Texas Government
Fall 1 2024 8/19/2024 - 10/10/2024
Online Course

Instructor Information: Karina M. Lovas

Instructor Email: klovas@com.edu

Student hours and location: Tuesdays 8:05am-9:05am at DHS, as well as by appointment either on-campus or virtually

Required Textbook/Materials:

- Lone Star Politics Tradition and Transformation in Texas by Collier, 8th edition, ISBN: 9781071875605 (an older edition is fine too)
- I recommend downloading the Brightspace D2L App so you can keep up with class announcements.

Course Description: This course covers the origin and development of the Texas Constitution, structure and powers of state and local government, federalism and inter-governmental relations, political participation, the election process, public policy, and the political culture of Texas.

Remember that this is an accelerated self-paced online course.

You are expected to be keeping up with reading, lectures, notes, and turning in assignments weekly.

Keep this in mind before the semester drop deadline, October 2nd 2024.

Each week, I recommend listening to the lecture and looking at the corresponding notes, and then skimming the chapter. Students who do that generally do well in the course.

- This is an online class, but I know lectures can sometimes be helpful. I post recorded lectures for most chapters we cover; I highly encourage listening to those. I recommend listening to the lecture, looking at the corresponding notes, and skimming the provided chapter. Some students fill out their study guide as they listen to the lectures, some students take their own notes, some just listen- whatever works for you. Students who listen to the lectures, skim the chapters, and look at the notes do well on the exams and assignments.
- I don't grade assignments via email! So please be sure you submit your work on D2L.

- I don't do make-ups/ re-grade assignments. If you don't follow the instructions for an assignment and it gets a 0 or miss a participation assignment and get a 0, that grade is final-but I do offer extra credit to make up points.
- Since this is an online class exams are taken virtually with Lockdown Browser. You will need access to a computer with a camera and a quiet-ish room. Make sure to plan to have access to those things before the exams close in availability.
- You will not be able to use any material to take the exam (i.e. no study guide or notecard) however I do provide a study guide to help you study for the test! I will post a Kahoot too with example questions
- You are expected to write your assignments in your own words-assignments that are obviously generated by AI (includes tools like ChatGPT and Bing and other similar things, as well paraphrasing generators/translators) will receive no credit. On top of the zero, I will submit an academic dishonesty report to the College. Please don't do that!

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

Syllabus Quiz	5
Exam 1	15
Exam 2	15
Participation Activities (5 points x 10)	30

Syllabus Quiz (5 points)

Students will take a brief quiz on D2L to demonstrate they are familiar with the class policies and have read the syllabus. It is 10 questions, does not need Lockdown Browser, and it should not take long to complete.

The syllabus quiz needs to be taken on time; I will not reopen it.

Syllabus Quiz due Sunday, August 25th by 11:59pm!

Exams (2 x15 points)

2 exams will be given throughout the semester. They will be multiple-choice questions with 5 short answer questions. I usually add 2-4 extra credit short answer questions.

You will take the exam on D2L with Lockdown Browser anytime during the day they are assigned. The tests will be worth 15 points each.

The two exams will encompass only material presented from the last examination. The exams will not be cumulative.

The exams will be taken with Lockdown Browser! Please be sure you are prepared to do that with a suitable connection, computer, and camera before the exams close.

- You are required to stay on camera for the entire exam, be sure you give yourself enough time to complete the exam all at once when you start it.
- You will not be able to use any materials to take the tests. Referencing a study guide, notes, books, phone, or written material while taking the exam will result in a 0 for cheating. However, to help you prepare for the exams- study guides will be provided on D2L
- You are required to complete a thorough room scan, demonstrating that you are not using any materials to aid taking the test.

Exam 1 open September 5- September 9th. Closes September 9th at 11:59pm

Exam 2 open October 5-9th. Closes October 9th at 11:59pm..

Participation Activities (6 x 5 points)

Up to 30 points will be awarded for class participation and response to 6 prompts. These weekly writings should reflect an understanding of the material and demonstrate that the student has read the notes/skimmed the chapter/listened to the lecture as well as conducted additional research, if applicable.

Participation activities will be due on Sunday evenings throughout the course beginning August 25th, and worth 5 points each (towards 30 total participation points).

These assignments will close after 11:59pm the day after they are due (so at Monday nights at 11:59pm) and I will not accept them late after that. However, I will offer optional extra credit periodically to earn back some lost points if a week's activity is missed.

Participation activities are found on D2L in the weekly folders under Content (you can see the due dates on the schedule below as well).

Please follow the instructions for submission.

Each activity will have different requirements as to accepted length.

Topic Assignment and Position Paper (30 points total, 10 for topic assignment, 20 for position paper)

Students will complete a topic assignment and write a position paper on one of the following public policy controversies in Texas:

- Should marijuana be recreationally legalized in Texas?
- Should capital punishment be abolished in Texas?
- Should the criminal justice system in Texas be reformed?
- Should the Texas legislature be expanded?

- Should the funding apparatus of Texas K-12 schools be changed?
- Should Texas do away with speed limits on interstates and highways?
- Should K-12 education be voluntary for children in Texas?

