Course Description: This course is the study and application of the methods and components of theatrical production which may include one or more of the following: Theatre facilities, scenic construction and painting, properties, lighting, costume, makeup, sound and theatrical management. Each student will purchase work gloves, a 25' tape measure and protective eyewear.

Course requirements: Student are expected to attend all classes and Labs. You will learn to use multiple power tools and theatrical processes. You will also have to draw and use math skills.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

Grading Formula: The Final letter grade for the course will be based on the following:

A. Stagecraft Labs	50%
B. Three Exams	20%
C. 3 Performance Response Essays.	15%
D. Design Project.	15%
	= 100%

Work for the class can only be made up when there is an excused absence. The work must be turned in the class following the absence. Any work turned in after the return is subject to 20 points off the grade. Lab work will have to be made up during the week by appointment.

Attendance Policy:

In recognition of the importance of regular attendance, the college does not allow any "cuts" on the part of the students, nor does it allow instructors to give "walks." An accurate record of each student's absence will be kept. Students are expected to attend class and to arrive on time. Absences will be recorded on the days of the lectures/discussions/labs, and any other days that the Instructor deems necessary. These absences will not directly affect the student's overall grade, but may influence individual assignments. Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are only permitted to withdraw six times during their college career by State law. The last day to withdraw for the 1st 8 week session is October 7th, November 23rd for 16 week courses and December 3rd for the 2nd 8 week session.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. Students are encouraged to monitor class messages via D2L.

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student_Handbook_2024-2025_v2.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

Email: AccessibilityServices@com.edu

Location: COM Doyle Family Administration Building, Student Success Center

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 2. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 15. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is November 26.

F_N Grading: The F_N grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The F_N grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the F_N grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an F_N grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress:
