The instruction will determine if the student should obtain the “medium high” or “medium low” edition. The Naked Voice: A Wholistic Approach to Singing, W. Stephen Smith., Oxford University Publishers, also available in the College Bookstore.

Recommended Course Materials

If a student is studying a substantial amount of repertoire from a particular source, then the student is encouraged to purchase that particular volume. However, any additional repertoire purchases shall be decided upon ultimately by mutual agreement of the teacher and the student.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Introduction/Course Description

Students enrolled for private music instruction receive one credit per semester for one half hour lesson per week, and two credits for a one hour lesson per week. Two credit hours of instruction is generally reserved for music majors declaring voice as major instrument. However, advanced and musically literate singers may enroll in the Vocal Major offering with advance approval of the instructor. Although there is no prerequisite for private instruction, all individuals enrolled are subject to an entrance audition. Prior to private instruction, Class Voice Instruction is highly recommended.

Attendance/ Make-up Policy

Regular attendance at lessons is required. Each unexcused absence will lower your course grade by one letter. Absences will be recorded as excused at the discretion of the teacher. In most cases, an absence will be unexcused unless the teacher is notified in advance and the reason for missing is acceptable to the teacher. Make up lessons will be scheduled at the teacher's discretion. Tardiness to lesson times will accrue as an absence. For example, 50 minutes of time accrued in tardiness = 1 unexcused absence (25 minutes for 1 credit hour lessons). If late for a lesson the student will be given only the time remaining in the lesson, unless the instructor is responsible for the delay. Students missing more than three (3) lesson times will be withdrawn from the course.

Concerns/Questions Statement: If you have any questions or concerns about any aspect of this course, please contact me using the contact information previously provided. If, after discussing your concern with me, you continue to have questions, please contact Paul Boyd, Chairman, Fine Arts, at 409-933-8347 pboyd@com.edu.

Attendance Policy:

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are only permitted to withdraw six times during their college career by State law. The last day to withdraw for this 16 week course is April 25, 2022.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention is very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor.
