

History 1301.012IN United States History I Summer I 2022

Instructor Information: Dr. Steven L. Sewell ssewell@com.edu 409-933-8117

Student hours and location: MTWTH 1:30 - 2:30 p.m. Virtual Office Hours

Required Textbook: Edwards, Hinderaker, et al, America's History Concise Edition, 9th edition. Reading assignments are listed on page 10 of the syllabus. Material drawn from the textbook will account for 10 – 20% of each exam. The textbook may contain the electronic key to access online material.

Course Description: A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the pre-Columbian era to the Civil War/Reconstruction period. United States History I includes the study of pre-Columbian, colonial, revolutionary, early national, slavery and sectionalism, and the Civil War/Reconstruction eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History I include American settlement and diversity, American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, and creation of the federal government.

Determination of Course Grade:

Exams: There will be five exams during the semester with a value of 100 points each. Exam material will be drawn from both lectures and assigned readings. Students should pay attention to terms in the study guides, which will be available online in Blackboard. Each exam will consist of fifty multiple-choice questions. Each question will be worth two points. Make up exams will be given only under extraordinary circumstances and all make up exams will have an automatic 10-point penalty assessed. Exams are in the “Assessments” section of the course.

Quizzes: In addition to the five exams, there are twenty-five lecture unit quizzes. These quizzes consist of two multiple-choice questions on two main points made in the lecture. Each quiz will be worth ten points, with each question worth five points. Accordingly, quiz grades will count for a total of 250 points toward the overall course grade. Quizzes not taken by the module deadline will recorded as zeros and cannot be made up. Do not confuse the practice quizzes at the end of each lecture with these quizzes. The quizzes in the “Assessment” section of the course count toward your grade. The practice quizzes at the end of each lecture are not graded and do not count toward your grade. Quizzes are in the “Assessment section of the course.

Textbook Chapter Discussions: There are four textbook chapter discussions. There is a textbook chapter discussion in Modules 1-4. There is no textbook chapter discussion for Module Five. After reading the textbook chapter, you will submit a 100-200-word discussion responding to the discussion question. You can turn in the discussion at any time, but it must be turned in on or before that module’s exam date. See the course outline section of the course for chapter discussion deadlines. Each discussion posting is worth 25 points. Chapter discussions will not be accepted past the exam deadline and will be recorded as zeros in the grade book.

Discussion postings will be evaluated using the following rubric.

- 23-25 points: Contains all required elements
- 20-22 points: Contains most required elements
- 17-19 points: Missing some required elements
- 15-16 points: Missing most required elements
- 14 or less points: Missing all required elements

Oral Communication Assignment: One of the key core objectives you will develop in college are oral communication skills. To help you develop this skill, this course has an oral communication assignment. The student will select a topic from the topics covered in this course and make a five-minute oral presentation on the topic. Students will record their oral presentation on either their cellphone or their computer and then upload the presentation to One Drive and then link to Blackboard. A link to a tutorial on how to upload to One Drive and then to Blackboard will be provided with the assignment. You can also upload your presentation to YouTube and then email me the link. The oral communication assignment can be found in the “Assignments” section of the course.

The deadline for the oral communication assignment is 11:59 p.m., Saturday, June 18th. No late oral communication assignments will be accepted, NO EXCEPTIONS. The oral communication assignment is worth 50 points. This is a high value assignment. Failure to turn this assignment will adversely affect your final course grade.

The oral communication assignment will be graded according to the following formula:

- Verbal Communication - 10 points
- Nonverbal Communication - 10 points
- Content - 15 points
- Organization - 15 points
- 50 points

Primary Source Assignment: In addition to exams and quizzes, students are required to submit a primary source assignment in the “Assignments” section of the course as part of Module Three. The Primary Source assignment is an essay on the primary source document, “John L. O’Sullivan and Manifest Destiny.” The primary source assignment will be available the first day Module

Three opens and will be due by the end date of Module Three. The deadline for submitting the Primary Source assignment is 11:59 p.m. on Saturday, June 25th. Submissions will not be accepted after the deadline and will be recorded as zeros in the grade book. The assignment is worth 50 points. The Primary Source assignment is in the “Assignments” section of the course.

