Course Description: A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the pre-Columbian era to the Civil War/Reconstruction period. United States History I includes the study of pre-Columbian, colonial, revolutionary, early national, slavery and sectionalism, and the Civil War and Reconstruction eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History I include American settlement and diversity, American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, and creation of the federal government

Course requirements:

Exams: There will be four exams during the semester with a value of 100 points each, 60 points for a Multiple-Choice portion, 40 points for the Essay portion. Exam material will be drawn from quizzes, assigned readings, D2L/Brightspace assignments and all class activities. Students should pay particular attention to terms in the study guides and quizzes, which will be available on D2L at the beginning of the module. Each exam may consist of multiple-choice questions, short answers, and map questions

Core Objective: Critical Thinking

Writing Portion Exams: There will be four writing portion exams during the semester, these are in addition to the multiple-choice exams you will take in class. Writing Portion Exams will be available from the beginning of a Module, so you will have several weeks to work on these essays. The instructions for the writing portion will be on D2L.

Assessment Quizzes: In addition to the four exams, there will be at least 10 quizzes in given in class to assess your progress between major exams. We will have more than 10 quizzes, for example, if we have 15 quizzes, we will drop the lowest 5 quizzes at the end of the semester. Quizzes will count for a total of 100 points (10 points for each quiz). Like exams, quizzes cannot be made up. Missed quizzes receive a grade of zero. Quizzes address the following Core Objective: Critical Thinking.

Discussion Board: There will be weekly Discussion Board entries. Initial posts need to be at least 100 words and have a thorough discussion of the topic question presented. Students must respond to at least two other posters for full credit. Each discussion board post is worth 10 points. Please review the discussion board etiquette in D2L Brightspace.

Research Paper Proposal: After you have your topic approved on the discussion board, you will need to submit a proposal. Your proposal should include your thesis statement and at least 3 of the 5 sources you will use for your paper. The topic you pick will be used for your research paper and your oral presentation. Instructions are in D2L.

Research Paper: Each student will write a 5-page research paper over a topic in US History from 1492-1877. This paper should be in a research paper format and NO LESS than 5 pages, a works cited page should be included. Follow MLA formatting guidelines, including citations and a works cited page. Paper must be double spaced Times New Roman font, 12 pt. Please review rubric for grading criteria. Before you write your paper, post your topic on the appropriate discussion board. This is to make sure you choose a topic that falls into the scope of this class. If you do not post in the discussion board and get your topic approved, you risk receiving a zero for the paper. You must use at least 5 sources (no textbooks of any kind). You will also be required to use the COM Tutoring center to receive feedback for your paper.

Oral Presentations: Each student will create an oral presentation over the topic that you wrote your research paper on. You will not read the paper but give a presentation telling us what you learned about the subject. Students must present in class for all presentation days to receive full credit for their presentation. The presentations should be 3-5 minutes long.

Responsibility Paper: Students will pick a person or movement that fits into the time period of HIST 1301 – U.S. History to 1877. Students will write a two-page typed paper on the Social and Personal Responsibility of the subject. The student must include a paragraph in their paper discussing the social and personal responsibility of the individuals involved. Students will use primary and secondary sources for their paper. You must include a works cited page. Before you write your paper, post your topic on the appropriate discussion board. This is to make sure you choose a topic that falls into the scope of this class. If you do not post in the discussion board and get your topic approved, you risk receiving a zero for the paper. You will also be required to use the COM Tutoring center to receive feedback for your paper. Covers: Critical Thinking, Social Responsibility, Personal Responsibility, Communication

Example Topic: Harriet Tubman's decision to help runaway slaves, what are the consequences of her actions? What personal responsibility does she have and how does it influence those around her? What social responsibility does she have and how does it influence those around her?

All Paper Requirements: Incorrect formats will result in a point deduction.

- Spelling and capitalization need to be correct
- All papers must have a title page, be typed, double spaced with a 12-pt. font
- All pages must have appropriately sized margins.
- All papers must contain information detailed in the procedure section of these guidelines
- Do not turn in a paper you have used in another class
- All papers require a works cited page with sources that were used.

Turnitin: All papers will be submitted to Turnitin. Please check your similarity report, this flags plagiarism. Also, Turnitin now checks to see if your paper was written by Artificial Intelligence, you will not see this percentage, but your instructor will. Any percentage of Artificial Intelligence usage will result in a zero for your paper. Do not use Grammarly or any other online helpers to help you write your paper, it will show up as Artificial Intelligence. If you need help with papers use the COM Tutoring Center.

