

History HIST 1302.024I2
United States History II
Fall 2025

Instructor Information: Preston Mack, pmack@com.edu

Student hours and location: Based on student's need

Required Textbook/Materials: All required readings will be provided by the instructor through D2L.

Course Description: A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the Civil War/Reconstruction eras to the 2010s. Topics may include: The Gilded Age, The Progressive Era, World War I, World War II, the Cold War, Civil Rights Movement, Vietnam, the Reagan Era, and the War on Terror. Themes that may be addressed in United States History II include American settlement and diversity, American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, as well as immigration and migration.

Course requirements:

Weekly Discussion- Each week students will be assigned a reading to supplement the lecture. To receive credit students must make a significant contribution to the discussion, simple closed ended answers like “I agree” or “yes/no” will not count. Each student will be expected to make one original post and respond to at least one other student’s post.

Writing Assignment Document- The exam for this course will be a cumulative writing assignment. In the Instructions tab on D2L, students will find instructions and topics to select from for their assignment. In a Office 365 document, the student will answer three questions about their selected source. The purpose of the live document format is so that the instructor can provide feedback on a regular basis so that the student may revise the document before the final turn in. The final products will be turned in by providing a link to the document in Brightspace. Further instructions will be available on Brightspace.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

Reading Discussions-80 points total (8 at 10 point each)

Writing Assignment Document-10 points

Final Document-10 points

- A: 90-100
- B: 80-89
- C: 70-79
- D: 65-69
- F: 0 – 64

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy: Late work is not accepted. There is no Makeup work, you have a window of several days and in some cases several weeks to complete assignments. I do not go back and open assignments up. Please do not email me missed assignments, all assignments must be uploaded to blackboard. The only situations in which a make-up exam will be allowed are GENUINE AND DOCUMENTED EMERGENCIES. Any extra credit opportunities will be posted in D2L.

Attendance Policy: Students are expected to attend class regularly. There is a clear and direct correlation between attendance and success in the classroom. In the event of an absence, it is the student's responsibility to acquire lecture notes from a classmate. If an absence falls on a due date for an assignment, it is the student's responsibility to turn in all assignments before the deadline.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. (Faculty may add additional statement requiring monitoring and communication expectations via D2L or other LMS)

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student_Handbook_2024-2025_v6.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact:

Email: AccessibilityServices@com.edu

Location: COM Doyle Family Administration Building, Student Success Center

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is February 26. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is April 21. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is April 30.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress:
