It is also your responsibility to take each assessment quiz, midterm, and final exam, participate in scheduled discussions, and complete class projects according to the scheduled timeline in your Semester Schedule. It is your responsibility to submit all assignment on time.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula::

A variety of means is included to evaluate student performance. Methods of evaluation employed to evaluate student performance are:

- 1. EXAMS: Students will complete a midterm competency examination covering chapters 1 to 10 and a final competency examination covering chapters 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 19, 20, 22, 24 & 25. Both competency exams will be administered online as designated by the instructor within the semester schedule.
Midterm exam will address Core Objective: Social Responsibility (SR) by covering principles of law that apply to business and business transactions.
- 2. QUIZZES: Each chapter quiz is available for one week only. The student will complete 9 chapter quizzes online in Blackboard as scheduled within the semester schedule. Each quiz can be taken twice. It is used as one of the learning tools, as well as evaluation tool to familiarize students with definitions, concepts and application. The first take shows what is lacking. There is a waiting period of 4 hours before the quiz can be attempted the second time. This time is given for the student to go back and study the areas that were lacking during the first attempt. The questions will not be exactly the same for the multiple attempts. The best 7 will be averaged for grade.
Quiz 4 will address Core Objective- Personal Responsibility (PR) by describing the relationship of ethics and law in business
- 3. CASE DISCUSSION/PARTICIPATION: includes attending class by logging into class at least twice a week to review new information, participate in scheduled discussions, and other online activities as required by the instructor. Each scheduled discussion will be open for one week according to the semester schedule. Participation grade will be accumulated from discussions and posted towards the end of the semester.
- 4. CASE STUDY PROJECT: Students complete case studies as assigned and, in the areas, designated by the instructor. These written case studies will be submitted to the instructor via class email. The student will write their opinions examining different cases that involve basic principles of law that apply to business and business transactions. They will also describe, analyze and interpret current law, rules, and regulations related to settling business disputes.
This assignment will address Core Objective: Critical Thinking Skills (CT), by applying, interpreting, and analyzing current law, rules, and regulations to settling real-life business disputes.

NOTE: No submissions allowed after the assigned due date elapses.

A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student <https://www.com.edu/student-services/student-handbook.html>

An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Withdrawal Policy: Failure to log in will NOT constitute an official or automatic withdrawal. It is the student's responsibility to acquire and complete the drop form when the student has decided to drop the class. Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw with a passing grade for this class is, November 19, 2021. Please visit <http://www.com.edu/admissions/drop-notification> to obtain more information about the six drop limit regarding the consequences of DROPPING a class multiple times.

The F_N grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the F_N grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an F_N grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance.