No "Recycled Assignments for Course Credit: You may not re-submit an essay or discussion post (or portions thereof) that you did in another course for credit in this course, including material from one of my classes in an earlier semester. Therefore, even if you have done an assignment before in another class, you have to do the assignment from scratch this semester

Grades: Students should be reviewing their grades and feedback frequently.

Feedback: In order to improve your writing, you should be reviewing feedback. When you upload your paper, you should review your similarity percentage and fix your papers.

There are no redo's on assignments.

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy: Late work is not accepted. There is no Make-up work, you have a window of several days and in some cases several weeks to complete assignments. I do not go back and open assignments up. Please do not email me missed assignments, all assignments must be uploaded to D2L Brightspace. I will substitute your lowest exam grade for one missed exam (this DOES NOT mean I drop a grade). If you miss more than one exam those grades will be a zero. Due dates are all in Central Standard Time, if you travel outside of Texas please make sure to check the time zone you are in as you will not be given extensions for the time difference.

Make-Up Policy: There will be NO makeup tests or quizzes given. You are given dates for exams in advance. Please make every effort to be in class on that day as I will not give any make-up. Essays and other papers are available for several weeks, you should be working on them and not wait until the last minute. I will not give extensions on any papers as they are available for weeks.

Late work will not be accepted.

Please be aware going on a trip/vacation does not warrant getting extra time to complete assignments.

If you have issues with an assignment you need to see me BEFORE the assignment is due. I cannot help you if you contact me after the assignment is due.

If you have issues with the grade on an assignment DO NOT wait until the end of the semester to say something. I will not go all the way back to look at those assignments.

Internet Access: You are responsible for obtaining access to the Internet to get your assignments done on time. "My computer broke," "My Internet was down," or "I forgot I was in a different time zone" are not excuses for failing to complete an assignment on time. Therefore, make a back-up plan in case you experience computer or internet problems. Do not wait until the last minute to submit assignments and remember that the college library and public libraries are available for you to use.

Submission of Assignments: It is your responsibility to submit assignments such as discussion postings and essays in the proper format as specified in the instructions for the assignment. I will not grade assignments not submitted in the correct format. Access to exams and other assignments ends after the deadlines have passed. Always save an extra copy of assignments to a place other than your computer hard drive, such as a flash drive or to cloud storage. Another good idea is to e-mail assignments to yourself as file attachments so you can access them from other computers.

Technology/Assignment issues: The instructor is not required to give consideration for lost/missing/unacceptable work stemming from technical non-compliance and/or end-user technical issues. Failure to maintain Internet or computer access shall not constitute a valid excuse for missed work. Any student who cannot keep up with the coursework owing to a lack of computer or Internet access or functionality should refer to the Library Computer Lab hours of operation (<https://www.com.edu/computer-labs/library-computer-lab>) and plan to complete any and all coursework during posted hours

If you fail to complete an assignment or exam because your computer crashes or loses internet access, forget to attach a file, attach a wrong/blank/empty file to an assignment, did not verify submission of the correct file/information/link/etc., or did not use the appropriate browser or operating system to access and complete course work, then you are not entitled to make up the course work. If the assignment, discussion, project, or exam was not completed or submitted in a timely manner due to your error or due to end-user technological issues of any kind, it cannot be made up.

Computers, cell phones and ear buds are not allowed to be used in class. For note taking please bring something to write in. Please turn your cell phone to vibrate and put it in your backpack or purse.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. Instructor will reply to email within 24 hours, weekend emails will be answered on Monday. Please include your course name and number in the subject line, HIST 1301-104

Attendance: Attendance is very important. If you cannot attend class, please email your instructor. Attendance is 50 points.

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student_Handbook_2023-2024_v2.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Kimberly Lachney at 409-933-8919 or klachney@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 11. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 28. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is December 7.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress:

If you are experiencing stress or anxiety about your daily living needs including food, housing or just feel you could benefit from free resources to help you through a difficult time, please click here <https://www.com.edu/community-resource-center/>. College of the Mainland has partnered with free community resources to help you stay on track with your schoolwork, by addressing life issues that get in the way of doing your best in school. All services are private and confidential. You may also contact the Dean of Students office at deanofstudents@com.edu or communityresources@com.edu.
