Required Textbook/Materials:

Gateways to Art (PURCHASE HERE IN THE COURSE SHELL OR GO TO BOOKSTORE FOR CODE TO USE YOUR FINANCIAL AID)

Course Description:

A general introduction to the visual arts designed to create an appreciation of the vocabulary, media, techniques, and purposes of the creative process. Students will critically interpret and evaluate works of art within formal, cultural, and historical contexts.

Course requirements:

This course requires you to log in and work towards specific due dates. You must be self-motivated and organized.

READING: You will read in your textbook (loaded in the course shell) every week. You will complete a reading activity every week.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS: You will participate in a discussion every week.

MINOR DRAFTS: You will pick an artist to explore the entire semester. You will complete rough drafts of specific assignments during some weeks.

MAJOR DRAFTS: Using the chosen artist, you will complete major drafts of specific assignments. The major drafts are worth more points as they are more involved. These will be due during some of weeks.

FINAL PROJECT: You will pick an artist and use that artist's work to create a final project. The final project is a compilation of all your edited drafts from the semester. This is due during the final week.

EXTRA CREDIT: Throughout the semester you will have some extra credit offerings. These can be used to “make up” points from missed or late assignments or just to bolster your existing grade. These are offered during some of the weeks.

Course Outline: see published course schedule for specific due dates

- Week 1 Fundamentals of art
- Week 2 Media and Process
- Week 3 Art History
- Week 4 Themes of Art
- Week 5 Final Projects

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook. Student Handbook 2022-2023 v4.pdf \(com.edu\).

An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Kimberly Lachney at 409-933-8919 or klachney@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing, students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is March 1. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is April 24. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is May 3.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance, they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.
