

History 1302.313CL United States History II Spring 2023

Instructor Information: Dr. Steven L. Sewell ssewell@com.edu 409-933-8117

Class Days and Time: MW 8:05 a.m. - 9:20 a.m., FWHS

Student hours and location: MTWTH 12:30-2:30 p.m., LRC A-220 and by appointment

Required Textbook: Edwards, Hinderaker, et al, America's History Concise Edition, 10th edition. Reading assignments are listed on page 10 of the syllabus. Material drawn from the textbook will account for 10% of each exam. The textbook may contain the electronic key to access online material.

Course Description: A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the Civil War/Reconstruction era to the present. United States History II examines industrialization, immigration, world wars, the Great Depression, Cold War, and post-Cold War eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History II include American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration urbanization and suburbanization, the expansion of the federal government, and the study of U.S. foreign policy

Determination of Course Grade:

Exams: There will be five exams during the semester with a value of 100 points each. Exam material will be drawn from both lectures and assigned readings. Students should pay particular attention to the terms in the study guides. Each exam will consist of fifty multiple-choice questions. Each question will be worth two points. Make up exams will be given only under extraordinary circumstances, and all make up exams will have an automatic 10-point penalty assessed.

Assessment Quizzes: In addition to the five exams, there will be seven two-question pop quizzes during the semester. These quizzes will be given at the end of class, directly following the lecture. The five highest quiz scores will be kept, and the lowest two quiz scores will be dropped. Quizzes are to identify at-risk students. Once at-risk students are identified, a plan will be developed in conjunction with the student with the goal of improving their performance in the class. Each quiz will be worth twenty points. Quizzes cannot be made up. If you miss a quiz, it will count as one of the two quizzes that will be dropped.

Textbook Chapter Discussions: There are four textbook chapter discussions. There is a textbook chapter discussion in Modules 1-4. There is no textbook chapter discussion for Module Five. The discussion questions will be distributed, along with the study guide, at the beginning of each module. After reading the textbook chapter, you will submit a 100-200-word discussion responding to the discussion question. You can turn in the discussion at any time, but it must be turned in on or before that module's exam date. See the course outline section of the course for chapter discussion deadlines. Each discussion posting is worth 25 points. Chapter discussions will not be accepted past the exam deadline and will be recorded as zeros in the grade book.

Discussion postings will be evaluated using the following rubric.

- 23-25 points: Contains all required elements
- 20-22 points: Contains most required elements
- 17-19 points: Missing some required elements
- 15-16 points: Missing most required elements
- 14 or less points: Missing all required elements

Oral Communication Assignment: One of the key core objectives you will develop in college are oral communication skills. To help you develop this skill, this course has an oral communication assignment. The student will select a topic from the topics covered in the course and make a five-minute oral presentation on the topic. Students will record their oral presentation on either their cellphone or their computer and then upload the presentation to Brightspace in the "Assignments" section of the course, or you can upload the presentation to YouTube and then upload the link to Brightspace.

The deadline for the oral communication assignment is 11:59 p.m., Monday, Feb. 20th. No late oral communication assignments will be accepted, NO EXCEPTIONS. The oral communication assignment is worth 100 points. This is a high value assignment. Failure to turn this assignment will adversely affect your final course grade.

The oral communication assignment will be graded according to the following formula:

- Verbal Communication - 20 points
- Nonverbal Communication - 20 points
- Content - 30 points
- Organization - 30 points
- 100 points

Primary Source assignment: In addition to exams and quizzes, there is a primary source assignment. The Primary Source assignment is a series of questions on the primary source document, “The Atlanta Compromise.” The primary source assignment is available from the first day of class, but is part of Module Three. Upload your response to the assignment questions to the “Assignments” section in Brightspace. The Primary Source assignment is by 11:59 p.m. on Wednesday, March 8th. Submissions will not be accepted after the Module Three exam date and will be recorded as zeros in the grade book. The assignment is worth 100 points. This is a high value assignment. Failure to turn this assignment will adversely affect your final course grade.

Each Primary Source assignment will be evaluated using the following rubric:

- 90-100 points: Contains all required elements
- 80-89 points: Contains most required elements
- 70-79 points: Missing some required elements
- 60-69 points: Missing most required elements
- 59 or less points: Missing all required elements

Paper Assignment: In the paper assignment the student will analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources, then create an argument using historical evidence in a two-page paper (double-spaced, 12-point font, Times New Roman). In your paper you must use at least one primary source and two secondary sources. The paper assignment will address the following Core Objectives: Critical Thinking Skills, Communication Skills, Social Responsibility, and Personal Responsibility.

In addition to analyzing and interpreting primary and secondary sources and constructing an argument using historical evidence, the student MUST include a section in their paper discussing the social and personal responsibility (using the definition on page 6 of the syllabus) of the individuals involved in the topic. Students must discuss these individuals and the issues they were involved in using critical thinking and effectively communicate their views on these topics in their papers.

The deadline for submitting the paper assignment to Brightspace is 11:59 p.m. on Monday, April 10th. No late papers will be accepted, NO EXCEPTIONS. The paper assignment is worth 100 points. This is a high value assignment. Failure to turn this assignment will adversely affect your final course grade.