Each assignment will be evaluated using the following rubric:

- 45-50 points: Contains all required elements
- 40-44 points: Contains most required elements
- 35-39 points: Missing some required elements
- 30-34 points: Missing most required elements
- 29 or less points: Missing all required elements

Paper Assignment: In the paper assignment the student will analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources, then create an argument through the use of historical evidence in a two-page paper (double-spaced, 12-point font, Times New Roman). In your paper you must use at least one primary source and two secondary sources (one article and one book). The paper assignment will address the following Core Objectives: Critical Thinking Skills, Communication Skills, Social Responsibility, and Personal Responsibility. Additional details on this assignment are available in the “Assignments” section of the course.

In addition to analyzing and interpreting primary and secondary sources and constructing an argument through the use of historical evidence, the student MUST include a section in their paper discussing the social and personal responsibility (using the definition on page 6 of the syllabus) of the individuals involved in the topic. Students must discuss these individuals and the issues they were involved in using critical thinking and effectively communicate their views on these topics in their papers.

The deadline for submitting the paper assignment to Blackboard is 11:59 p.m. on Saturday, July 2nd. No late papers will be accepted, NO EXCEPTIONS. The paper assignment is worth 50 points. This is a high value assignment. Failure to turn this assignment will adversely affect your final course grade.

The Paper Assignment will be graded using the following formula:

- Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources - 15 points
- Create an argument using historical evidence - 15 points
- Effective use of Critical Thinking Skills - 5 points
- Effective use of Communication Skills (written) - 5 points
- Analysis of the Social Responsibility component of the topic - 5 points
- Analysis of the Personal Responsibility component the topic - 5 points
- 50 points

Paper assignment topics are contextualized and based on Metamajors. All areas of study at College of the Mainland fall into one of four Metamajors. Metamajors are a grouping of degrees and programs that share common purpose or content. College of the Mainland Metamajors are:

Arts and Humanities: Economics, English, Government, History, Humanities, Music, Philosophy, Psychology, Sociology, Spanish, Speech, Theater, Visual Arts. A General Studies major falls within the Arts and Humanities Metamajor. Dual Credit students are considered Arts and Humanities metamajors.

Business and Industry: Business, Cybersecurity, Drafting, Graphic Arts, Occupational Safety and Health Technology, Process Technology, Welding.

Health, Human and Consumer Science, and Public Safety: Barbering, Cosmetology, Criminal Justice, Education, Emergency Medical Services, Esthetician, Fire Technology, Health Information, Law Enforcement, Medical Assisting, Nursing, Pharmacy Technology, Physical Education.

STEM: Computer Information Systems, Engineering, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, Physical Sciences.

Paper Assignments based on Metamajors are as follows:

Arts and Humanities: Discuss John Brown. Discuss his actions in Kansas and at Harper's Ferry. Include a section on the social and personal responsibility of his actions.

Business and Industry: Discuss Eli Whitney. Discuss his invention of the cotton gin. Include a section on the social and personal responsibility of his actions.

Health, Human and Consumer Science, and Public Safety: Discuss Dorothea Dix. Discuss her role in the insane asylum and penal reform movements. Include a section on the social and personal responsibility of her actions.

STEM: Discuss Robert Fulton. Discuss his contributions toward the development of the steamboat. Include a section on the social and personal responsibility of his actions.

How the final course grade will be calculated:

Total points for the semester will be 1000 points.

Course grades will be calculated as follows:

	Points
Module One Exam	100
Module Two Exam	100
Module Three Exam	100
Module Four Exam	100
Module Five Exam	100
Lecture Unit Quizzes	250
Textbook Chapter Discussions	100
Oral Communication Assignment	50
Primary Source Assignment	50
Paper Assignment	50
Total	1000

Grade Scale:

900-1000 = A (90 - 100% average)

800-899 = B (80 - 89% average)

700-799 = C (70 - 79% average)

600-699 = D (60 - 69% average)

599 or below = F (59% or below)

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra Credit Policy:

Late Work: Late work will not be accepted. Deadlines for quizzes, exams, and other assignments are stated in the syllabus and are announced in the Announcements section of the course.

