Required Textbook/Materials: Psychology in Everyday Life, 5th edition; by David G. Myers; published by Worth Publishers. ISBN:9781319133726 . Launchpad is an online recourse that we will be using to read, study, and complete activities.

WITH Launchpad <https://www.macmillanhighered.com/launchpad/pe15e/16164105>

If you buy Launchpad (which is REQUIRED for this course) from the above website YOU AUTOMATICALLY get access to the ebook, so it is the cheaper option!

It is your choice if you want a hardcopy, paperback, or digital book. BUT YOU NEED LAUNCHPAD ALSO!

Course Description: This is an introduction to the field of psychology, dealing with such topics as the scientific method and theories, neuroscience and behavior, perception, consciousness, learning, memory, intelligence, motivation, emotion and stress, personality, psychological disorders, and therapy.

Course requirements

Method of Instruction: This course primarily consists of lessons and discussions provided by the instructor. Additionally, videos and other supplementary articles may be used to emphasize key issues. The lessons parallel and reinforce assigned readings; therefore it is essential that students keep up to date with their online work. The lessons will be open for one week, giving you plenty of time to complete the required materials.

Coursework Policy: All coursework will be assigned and opened online on a weekly basis. For this course, weeks begin at 12:00am on the MONDAY of the assigned week and end at 11:59pm on the SUNDAY of the assigned week.

EXCEPTION: Due to it being the last week of classes, Week 16 will be short week. Accommodations have been made and Week 16 assignments will open at 12:00am on SATURDAY of Week 15 and close at 5:00pm on THURSDAY of Week 16.

Late Work/Make-Up Policy: There are NO make-up quizzes, assignments, discussions or exams! With NO exception! I leave them all open for a wide period of time to give you every opportunity to complete them within the required period. The dates and times that the graded materials are available will be clearly visible in Blackboard. The due dates will also be posted on the course schedule.

Failure to complete an assignment: All assignments will be due by the date assigned by the professor. NO LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula

Chapter Quizzes:

There will be a total of 14 Chapter Quizzes that will be done online using Launchpad program on the Macmillan website. (See the section of “Required Textbook/Materials”) with each quiz having a maximum of 100 points. Quizzes will be assigned for each chapter. Chapter Quizzes may include a combination of true/false, multiple choice, and/or matching questions. Each Chapter Quiz will be timed and you will have a total of 30 minutes to complete each quiz.

All students must complete the online quizzes by the scheduled date. There are NO Make-up Quizzes.

NOTE: Please be aware that although you have one full week to take the quizzes, once the quiz has started it must be completed in one timed session.

Discussion Forum Posts:

Each student will be required to complete 1 Introduction Forum and 12 Discussion Forum posts throughout the semester. These posts will allow you to discuss a topic related to the assigned chapter in greater depth.

In the Introduction Forum, each student will be required to complete an Introduction Post during the first week of classes. This post will allow you to introduce yourself to the class with a short biography. In this biography, you can include any details about yourself that will allow your fellow students to “put a person to the name”. The Introductions Forum Post will be worth a 100 points.

Each Discussion Forum Post has the following instructions:

1. Review the assigned article(s) or video(s)
2. Post a brief description of the topic and discuss what they have learned
3. Post a brief summary of their thoughts are on the topic

4. Reply to a minimum of two other student's posts and rate it

Each Discussion Forum Post will be worth a maximum of 100 points.

You will earn up to 40 points for your description of the topic and what you have learned, up to 40 points for your thoughts on the topic, and up to 20 points for your reply to another student.

NOTE: Responses can be deleted at the discretion of the instructor. Responses will only be deleted if the instructor determines them to be aggressive, rude, degrading, etc., and they may be deleted without notice to the student. All such responses will receive a grade of 0 for the deleted thread. Please refer to the syllabus for more information regarding student conduct and expectations.

Presentation Post:

Throughout the semester, students will have presentations as individuals and in groups. Each student will be required to complete 4 presentations throughout the semester. These Presentation will help students examine various topic in the field of psychology and identify how these impact our society on the community, state and national level. Further, this presentation will allow students to examine the importance of being knowledgeable of their own personal biases and/or stereotypes, and how they can be more informed in their future interactions.

Each Presentation Post has the following instructions:

1. Review the assigned topic
2. Develop a 5-7 minute presentation on the topic. Specific instructions will be provided.
3. Write a brief summary of your presentation.
4. Share your presentation with the instructor. Specific instructions will be provided

Each Presentation will be worth a maximum of 100 points. You will earn up to 30 points for Quality of Information and Organization, up to 30 points for Quality of Verbal Communication, up to 30 points for Quality of Non-Verbal Communication and up to 10 points for the Written Summary.

ALL PRESENTATIONS LESS THAN 5 MINUTES WILL NOT BE GRADED!

Exams:

There will be a total of 4 Exams, with each exam having a maximum of 100 points. Exams will be broken down into sections containing between 2 and 4 chapters, and each exam will have a total of 40 questions (true/false, multiple choice, matching) and free response questions. Exams will be timed and you will have the total class time to complete each exam.

All students must complete the exams in class. There are NO Make-up Exams.

Grading Formula

The breakdown of the grading for the course will be as follows:

- 1) Exams-60%
- 2) Homework (Quizzes & Discussion boards) & In Class Activities-30%
- 3) Presentation -10%

Grading Scale	90 – 100	A
	80 – 89	B
	70 – 79	C
	60 – 69	D

Make-Up Policy

Failure to complete an assignment: There are NO make-up quizzes, assignments, discussions or exams! With NO exception! I leave them all open for a wide period of time to give you every opportunity to complete them within the required period. The dates and times that the graded materials are available will be clearly visible in Blackboard. The due dates will also be posted on the course schedule.

Attendance Policy: If you want to pass, come to class and be active in your learning process. You are expected to log into the course a minimum of two times per week and you should expect to spend at least 2 ½ hours a week in the course reviewing lessons and other course material. The online material goes beyond the material presented in the text, and you will be held accountable for this material on the exams and course assignments. The discussion component of the course also requires you to engage your fellow students in “conversation,” which requires you to regularly read and respond to posts.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. (Faculty may add additional statement requiring monitoring and communication expectations via Blackboard or other LMS)

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook. <https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal. https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Holly Bankston at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Counseling Statement: Any student needing counseling services is requested to please contact Holly Bankston in the student success center at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. Counseling services are available on campus in the student center for free and students can also email counseling@com.edu to set up their appointment. Appointments are strongly encouraged; however, some concerns may be addressed on a walk-in basis.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 6. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 19. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is December 2.

FN Grading: The F_N grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The F_N grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the F_N grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an F_N grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

COVID-19 Statement: All students, faculty, and staff are expected to familiarize themselves with materials and information contained on the College of the Mainland's Coronavirus Information site at www.com.edu/coronavirus. In compliance with Governor Abbott's May 18 Executive Order, face coverings/masks will no longer be required on COM campus. Protocols and college signage are being updated. We will no longer enforce any COM protocol that requires face coverings. We continue to encourage all members of the COM community to distance when possible, use hygiene measures, and get vaccinated to protect against COVID-19. Please visit com.edu/coronavirus for future updates.
