COURSE INFORMATION

Required Textbook: None

Lynda.com: Required, see below for titles.

Optional Textbook: The Graphic Designer's Guide to Portfolio Design (second edition) by Debbie Rose Myers, John Wiley & Sons, Inc. ISBN: 978-0-470-18476-9

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Course Description: Preparation of a portfolio comprised of completed graphic design projects. Evaluation and demonstration of portfolio presentation methods based on the student's specific area of study. Prerequisites: GRPH 2309 or IMED 2315 with a grade of "C" or better.

In addition, this course provides a student with an individualized program to develop a portfolio through the use of research, production, written support, and oral presentation. The course places a high emphasis on researching the job market for applicable positions as well as enhancing the student's interviewing skills.

At the completion of the course, the student will participate in a mock interview held with industry professionals to obtain feedback on their portfolio presentation and interviewing procedures. This is a Capstone course that should be taken in the last spring semester of a certificate or degree program.

Grading System

Items	Points	% Of Grade	Location
Traditional Portfolio	100	20	Online
Digital Portfolio	100	30	Online
Personal SWOT and Resume Brand Package	100	15	Online
Interview	100	25	Online
Lynda.com Certificates	100	10	Online
Total	450	100

Please Note: (grades and projects subject to change)

All typos will represent -5 points. (Typos include misspelled words, superfluous words/letters, extra spaces, double returns, etc.)

In an effort to give back to our community, and give students real-world client experiences, we may take on a "real community" project. This changes from semester to semester, but if the instructor has the opportunity to work with a "real client" we will. Grading will be realigned to the outcomes of that project, and students will be made aware of changes via D2L grade center and class discussion.

In the classroom as in business, the need may arise for students to go beyond the given instructions or directions. Therefore, additional resources will be helpful to the student. These may include additional Lynda.com videos, textbooks resources in the studio area, videos, help from classmates and instructor.

*This course has a grade for class participation including attendance, ability to work with little assistance, participating in classroom discussion, and working as a peer proctor for other students

Assignments will address the following Core Objectives:

1. Critical thinking skills – to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information
2. Communication skills – to include effective written, oral, and visual communication
3. Personal responsibility – to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making

Traditional Portfolio, Digital Portfolio, Interview, SWOT, and Resume Brand will be graded using the following formula: See Project Rubric on Course Menu
Professional	Dedication, effort, Commitment to refine project, Process, Strategy and Communication, Meets client needs	30
Conceptual	Originality and innovation, Concept, Understanding, Audience, Aesthetics	40
Technical	Craftsmanship, Medium, Presentation	30
		Total 100

Grading Scale:

- 90 - 100% = A
- 80 - 89% = B
- 70 - 79% = C
- 60 - 69% = D

Any grade below 60 is an F

COURSE POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

Attendance:

This is a Hybrid class, and you are required to participate and complete all assigned work. You are expected to log into your course at least twice a week and complete all Lynda.com assignments. I do not allow late projects so please be on time with your assignments.

Make-Up Policy:

1. Make-up Exams or Assignments are not allowed without the consent of the instructor. Any deviation from this policy would be only for extenuating circumstances, which are substantiated and approved as a special case by the instructor at the request of the student.
2. All instruction missed is the responsibility of the student.

3. All work given a deadline will include -10 points for late work. If given makeup or retake tests will include -10 points.

Extra Credit: There is no extra credit in this course

Concerns/Questions Statement: If you have any questions or concerns about any aspect of this course, please contact me using the contact information previously provided. If, after discussing your concern with me, you continue to have questions, please contact the Fine Arts Department Chair, Paul Boyd at 409-933-8342, pboyd@com.edu

INSTITUTIONAL POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student_Handbook_2022-2023_v4.pdf

An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Kimberly Lachney at 409-933-8919 or klachney@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Resources to Help with Stress: If you are experiencing stress or anxiety about your daily living needs including food, housing or just feel you could benefit from free resources to help you through a difficult time, please click here <https://www.com.edu/community-resource-center/>. College of the Mainland has partnered with free community resources to help you stay on track with your schoolwork, by addressing life issues that get in the way of doing your best in school. All services are private and confidential. You may also contact the Dean of Students office at deanofstudents@com.edu or communityresources@com.edu.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is March 1. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is April 24. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is May 3.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program, you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

COVID-19 Statement: All students, faculty, and staff are expected to familiarize themselves with materials and information contained on the College of the Mainland's Coronavirus Information site at www.com.edu/coronavirus. In compliance with Governor Abbott's May 18 Executive Order, face coverings/masks will no longer be required on COM campus. Protocols and college signage are being updated. We will no longer enforce any COM protocol that requires face coverings. We continue to encourage all members of the COM community to distance themselves, when possible, use hygiene measures, and get vaccinated to protect against COVID-19. Please visit com.edu/coronavirus for future updates.

Technology Outages

When taking quizzes please make sure you are not using Wi-Fi. It is recommended that you are at a workstation that is hardwired to the Internet. Wi-Fi can fluctuate and you may lose connection. If the College loses power and servers are down, I will be made aware of the issues by the Educational Technology Dept. and will reopen a quiz if I need to. Please be proactive and take your quizzes before the deadline to avoid issues. If you forget to take a quiz that is not a technology issue, you will have a zero.

Academic Dishonesty: Any incident of academic policy will be dealt with in accordance with college policy and the Student Handbook. Academic dishonesty – such as cheating on exams is an extremely serious offense and will result in a grade of zero on that exam and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate disciplinary action.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is using someone else's words or ideas and claiming them as your own. Plagiarism is a very serious offense. Plagiarism includes paraphrasing someone else's words without giving a proper citation, copying directly from a website, and pasting it into your paper, and using someone else's words without quotation marks. Any assignment containing any plagiarized material will receive a grade of zero and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate disciplinary action.
