Student hours and location: Monday/Wednesday 7:00 AM – 8:00 AM, LRC #8, Room 249

Required Textbook/Materials: <https://www.americanyawp.com/>

Course Description: This course is a study of United States history since 1877, from the Civil War to the present. This course will emphasize political, social, and economic developments, as well as other significant topics. This course (a) meets the requirements of a college transfer course for four-year degree programs (b) prepares students for upper-division coursework in history (c) prepares students for the academic rigors of upper-division coursework in the social sciences (d) prepares students in developing their critical thinking skills.

Course requirements: This is a course that requires the student to attend lectures. Each lecture contains material that is not available in the textbook, material that the student is responsible for and will be tested upon, therefore it is essential that students make a concerted effort to attend class. If a student is absent from class, they are responsible for acquiring the lecture notes from a classmate. Rigorous note taking and studying of lecture notes is mandatory if the student is to succeed in the class. In addition to attending lectures, students are expected to read the textbook assignments.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

Exams:

The student will take Three exams throughout the semester. Each exam will cover the lectures, class discussions, and textbook. The class will be broken into three major segments or themes and each theme will address a specific main point that discusses and highlights the events, people, movements, etc in history. Each exam completes a segment of history and no exam is cumulative. These themes or ideas will be emphasized and elaborated on strengthening what role they play in American History as the country evolves politically, socially, economically, and militarily. The first 2 exam will contain 40 multiple choice questions worth 2.5 points each and the final exam will be 50 multiple choice questions worth 2 points each. Each exam is separate from the other 2 and no exam is cumulative. Total points for each exam is 100 points.

Assignments:

US Colony Project: The students will be working on them by themselves over the 13 colonies for a grade. I will grade each presentation and student based on their actual completion and overall finished presentation. The entire project will be worth 100 points. Each colony presented reflects on how they all played a part and a better understanding how their colony was founded, made an impact in America's formation and the difference between the original 13 colonies. This is a solo project and not a group project. The three main things or topics that must be included for each colony: the founder or settlers, the economy, and the religion.

US President Project: The students who didn't do a Colony Presentation will then choose 1 of the first 15 President's and create a similar power point presentation. I will grade each presentation and student based on their actual completion and overall finished presentation. The entire project will be worth 100 points. The three things to include in the project are: brief overview of each President's background, their time as President, and their time after serving as President.

Due Dates for the Colony/President Presentation: February 16, 2024 on Brightspace at 11:59. No late work accepted.

History Book Analytical Assignment:

I am going to assign a book to read that is both appropriate for the time period of this 1301 class and length of pages and scope so you won't be over-whelmed and risk the chance of getting behind or lost. The book I will have you read – either as a digital copy online (there are various places to read it on line for free or to buy, or a copy of the physical version) is the Narrative Life of Frederick Douglass. The book is less than 150 pages long and it's a very interesting, fast and appropriate read that deals with the issue of slavery in America in the 1800s prior to the Civil War.

Once you have read the book, you will write up a 2-3 page Analytical Paper fully analyzing it from your own cognitive and analytical input, thinking and understanding. The format is simple and will abide to the principle of encouraging the student to fully engross and immerse into the book or author's main central ideals and overall purpose. The format to use and follow is as follows: 12 Point Font, Times New Roman, Double Spaced and is worth a 100 points.

The student will read the book and work on understanding the topic and purpose analytically and most importantly attempt or infer on the historical moments and place to the context of the time, period, place, people, events, etc. In roughly 2-3 pages, the student will pull from the book what they have chosen to find a theme or an overall arching arc of the chapters and content that pushes them to think critically and analytically about the book.

This can be done in several paragraphs that capitalizes and comments on the entire scope of the book.

