Determination of Grade

Course Requirements : This is a course that requires the student to attend lectures. Each lecture contains material that is not available in the textbook, material that the student is responsible for and will be tested upon. Rigorous note taking and studying of lecture notes is expected if the student is to succeed. Students are also expected to read all textbook assignments. All students are expected to actively engage in class activities and discussions. An extra component includes researching a topic in history and presenting their findings to the class. There will be various primary source readings that are assigned to be evaluated. Points will be deducted for sleeping and playing on phones.

- Exams - a series of 5 exams comprising of objective and/or essay questions. (50%)
- Comprehensive Final (10%)
- Daily grades - consisting of attendance, discussion and in class activities- including quizzes (20%) Being attentive and active during lecture is expected.
- Argument paper (10%) Argument Paper- You will take a position and support it with evidence!
- Oral Presentation– (10%) There are two parts to this assignment. Each student will select an approved topic and sign up for a presentation. You will write a 2-3 page typed (double spaced - 12 point font - Times New Roman) process paper explaining research and include an annotated bibliography. I have attached a rubric to guide you in writing. You need to include at least 4 primary written sources, (while pictures are nice - they do not count as a written source) one scholarly article. Video can be used as a resource, but again it is not a written source and will not be counted as such.

- Citations will follow the Chicago Manual of Style 16th Edition – using footnotes and a fully annotated bibliography. Sheet attached
- Oral presentation. Each student will present a 4-7 minute presentation of their research topic to the class.

Grade determination

Verbal Communication -	20 points
Non verbal Communication	20 points
Content	25 points
Organization	10 points
Process paper and annotated bib	25 points

If you choose to present with a powerpoint or prezi you may only use LIMITED text on the screen. NO more than 10 words per slide. I want to encourage you to not read from the screen. You may not use a notecard. Practice your presentation!!

Grading Scale Grading scale

- A (90% - 100% average)
- B (80% - 89% average)
- C (70 % - 79% average)
- D (60% - 69% average)
- F (59 or below)

DUAL CREDIT

COM uses letter grades. These are your college credit grades. Please note that DHS then transfers those numbers into a numerical grade – an A becomes 95, B becomes 85, C becomes 75, D becomes 65, F becomes 55. Note a D does NOT earn you high school credit.

Extra Credit Work : For each test you may bank up to 10 bonus points by completing a video analysis. The video list is attached and also available on blackboard. Quality summaries may earn up to ten points, sloppy or plagiarized work may earn 0. In the event of a low test grade, a book critique may be used as an alternative assessment, with the instructor’s approval.

Other extra credit may be given throughout the semester. Best plan of action is to complete assignments ON TIME.

Make-Up Work: If you miss an exam, you will be expected to schedule a make-up exam. This exam will be written.

Late Work: Record your DUE dates! Assignments are due when they are listed on the syllabus. There is no excuse for not turning in an assignment on time. You may turn in your assignment online if you are not in attendance. An assignment is considered late if it is not turned in at the beginning of the class period. Turning in work at the end of the class or after school, will result in a penalty. See me if you know you will be missing class for an extended time. I will not consider late work after more than a week past due.

Course Policies & Guidelines

Attendance : Students are expected to attend class regularly. There is a clear and direct correlation between attendance and success in the classroom. In the event of an absence, it is the student’s responsibility to acquire lecture notes or activities from a classmate.

Tardiness : This class begins promptly at the scheduled time. Being late to class not only disrupts the class, it has a detrimental impact on the student’s performance, as they miss part of a lecture or activity material. Excessive tardiness - defined as three - will result in the loss of participation points. Please strive to be punctual!

Withdrawal : After students have registered and paid for courses they are considered enrolled until the Records Office has received an official withdrawal. Continued non-attendance does not automatically terminate enrollment in the course and will result in a failing grade. Last day to drop the course is April 21st .

Communication with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any additional information about performance in the class through other electronic means. Grades are posted in your Brightspace account

Plagiarism includes paraphrasing someone else's words without giving proper credit or a citation, and copying directly from a website and pasting it directly into your paper, without using quotation marks. ## Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student\_Handbook\_2024-2025\_v2.pdf, An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Oral Report and the Process Paper

Based on a two-year selection process, oral communication was chosen because employers cited oral communication as one of the top skills they seek from college graduates, while data indicated that this skill was not emphasized in College of the Mainland courses.

As a result of the implementation, not only will our students gain confidence in their speaking skills but they also will be able to communicate their ideas in a clear, effective manner appropriate to their audiences. This, in turn, will enhance their ability to compete successfully in the workplace.

Student Learner Outcomes

1. Students will demonstrate the ability to express their ideas verbally using expressive, accurate and appropriate language.
2. Students will use appropriate presentation techniques (i.e., maintain eye contact, modulate voice, demonstrate appropriate pacing, use appropriate gestures, etc.)
3. Students will demonstrate understanding of the topic by utilizing properly cited facts, examples and other forms of support.
4. Students will plan, prepare and deliver a well-organized, logical oral presentation.
5. Students will demonstrate a statistically significant decrease in their communication apprehension on a measure of communication apprehension.

Paper guidelines:

Think of this as not a report, but an explanation of how you prepared for your report. You may write in the first person – actually encouraged.

Paragraph 1 – Why did you choose your topic? Why is the topic important to you?

Next several paragraphs - Explain your process – Where did you go to research? What sources were the most helpful? Remember you need at least FOUR primary sources , and one scholarly article. What did you learn from your sources? Did you have any difficulties in researching? How did you overcome them?

Paragraph 4 - How did you decide to present your research? Why? Problems encountered?

Paragraph 5 – What did you really learn? Why is your topic important? Did you learn anything about yourself?

Annotated bibliography is required and needs to be attached to your paper

Include a citation for all sources used and include 3-4 sentences explaining sources significance. Separate primary and secondary. Identify it as a song, article, video etc. Include why the source is relevant to your topic. Format preference is Chicago Manual Style.

– Example book

Morris, Edmund. Theodore Rex. New York: Modern Library, 2001.

This biography of Theodore Roosevelt helped me understand the way in which Philippe Bunau Varilla was able to get President Roosevelt to recognize the revolutionary government of Panama. It also gave me details regarding the specific treaties signed between the two nations that gave the U.S. control of the canal zone.
