Required Textbook/Materials:

Course Texts - All texts will be available in D2L/Brightspace.

Background information will be taken from The Norton Anthology of English Literature: The major Authors, Vol. 1, 10th Edition.

Course Materials – Access of MS Word, the internet, cloud storage (or another storage device), paper, pens/pencils, highlighters

Course Description:

A survey of the development of British literature from the Anglo-Saxon period to the eighteenth century. Students will study works of prose, poetry, drama, and fiction in relation to their historical, linguistic, and cultural contexts. Texts will be selected from a diverse group of authors and traditions.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1301 with a grade of "C" or better.

Course requirements:

You are expected to complete all reading assignments prior to class. There will be one analytical essay, one researched essay, journal prompts, and a final essay exam. I reserve the right to give reading quizzes as needed throughout the semester.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

- Class Activities and Participation (15%): All course activities, reading reflections, reading/content quizzes, and personal responsibility will be included in this category.
- Discussion Prompts (15%): Discussion boards will be utilized to encourage class discussion and interaction. Directions for this medium will be forth coming on D2L/Brightspace.

- Literary Critical Essays (35%): A literary analytical essay (worth 100 points) will be due before the midterm exam. The Researched Literary Argument (worth 200 points) will be assigned at the beginning of the semester and due prior to the final exam. Specifics for each assignment will be available in D2L/Brightspace.
- Mid-Term/Final Exams (35%): All revision and editing activities for all essay drafts.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

Class Activities and Participation (15%)

Mid-Term/Final Exams (35%)

Grading Scale:

A=100-90

B=89-80

C=79-70

D=69-60

F=59-0

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy:

Late Work/Make-up Policy: Deadlines are posted on Brightspace, the course syllabus, course calendar, and project assignment sheets. Assignments must be submitted in Brightspace before 11:59 p.m. on the specified due date. Assignments submitted up to two days past the due date will receive a deduction of 10 points. Assignments submitted beyond this point will not be accepted unless special arrangements are made BEFORE the original due date.

NOTE: Absences at any point in the semester will not affect your due dates. Don't get caught believing you have extra days to turn in an assignment just because you have been absent. It is vital to your success to communicate any issues you are having early in the writing process before any due date.

Extra Credit: Two additional percentage points will be added to the final grade percentage when the student completes the online course evaluation at the end of the semester.

Attendance Policy:

You are expected to be prepared and actively participate in class each week. Class discussions are components of your success in this course.

*A *weekly online presence through the completion of the course activities is mandatory for course attendance.

Census Day for this course is the 25th of August. Active participation and assignment completion for Week 1 must take place for your course presence to count for Census Day. The lack of participation and assignment completion will result in you being dropped from the course.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. I will check my e-mail throughout the weekday and generally will respond within 24 hours. Exceptions apply to times of illness, campus holidays, and weekends. When e-mailing me, please be sure to include the course and section number you are in to receive a more expedited response.

Academic Dishonesty:

Any incident of academic policy will be dealt with in accordance with college policy and the Student Handbook. Academic dishonesty – such as cheating on exams is an extremely serious offense and will result in a grade of zero on that exam and the student will be referred to the Dean of Students for the appropriate discipline action.

Humanities Department Policy Statement on Plagiarism: Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty. To plagiarize is to steal the words or ideas of another and pass them off as one's own. Two forms of plagiarism are common. In the first form, the writer incorporates published or otherwise recorded material without properly acknowledging its sources. In the second form, the writer submits work actually done by someone else. The student who allows his/her work to be used by others is also guilty.

Any assignment containing any plagiarized material will receive a grade of zero and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate discipline action. Ignorance will not be an acceptable defense: all students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the rules of documentation.

Usage of Artificial Intelligence (AI)  In this course, you may not use AI for any assignment in any way, shape, or form without the consent and guidance of the professor. The use of AI will be treated as plagiarism/academic dishonesty.

Avoiding Plagiarism: Research material must be cited both in the document and on a Work Cited Page. (MLA documentation style applies to all College of the Mainland English, humanities, philosophy, or speech classes). Remember to document when:

- ✓ Evidence is quoted directly from a source.
- ✓ Ideas from another source are paraphrased or summarized.
- ✓ Facts (i.e. statistics) or visual material from other sources must be documented.

Helpful Resources to Avoid Plagiarism:

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook <https://www.com.edu/student-services/student-handbook.html>. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodation is requested to contact:

Kimberly Lachney, Student Accessibility Services Coordinator

Phone: 409-933-8919

Email: AccessibilityServices@com.edu

Location: COM Doyle Family Administration Building, Student Success Center

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 1. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 14. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is November 25.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.
