Some weeks will be more; some will be less.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means.

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook <https://www.com.edu/student-services/student-handbook.html> An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodation(s) is requested to contact:

Kimberly Lachney, Student Accessibility Services Coordinator

Phone: 409-933-8919

Email: AccessibilityServices@com.edu

Location: COM Doyle Family Administration Building, Student Success Center

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 1. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 14. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is November 25.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress: If you are experiencing stress or anxiety about your daily living needs including food, housing or just feel you could benefit from free resources to help you through a difficult time, please click here <https://www.com.edu/community-resource-center/>. College of the Mainland has partnered with free community resources to help you stay on track with your schoolwork, by addressing life issues that get in the way of doing your best in school. All services are private and confidential. You may also contact the Dean of Students office at deanofstudents@com.edu or communityresources@com.edu.

Nondiscrimination Statement: The College District prohibits discrimination, including harassment, against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, age, veteran status, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender (including gender identity and gender expression), or any other basis prohibited by law. Retaliation against anyone involved in the complaint process is a violation of College District policy.