Deadlines are known well in advance; therefore, no late work will be accepted.

Make-Up: Make-Up work is allowed under extraordinary circumstances and must be approved by the instructor. All work can be submitted only once. No “redoos” on quizzes and exams.

Extra Credit: To earn extra credit, select a film from the list below. After you watch the film and write a two-page typed summary of the film, answering the questions listed below. You will receive ten extra credit points for each summary turned in.

Film List:

The Last of the Mohicans

The Patriot

The Revenant

Jeremiah Johnson

Little Women

Amistad

Twelve Years a Slave

Glory

Film review questions:

- What did you enjoy most about the film?
- What did you enjoy least about the film?
- Was there a message or moral to the story?
- Can the message or moral be applied to life?

- Did the story engage your emotions? How did the story leave you feeling?

Another way to earn extra credit is to select a book out of the library. Any topic covered in United States history to 1877 is acceptable, but the instructor must approve it. After you read the book and write a two to three-page typed summary of the book, you will receive up to ten extra credit points, depending on the quality of the work submitted. Other extra credit may be offered from time to time at the discretion of the instructor.

The maximum extra credit that can be earned is thirty points.

Attendance Policy: In an online course it is essential to log in on a regular and frequent basis. There is a clear and direct correlation between attendance (logging in on a regular basis) and success in the classroom, therefore logging in on a regular basis is strongly urged. Additionally, you will miss important announcements if you do not log in on a regular basis.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means.

Student Learner Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

Academic Dishonesty: Any incident of academic policy will be dealt with in accordance with college policy and the Student Handbook. Academic dishonesty – such as cheating on exams is an extremely serious offense and will result in a grade of zero on that exam and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for appropriate discipline action.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is using someone else's words or ideas and claiming them as your own. Plagiarism is a very serious offense. Plagiarism includes paraphrasing someone else's words without giving proper citation, copying directly from a website and pasting it into your paper, using someone else's words without quotation marks. When in doubt – cite!! Any assignment containing any plagiarized material will receive a grade of zero and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for appropriate discipline action.

Concerns/Questions Statement: If you have any questions or concerns about any aspect of this course, please contact me using the contact information previously provided. If, after discussing your concern with me, you continue to have questions, please contact Department Chair, Stacey Henderson at 409-933-8212.

Student Rights: Students taking this class have rights, but also responsibilities. One student right is the expectation that this course be taught within the parameters specified within this syllabus. While the instructor reserves the right to alter the course, no material or assignment will be added without proper notification and advance warning.

Tips for success: (Not all applicable in an online course)

1. Attend every class.
2. Pay attention in class.
3. Take detailed notes.
4. Study lecture notes after every class.
5. Use the study guide.
6. Use the study technique that works best for you (highlighting, flashcards, study groups, etc.).
7. Read the textbook carefully and for retention.
8. Make use of office hours.
9. If you are not doing well in the course, don't wait until the last week of class to see the professor.

NOT ALL THESE TIPS ARE APPLICABLE AS THIS IS A FULLY ONLINE COURSE.

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook. <https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal. https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Holly Bankston at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Counseling Statement: Any student needing counseling services is requested to please contact Holly Bankston in the student success center at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. Counseling services are available on campus in the student center for free and students can also email counseling@com.edu to set up their appointment. Appointments are strongly encouraged; however, some concerns may be addressed on a walk-in basis.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 5-week summer session is July 2. The last date to withdraw from the 10-week summer session is August 2. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 5-week summer session is August 6.

F_N Grading: The F_N grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The F_N grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the F_N grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an F_N grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

COVID-19 Statement: All students, faculty, and staff are expected to familiarize themselves with materials and information contained on the College of the Mainland’s Coronavirus Information site at www.com.edu/coronavirus. In compliance with Governor Abbott's May 18 Executive Order, face coverings/masks will no longer be required on COM campus. Protocols and college signage are being updated. We will no longer enforce any COM protocol that requires face coverings. We continue to encourage all members of the COM community to distance when possible, use hygiene measures, and get vaccinated to protect against COVID-19. Please visit com.edu/coronavirus for future updates.
