Office hours and location: LRC 263, M/W 9:00am – 1:00pm

Required Textbook/Materials: Beebe, S.A., Beebe, S.J., & Redmond, M.V. (2020). Interpersonal Communication: Relating to Others (9th ed). Boston: Pearson.

Course Description: This is a course in the theory and practice of human interaction, including the study of self-concept, perception, listening, creating and developing relationships, conflict management, as well as verbal and non-verbal communication. *This course is a 3-credit hour semester course, and it is transferable.

Course requirements:

Assignments	Points
Syllabus Quiz	20
Reflections x 12	20 (x 12) = 240
Discussion x 12	20 (x 12) = 240
Media Clip Analysis x 2	100 (x 2) = 200
Film Analysis (Final Project)	200
In-class Participation	50
Attendance	50

Assignment Explanations:

- In-Class Participation and Attendance: This is a communication class. You will be expected to contribute to in-class discussions. Attendance is mandatory and it will affect your grade in several ways (positive ways if you are present).
- Reflections: These will be your initial feelings or responses to the readings. Word count minimum will be 150 words. In these reflections, you will be required to answer two prompts: 1. Can you think of a situation in your own life where these concepts might apply from this chapter? 2. How are you doing in this class? Do you have any questions on assignments? This is not a formal submission, so don't worry about polishing it like a regular term paper. I would prefer this to feel like a journal or even a stream of consciousness. If you have an idea, just get it out there. And yes, I read each and every one of these. Feel free to criticize the class as well. If you prefer to record a video instead, send me a 2-to-4-minute video answering the prompts.

- Media Clip Analysis: In these assignments, I will post a media clip and you will have to apply the previous 4 chapters to the media clip. Your paper should be 500 words or more. Treat this as a formal college paper with citations (APA style) when necessary.
- Film Analysis: For this final project, you will choose your own movie or television series. You will choose two or more characters and apply as many of the concepts from this class to their relationship. Honestly, have fun with this assignment. If I were in this class, I would pick Deadpool and Wolverine. Buddy films and romantic comedies are encouraged! You will present a 5 to 7 minute PowerPoint presentation complete with pictures, diagrams, etc, explaining the concepts found in each character and their relationship to each other.
- Readings: When you do the readings, I would prefer that you look for concepts that are interesting to you. You do not need to read the whole chapter but get very familiar with one or two concepts in each chapter so that you can use them in the media assignments and the final project. Each week, I will also lecture on the concepts that I think are important. They might overlap with your interests... or they might not. Either way, you are learning and that is what is important to me.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula: Course will be evaluated on a total point basis, there is no weighting on assignments.

Grading Scale:

- A 895 – 1000 (Exceptional)
- B 795 – 894 (Above average)
- C 695 – 794 (Average)
- D 595 – 694 (Below Average)
- F 0 – 594 (Unacceptable)

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy: Late work will not be accepted. Emergencies may arise, so please communicate with me as soon as possible via email to let me know about your circumstances. I will consider late work and make up assignments on a case-by-case basis. Extra credit may be available during the course, but do not count on it!

Attendance Policy: You are expected in class. Not only is your participation and attendance graded, but there are in-class discussions and assignments that will also count towards your final grade. Please consider one of the online sections if you have other commitments that may keep you away from class.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. (Faculty may add additional statement requiring monitoring and communication expectations via D2L or other LMS)

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student Handbook 2024-2025 v2.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact:

Location: COM Doyle Family Administration Building, Student Success Center

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is February 26. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is April 21. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is April 30.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.