A purposeful guide in these paragraphs could be included in their papers that touch on the authors beginning chapters, middle chapters, and final chapters that complete and compliment the message of the author. The student could also approach the book from the perspective on picking out 1 or 2 very common and useful points that creates a theme that is used throughout with the intent of explaining and highlighting while strengthening it as it relates to the time period, event, movement, etc. There is no right or wrong way to analyze and write a 2-3 paper for this assignment as long as the student immerses themselves into the book and focuses on the content, its proper historical context and to critically think beyond the normal and typical level rather than typing up a summation or quick overview of the book with no thought, understanding and grasp.

The assignment if it falls into the 2-3 page range will include at least and up to 5-7 paragraphs with the hope and aspiration for the student to push themselves and challenge their critical and analytical skills that far exceed what they have done before or that is different from a book report, review or a research paper. If a student has questions, confused or needs some help in understanding the assignment better, needs clarification I encourage them to ask, reach out and stay on top of the assignment and requirements. Most importantly is for them to be creative, critical and analytical in their approach, book, and paper when its completed and ready to turn in. If you have any questions please don't hesitate and email me.

The History Book Analytical Assignment is due on May 3, 2024 on Brightspace at 11:59 pm. No late work accepted.

This History Book Analytical paper Assignment satisfies the SLO #6 which states: Students will demonstrate intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.

Historical Thought Paper: There are 3 topics in 1301 the student can choose to do containing 2-3 pages. The topics are: 1) significance/importance of the Declaration of Independence/Revolutionary War; 2) significance/importance of the War 1812; 3) significance/importance of the Mexican-American War. This is not a research paper, but more of a thought/analytical/perspective paper over 1 of the 3 topics. More information will be made in class for the students.

The Thought Paper is due on May 3, 2024 on Brightspace at 11:59 pm. No Late Work Accepted.

GRADING FORMULA:

Grading Policy:

The following grading measures will be implemented in determining the grades done by the students. There will be four exams and 5 in class quizzes over the States and the Presidents from 1775 to 1867.

Your grade will be determined by the following	Details	Points (if applicable)	Percent of Final Average
Exams	3 Exams each worth 100 pts. each	300
13 Colony Project and President Project	13 Colonies and President Project worth 100 points	100
Historical Book Assignment	1 Books Assignment Paper worth 100 points	100
Historical Thought Paper	1 2-3 page paper over 1 of 3 topics	100
Total:		600	100%

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy:

Extra Credit Work: No extra work given

Make-Up Work: Make-up Exams: All make-up exams will be taken at the Testing Center within 1 week when the test was originally given. You will need to make an appointment at the Testing Center and will take it there and be given the 90 minutes to complete it and inform the instructor that a date/time has been set up at the testing center so that I can drop it off for those students to make it up there on their scheduled time and date.

Cell phones and beepers: Turn off all cell phones, pagers and beepers prior to the beginning of class. If a cell phone goes off during the class, the student will be asked to leave.

Attendance Policy: The nature of this course is such that one should attend all scheduled sessions. There is a clear and direct correlation between attendance and success in the classroom, therefore regular attendance is strongly urged. However, in the event of illness or extenuating circumstances, it is the student's responsibility to acquire the lecture from a classmate. In addition, keep in mind certain assignments have a 1 week grace period to make up and some have no grace period. Quizzes can be made up within a week of a missed class and you must arrange a time with the Professor to make it up. On the other hand, the research paper, or a Group Presentation can't be made up. Any assignments not made up in the allotted time frame will be recorded as a 0 and the others that can't be made up will be a 0 as well.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. (Faculty may add additional statement requiring monitoring and communication expectations via D2L or other LMS)

1. Create an argument through the use of historical evidence.	Critical Thinking Skills (CT)	Paper
2. Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources.	Critical Thinking Skills (CT)	Paper
3. Analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural, and global forces on this period of United States history.	Critical Thinking Skills (CT)	Exams

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student_Handbook_2023-2024_v2.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Kimberly Lachney at 409-933-8919 or klachney@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is February 28. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is April 22. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is May 1. The last date to withdraw for spring mini session is May 29.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.
