

Criminal Justice 2313.031I2
Correctional Systems and Practices
Fall 2024 (2nd 8-weeks) 10/14/24 – 12/5/24
Online

Instructor Information: Carla Anderson, canderson@com.edu, Cell (409) 771-2219

Student hours and location: We can meet on Teams Monday through Thursday between 9am and 11am. If you need an afternoon appointment, please send me a message to schedule it. If you would like to meet in person I can meet you at an arranged time in the Public Service Careers Building which is across the street from the main campus on Amburn Road, next door to DPS. (Turn in the fire station driveway for our parking lot.)

Required Textbook: Corrections, an Introduction (5th or 6th edition); Author: Richard P. Seiter, Publisher: Pearson. 5th Edition ISBN: 9780134164113. 6th edition ISBN: 9780135235478 loose leaf). Supplementary materials will post in D2L.

Course Description: This course is a survey of institutional and non-institutional corrections. Emphasis will be placed on the organization and operation of correctional systems; treatment and rehabilitation; populations served; Constitutional issues; and current and future issues.

Course requirements: This is an 8-week course. You are required to read the chapters as listed on the course outline and any related lecture notes or outlines. Viewing the respective power point presentations will reinforce your reading. I will post supplemental material in Content on occasion that is considered course material. You are responsible for this material for exam purposes (unless otherwise stated).

You are required to take 3 exams (200 points each), submit 3 assignments (50 points each), complete a power point project (50 points), and post to five (5) discussions (10 points each). Although quizzes are optional and have no point value for your grade, I highly recommend that you take them for self-assessment value. Exams will be taken online and will be open between 4-5 days, including a weekend, to accommodate various schedules. Do not use Wi-Fi when taking an exam, if possible.

Exams may be accessed through the “Quizzes” link on the menu. Look on the course outline to determine your exam weeks (Week 2 - Exam 1, Week 4 - Exam 2, Weeks 7/8 - Exam 3). All exams are timed. Exams must be taken in the Respondus Lockdown browser. Please contact me if you have computer problems while taking an exam.

Discussions: For full credit, postings to a discussion topic should consist of a short paragraph, with a minimum of 200 words. Each discussion topic is worth up to 10 points each. I encourage you to respond to a fellow student for each posting (although no credit). You are expected to read at least 75% of the postings. Our discussion board takes the place of a live classroom discussion and as such, you may be exposed to many different concepts and beliefs concerning various criminal justice issues. Be respectful of your classmates when posting or responding to a discussion. Your comments and thoughts are part of the learning process. Do not use “text” spelling. Please use correct grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation. Maximum points will not be given for informal, incomplete, very brief, or not in compliance postings. A post may be deleted from view if it is disrespectful, crude, or contains offensive language.

Written Assignments: Detailed instructions for assignments are contained within the individual assignments located in the menu link “Assignments”. All written assignments must be typed and submitted in either Microsoft Word file format (.docx or .doc) or in a PDF format using a font no smaller than 10 points and no larger than 12 points. Please take advantage of the COM Tutoring Center if you need assistance with your written assignments. You submit your written assignments by attaching your document into the respective assignment box. I will attempt to grade and return your assignments within 4 days of the due date. Please feel free to contact me if you have not received a grade. You are responsible for keeping copies of all your assignments turned in for grades.

Power point project: The power point project requires that you prepare a minimum 25-slide presentation on an issue related to Corrections. This is due 11/20/24 (contained in the course outline). Detailed instructions are contained within the Power Point project assignment located in Assignments. Many electronic resources available to you through the COM Library. Use academic search engines such as ProQuest which may be found in LibGuides located on the COM Library website. Wikipedia is not an academic resource and will not be counted as such. If cited, you will receive no credit.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

1 st exam	200 points
2 nd exam	200 points
3 rd exam	200 points
Assignments (3 at 50 pts. ea.)	150 points
Power point project	50 points
Discussions (5 at 10 pts. ea.)	50 points
TOTAL	850 POINTS

A= 850-765 B= 764-680 C= 679-595 D= 594-510 F= 509 and below

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy: I accept late work on Assignments 1 and 2. Five (5) points will be subtracted from the grade for each day that it is late past the due date. After five (5) days late work will not be accepted. There is no make-up work. I offer extra credit at the beginning of the course, so please take advantage of that opportunity.

Attendance Policy: Pursuant to college policy attendance is required. Your attendance in this online class will consist of participating in discussions and submitting the required assignments and exams. There may be suggested weekly readings in addition to the assigned chapters. It is expected that you log into the course website twice a week (or more) to view updated announcements, participate in ongoing discussions, take quizzes, and submit the required work. You are expected to commit at least 3-4 hours a week or more in this class.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means.

Student Learner Outcomes:

Technology Outage Policy: There may be times when D2L may be serviced and therefore unavailable. You will see a notice on the D2L website when this will occur. Plan accordingly. If you are taking an exam and have technology issues, take a screenshot and email me immediately. In addition, text me your problems taking the exam at (409) 771-2219 with your name, course, and exam numbers. Contact me before submitting an online request to our Distance Education staff, which is also available to you as an option.

Other times the College may experience emergency campus-wide technology outages. If this occurs and you are taking an exam or quiz, or submitting an assignment, you will need to notify me. The exam or quiz will need to be reset or I will extend the assignment due date after the campus-wide outage is confirmed by Informational Technology. An Announcement will be sent to all students relaying the information about the new due date for the assignment or exam.

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student_Handbook_2023-2024_v2.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Kimberly Lachney at 409-933-8919 or klachney@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 2nd 8-week session is November 26, 2024.

F_N Grading: The F_N grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The F_N grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the F_N grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an F_N grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Student Success Tips: This is an 8-week course. Please stay aware of due dates for assignments and exams. Always read the Announcements. Make an extra copy of the course outline (above) to stay on track each week. Read all assigned chapters and instructions for assignments and exams. Take the practice quizzes before taking any exam. This could boost your overall score. Call, message, or text me if you have any questions. Ask for help. Remember, online classes require your attention and dedication. Try not to wait until the last minute. Good luck!

IMPORTANT: Eligibility for an occupational license may be impacted by one's criminal history. Students with a criminal history should confer with faculty or the department chairperson. Students have a right to request a criminal history evaluation letter from the applicable licensing agency.