The Paper Assignment will be graded using the following formula:

Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources	- 30 points
Create an argument using historical evidence	- 30 points
Effective use of Critical Thinking Skills	- 10 points
Effective use of Communication Skills (written)	- 10 points
Analysis of the Social Responsibility component of the topic	- 10 points
Analysis of the Personal Responsibility component the topic	- 10 points
	100 points

Paper assignment topics are contextualized and based on Metamajors. All areas of study at College of the Mainland fall into one of four Metamajors. Metamajors are a grouping of degrees and programs that share common purpose or content. College of the Mainland Metamajors are:

Arts and Humanities: Economics, English, Government, History, Humanities, Music, Philosophy, Psychology, Sociology, Spanish, Speech, Theater, Visual Arts. A General Studies major falls within the Arts and Humanities Metamajor. Dual Credit students are considered Arts and Humanities Metamajors.

Business and Industry: Business, Cybersecurity, Drafting, Graphic Arts, Occupational Safety and Health Technology, Process Technology, Welding.

Health, Human and Consumer Science, and Public Safety: Barbering, Cosmetology, Criminal Justice, Education, Emergency Medical Services, Esthetician, Fire Technology, Health Information, Law Enforcement, Medical Assisting, Nursing, Pharmacy Technology, Physical Education.

STEM: Computer Information Systems, Engineering, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, Physical Sciences.

Paper Assignments based on Metamajors are as follows:

Arts and Humanities: Discuss Emma Goldman. Discuss her role as a political activist and a writer. Include a section on the social and personal responsibility of her political activities and writings.

Business and Industry: Discuss John D. Rockefeller. Discuss his role and contributions to the development of American industry. Include a section on the social and personal responsibility of his actions.

Health, Human and Consumer Science, and Public Safety: Discuss Jonas Salk. Discuss his role in the development of the polio vaccine. Include a section on the social and personal responsibility of his actions.

STEM: Discuss Robert Oppenheimer. Discuss his role in the development of the atomic bomb. Discuss the social and personal responsibility of his actions.

How the final course grade will be calculated:

Total points for the semester will be 1000 points.

Course grades will be calculated as follows:

	Points
Lecture Quizzes 5 @ 20 points	100
Textbook Chapter Discussions 4 @ 25 points	100
Oral Communication Assignment	100
Primary Source Assignment	100
Paper Assignment	100
Module One Exam	100
Module Two Exam	100
Module Three Exam	100
Module Four Exam	100
Module Five Exam	100
Total	1000

Grade Scale:

900-1000 = A (90 - 100% average)

800-899 = B (80 - 89% average)

700-799 = C (70 - 79% average)

600-699 = D (60 - 69% average)

599 or below = F (59% or below)

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra Credit Policy:

Late Work: Late work will not be accepted. Deadlines for quizzes, exams, and other assignments are stated in the syllabus. Deadlines are known well in advance; therefore, no late work will be accepted.

Make-Up: Make-Up work is allowed under extraordinary circumstances and must be approved by the instructor. All work can be submitted only once. No “redoos” on quizzes and exams.

Extra Credit: To earn extra credit, select a film from the list below. After you watch the film and write a two-page typed summary of the film, answering the questions listed below. You will receive ten extra credit points for each summary turned in.

Film List:

Paths of Glory

Sergeant York

Matewan

Inherit the Wind

The Grapes of Wrath

Mississippi Burning

Flags of Our Fathers

Judgement at Nuremburg

The Manchurian Candidate

Bad Day at Black Rock

Salt of the Earth

Selma

Film review questions:

- What did you enjoy most about the film?
- What did you enjoy least about the film?
- Was there a message or moral to the story?
- Can the message or moral be applied to life?
- Did the story engage your emotions? How did the story leave you feeling?

Note: Quality summaries will earn you ten extra points; summaries that are not well done will earn less credit, so don't turn in sloppy work and expect to earn a full ten points extra credit. Summaries must be turned in by the last lecture class of the semester. Summaries will not be accepted after that date.

Another way to earn extra credit is to select a book out of the library. Any topic covered in United States history to 1877 is acceptable, but the instructor must approve it. After you read the book and write a two-page typed summary of the book, you will receive up to ten extra credit points, depending on the quality of the work submitted.

Other extra credit may be offered from time to time at the discretion of the instructor.

The maximum extra credit that can be earned is thirty points.

Attendance Policy: Attendance is crucial to success in any class. There is a clear and direct correlation between attendance and success in the classroom. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of every class.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means.

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook Student Handbook 2022-2023 v4.pdf \(com.edu\). An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Kimberly Lachney at 409-933-8919 or klachney@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is March 1. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is April 24. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is May 3.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress:

If you are experiencing stress or anxiety about your daily living needs including food, housing or just feel you could benefit from free resources to help you through a difficult time, please click here <https://www.com.edu/community-resource-center/>. College of the Mainland has partnered with free community resources to help you stay on track with your schoolwork, by addressing life issues that get in the way of doing your best in school. All services are private and confidential. You may also contact the Dean of Students office at deanofstudents@com.edu or communityresources@com.edu.