Topic Assignment (10 points) DUE: September 1, 2024 at 11:59pm on D2L

To ensure that students will be successful for the position paper, they will first complete a topic assignment. Students will fill out the topic assignment worksheet to submit their chosen topic and at least THREE sources (on works cited in MLA, APA, or Chicago style) with a brief explanation on which topic they have chosen, which side they intend to take.

There is a worksheet on D2L that has every component you need for the topic assignment.

It will be graded with comments, use these comments for the paper.

Position Paper (20 points) Due September 29th at 11:59pm on D2L

Write a paper taking a position (yes or no) on your chosen issue. Conduct research on the topic, citing at least FOUR sources (adding at least 1 from the topic assignment) from credible and reliable publications, web sites, journals, books, etc.

Formulate an argument based on evidence in defense of this position and respond to the objections to this position. Explain how this position impacts the issues of personal responsibility and social responsibility.

The paper should be at least 1,000 words (approximately 4 pages), double-spaced, with 1-inch margins, and a 12-point Times New Roman Font, with a works cited page with correctly formatted MLA, APA, or Chicago style citations. There should be a works cited (not included in word count) and in-text citations throughout the paper.

Please use the template provided on D2L with the correct formatting and header.

Paper Guidelines:

- Format
 - Template on D2L, citation style on the works cited page can be MLA, APA, or Chicago (as long as it is consistent)
 - Times New Roman
 - 12 Point font
 - Correct header from the template that does not take up half the page.
 - Double-spaced
 - 1-inch margins
 - No end notes
 - Microsoft Word doc or PDF file
- 1000 words (aim for 4 pages) not including the works cited page
- Be sure to cite both paraphrased and quoted information. Do not use more than two direct quotes.
- You can use the following sources for topic assignment and paper:
 - Academic journal articles from library databases

- Newspaper articles (not from editorial section) preferably from print media (like The Houston Chronicle, The Austin American Statesman, Texas Monthly, Texas Tribune, The Economist, The Washington Post, etc. As far as non-print journalism goes local news is usually acceptable, and NPR, AP, Reuters, C-Span, CBS News, and ABC News generally have decent reporting)
- Government sites (the Texas government websites are regularly updated and maintained)
- Research and polling institutes like Pew
- You may NOT use the following sources:
 - Wikipedia (good starting point to read about your topic, just go to the sources that it links)
 - Pro-Con.org
 - Editorials
 - Blogs (including posts on Medium, Thought Catalog, etc)
 - Random lawyers' websites
 - Avoid the lower tier news publications. This means NO Huffington Post, the Federalist, New York Post, CNN, BuzzFeed, The Daily Beast, Daily Mail, MSNBC, Fox News, OAN, The Blaze, Epoch Times, InfoWars, Occupy Democrats, Breitbart, Drudge Report, etc. etc.
 - Avoid interest group websites (e.g. ACLU, Planned Parenthood, NRA, etc) as they have an agenda in providing information.
 - You may not use papers you wrote in other classes.

Rubric for Final Position Paper:

Content (10 points)	7-10 points Notes from the topic assignment were taken, content of the paper is topical to the assignment, correct and well presented, conveys understanding of the topic choice, a coherent argument is being made, with strong supporting points, and the overall point of the paper is well thought out and overall well done. Paper demonstrated importance of social and personal responsibility. The paper is long enough. Care was taken to proof-read.	3-6 points Not all of the content is relevant to the assignment, writing was not proof-read/lack of effort was put forth, there are obvious points to the argument that are left out, not enough elaboration/paper does not meet length requirements, some information is erroneous or factually wrong, no point is being made. Not enough discussion of responsibility. Paper is not long enough.	0 -2 points The paper does follow the assignment, information is overwhelmingly wrong, no point is being made
Sources (5 points)	5 points Sources are reputable and scholarly, works cited page is correctly done, there are in-text citations in the paper	2-4 points Sources are not all from reputable places, citations have some problems, some errors within works cited page with formatting, notes not taken on the sources from topic assignment	0 points Citations are not used correctly or are missing, works cited page is incomplete or absent/has major errors

Formatting (5 points)	5 points Paper is double spaced, correct margins, header is correct and does not take up half the page, etc	0 points Directions not followed.

Current Event Paper (5 points)

Students will find a news article about a topic relevant to the class material on Texas or local government from a reputable news source (such as Texas Monthly, the Houston Chronicle, Texas Tribune, or other newspaper) and read it and consider how it applies to concepts they have learned in the course. The article should also be recent (within a month of the due date of the paper). The article must focus on news that is pertinent to Texas or local governments actions and/or the interaction between the state or local government and people.

For the paper, students will submit a 1-2 (at least 1 full page) page analysis of the article. The paper should be a brief summary and then an analysis of the article you have chosen. Analysis within the context of political science means that you are putting an action or a topic in the broader scope of Texas government and of its interaction with citizens. You will relate the article to what you have learned in class. For instance, if you pick an article about an upcoming execution you will relate it to what we learned about the criminal justice system, if you pick an article about something the Texas governor is doing you will relate to what you learned about the powers of the governor, etc etc.

Please provide in-text citations when you are summarizing the article and a properly composed citation (MLA or APA is acceptable) of the article. There should be in-text citations as well as a works cited entry for your article at the end of the paper.

For formatting, there is also a template provided. Please use the correct formatting that is already on the template, meaning the paper should not have a huge header to make it seem longer.
