Course Description: English 1301 is designed as an introduction to college-level, academic writing. This course teaches the principles and techniques of written composition, textual analysis of non-fiction prose, and critical thinking. Activities and assignments include paragraphs, essays, research, and analysis and discussion of assigned readings.

Course requirements (including description of any special projects or assignments): We will be writing numerous papers with a research paper due at the end of the course. The student will also be required to complete The Research Tutorial. The student will be required to pick a single topic and write 4-5 papers on that topic for the remainder of the semester. The student will be required to write on the topic from different perspectives so the issue of a specific topic should not be taken lightly. The instructor will help anyone having trouble choosing a topic. The student will also be required to submit one of his/her papers for class evaluation. The student papers will be the textbook for the class and out of these papers will come class discussion topics and guided instruction.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula (methods of evaluation to be employed to include a variety of means to evaluate student performance):

Participation	10%

Grading Scale:

- A = 90-100
 B = 80-89
 C = 70-79
 D = 60-69
 F = 59 or less

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook Student Handbook 2022-2023 v4.pdf \(com.edu\). An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.
