Grading Scale:

Determination of Course Grade:

Paper Assignment: Unit Exams and Written Assignments 10%

Professionalism: Professionalism/Attendance 20%

Project Presentation Assignment: 50%

Lab Skill Sheet: 20%

Grading formula: A = 90 – 100, B = 80 – 89, C = 70 – 79, D = 60 – 69, F = 59 and below

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy: Make-Up Policy:

Class Make-up assignments will be made-up by the next day of class attendance. Late assignments will not be accepted. Student will receive a “0”. Incomplete assignments will not be accepted. Student will receive a “0”. Any missed chapter exam/test/quiz must be taken immediately in/at the COM Testing Center or in the department within a 24 hour time period. Final exams cannot be made up; therefore, any student missing, any Final Exam (written or practical) will receive a failing number grade of “O”. (See Cosmetology Department Rules & Regulations).

Attendance Policy: The faculty believes that experiences in the classroom and laboratory cannot be duplicated adequately. If a student is absent. In addition, the Skin Care / Cosmetology Programs are designed to teach professional work habits, such as attendance. Excessive absences, four (4) days missed, in either lecture or lab will result in a dismissal from the program. Students who fail to show up on a Thursday, Client Lab Day without prior notification, will not receive a participation signature. As a result, lab skill sheet will be incomplete and will result in a number grade of “0”. Tardiness Policy: A student may not miss more than four days per course. Any late arrival or leaving early will equal one (1) tardy. Four (4) tardies are equal to one (1) absence. If the student’s absences range four (4) days in any one course, the student will be dismissed from that course. If prior to “W” day the student may withdraw from the course through the admissions office to receive a grade of “W”. If after “W” day, or if the student fails to withdraw themselves, a grade of “F” will be recorded.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. (Faculty may add additional statement requiring monitoring and communication expectations via Blackboard or other LMS)

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook. <https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor’s professional judgment of the quality of the student’s work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal. https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Holly Bankston at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Counseling Statement: Any student needing counseling services is requested to please contact Holly Bankston in the student success center at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. Counseling services are available on campus in the student center for free and students can also email counseling@com.edu to set up their appointment. Appointments are strongly encouraged; however, some concerns may be addressed on a walk-in basis.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 6. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 19. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is December 2.

F_N Grading: The F_N grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The F_N grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the F_N grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an F_N grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

COVID-19 Statement: All students, faculty, and staff are expected to familiarize themselves with materials and information contained on the College of the Mainland’s Coronavirus Information site at www.com.edu/coronavirus. In compliance with Governor Abbott's May 18 Executive Order, face coverings/masks will no longer be required on COM campus. Protocols and college signage are being updated. We will no longer enforce any COM protocol that requires face coverings. We continue to encourage all members of the COM community to distance when possible, use hygiene measures, and get vaccinated to protect against COVID-19. Please visit com.edu/coronavirus for future updates.
