If a student is studying a substantial amount of repertoire from a particular source, then the student is encouraged to purchase that particular volume. However, any additional repertoire purchases shall be decided upon ultimately by mutual agreement of the teacher and the student.

Students enrolled for private music instruction receive one credit per semester for one half hour lesson per week, and two credits for a one hour lesson per week. Two credit hours of instruction is generally reserved for music majors declaring voice as major instrument. However, advanced and musically literate singers may enroll in the Vocal Major offering with advance approval of the instructor. Although there is no prerequisite for private instruction, all individuals enrolled are subject to an entrance audition. Prior to private instruction, Class Voice Instruction is highly recommended.

Attendance/ Make-up Policy

Regular attendance at lessons is required. Each unexcused absence will lower your course grade by one letter. Absences will be recorded as excused at the discretion of the teacher. In most cases, an absence will be unexcused unless the teacher is notified in advance and the reason for missing is acceptable to the teacher. Make up lessons will be scheduled at the teacher's discretion. Tardiness to lesson times will accrue as an absence. For example, 50 minutes of time accrued in tardiness = 1 unexcused absence (25 minutes for 1 credit hour lessons). If late for a lesson the student will be given only the time remaining in the lesson, unless the instructor is responsible for the delay. Students missing more than three (3) lesson times will be withdrawn from the course.

Disagreement with the instructor’s professional judgment of the quality of the student’s work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.*
