Course Description:

This course integrates more advanced preparation than IRW 0300 regarding academic reading skills and skills in writing a variety of academic assignments. Topics include critical reading and writing skills. Students will be expected to write compositions similar to those assigned in ENGL 1301. Placement: (1) TSI Essay – score of 4 with TSI Writing multiple choice of 355-362 or (2) TSI Reading – score 346-350 or (3) Successful completion (“C” or better) of READ 0340 or ENGL 0330 prior to 8/31/2014 or (4) Successful completion (“C” or better) of IRW 0300. This course does not transfer.

Course requirements:

Grading for this course will use a traditional average. Assignments include quizzes, journal prompts, and course activities. A personal reflection essay will be due at the conclusion of this course.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

- Class Activities and participation (10%): All course activities, discussions, journal selections, participation, personal responsibility
- Responding to Reading (20%): Course readings will be assigned each week. Reflection journals will be assigned on these readings each week and will become the basis of a reflection assignment at the end of the course.

- Content Quizzes (20%): Content quizzes will be given throughout the semester to gauge students understanding of course content.
- Writing Assignments (30%): Writing assignments will be assigned to emphasize pieces of the writing process in ENGL 1301.
- End of Course Reflection (20%): A reflection will be completed at the conclusion of the semester. See D2L/Brightspace for the specifics of this assignment.

 A note on Personal Responsibility**

The personal responsibility grade will be included in the Course Activities grade category and will be assessed at the end of the semester. Students are expected to read and view all required course content materials, utilize the Course Toolbox provided in the Resources folder on D2L/Brightspace, the COM Tutoring Center, carefully read and follow all instructions, and turn in all required assignments by the designated due date and time. Additionally, the following actions will negatively impact this grade:

- Being consistently tardy or leaving early
- Walking in during speech presentations
- Using the cellphone during class
- Talking during lectures or presentations
- Using offensive language towards others
- Being unprepared for class
- Etc. (other unprofessional behaviors will be discussed in class)

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

Final grading will be assigned based on the following scale.

100-90 = A

89-80 = B

79-70 = C

69-60 = D

59 & Below = F

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy:

Late Work/Make-up Policy: Deadlines are posted on Brightspace, the course syllabus, course calendar, and assignment sheets given in class. Assignments must be submitted in Brightspace before 11:59 p.m. on the specified due date. Assignments submitted up to three days past the due date will receive a deduction of 10 points. Assignments submitted beyond this point will not be accepted unless special arrangements are made BEFORE the due date.

NOTE: Absences at any point in the semester will not affect your due dates. Don't get caught believing you have extra days to turn in an assignment just because you have been absent. It is vital to your success to communicate any issues you are having early in the writing process before any due date.

Extra Credit: Extra Credit will only be awarded in two ways.

1) Three points extra credit will be applied to any essay reviewed by the COM Writing Center. Evidence of the writing center visit must be submitted in Brightspace along with the final paper in order to receive credit.

2) Three additional percentage points will be added to the final grade percentage when the student completes the online course evaluation.

Attendance Policy:

You are expected to be prepared and in class on time, ready to fully participate in every scheduled class session. Class discussion and group activities are components of your success in this course. A sign-in sheet will be provided during each class to keep a record of attendance. Be sure you sign in when you enter the classroom. It is your responsibility to keep up with missed course work should you need to miss a class.

Aside from military service and religious holidays, absences in college courses are not defined as being “excused” or “unexcused.” You are allowed to miss four (4) classes for the entire semester. After you have reached this limit, I will deduct one full letter grade from your semester average for each additional absence. For example, if your semester average is a 92 (“A”) and you have missed a total of six classes for the semester, your final semester grade will be a 72 (“C”). As you can see, excessive absences can easily eat away at your semester average, so avoid skipping class and reserve these absences in case a personal issue arises.

Tardiness: It is vital to the classroom experience to be on time. Students arriving five (5) minutes after the beginning of class will receive a “mark” in attendance. Three (3) of these marks will equal to one absence. Students arriving after the 20-minute point will remain marked absent for the class period. These same rules apply to leaving early.

Please do not abuse the above policy: It is meant to be insurance, not an excuse to arrive late to class every day. I reserve the right to revoke this policy if I feel it is being abused by any individual in the class.

*Absences are considered excused for military service, religious holidays, and documented illness.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. I will check my e-mail throughout the weekday and generally will respond within 24 hours. Exceptions apply to times of illness, campus holidays, and weekends. When e-mailing me, please be sure to include the course and section number you are in to receive a more expediated response.

Academic Dishonesty:

Any incident of academic policy will be dealt with in accordance with college policy and the Student Handbook. Academic dishonesty – such as cheating on exams is an extremely serious offense and will result in a grade of zero on that exam and the student will be referred to the Dean of Students for the appropriate discipline action.

Humanities Department Policy Statement on Plagiarism: Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty. To plagiarize is to steal the words or ideas of another and pass them off as one's own. Two forms of plagiarism are common. In the first form, the writer incorporates published or otherwise recorded material without properly acknowledging its sources. In the second form, the writer submits work actually done by someone else. The student who allows his/her work to be used by others is also guilty.

Any assignment containing any plagiarized material will receive a grade of zero and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate discipline action. Ignorance will not be an acceptable defense: all students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the rules of documentation.

Usage of Artificial Intelligence (AI)  In this course, you may not use AI for any assignment in any way, shape, or form without the consent and guidance of the professor. The use of AI will be treated as plagiarism/academic dishonesty.

Avoiding Plagiarism: Research material must be cited both in the document and on a Work Cited Page. (MLA documentation style applies to all College of the Mainland English, humanities, philosophy, or speech classes). Remember to document when:

- ✓ Evidence is quoted directly from a source.
- ✓ Ideas from another source are paraphrased or summarized.
- ✓ Facts (i.e. statistics) or visual material from other sources must be documented.

Helpful Resources to Avoid Plagiarism:

- ✓ The COM Tutoring Center

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student_Handbook_2024-2025_v2.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.
