Supervision
Fall 2022
16 week course

Instructor Information:

Name: Dr Jacqueline Gilliard (Dr. G)

Email: jgiiliard@com.edu

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. Typically, emails are answered within 24-48 hours. Course assignments will be graded within a week.

Student hours and location:

My office is not on campus. You can email me.

Required Textbook:

Supervision, Concepts and Practices of Management –13e ISBN 978-1-285-86637-6 Leonard, Trusty South-Western Cengage Learning, Mason, Ohio

Textbook Purchasing Statement:

A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Course Description:

Provide a basis for understanding the role of the supervisor with a strong foundation in the skills, concepts, and principles that are needed to become an effective supervisor or in any leadership/managerial position.

Course Requirements:

All Chapter Quizzes will be completed and submitted via Canvas online in the course and will be found in the Quizzes and Projects Content Area.

Weekly Discussion Board/Essays will be completed in the Discussion Board Content Area as 'threads' generated by the student within the appropriate Discussion Forum.

Course Projects will be completed using Microsoft Office Applications (i.e. WORD, EXCEL, PowerPoint) and will be submitted via online through Canvas the course portal

College level writing is expected on all projects and essays are included as part of the Weekly Discussions. (See link below for a quick reference on academic writing.)

<http://www.onlinecolleges.net/for-students/academic-writing-guide/>

No emailed Projects or Discussion Board Essays will be accepted without the expressed, written consent of the Instructor.

SYLLABUS QUIZ:

Upon reading the syllabus, students will complete a non-timed 10 question quiz to demonstrate proper understanding of the course syllabus, expected learning outcomes, school policies etc. There will be 3 attempts to complete because students must achieve 100%. Students will not have access to the Course Content Discussions, Chapter Quizzes or Course Projects until the Syllabus Quiz is completed successfully.

CHAPTER QUIZZES:

There will be 14 Chapter quizzes and 1 Mid-Term Essay Quiz given during the semester. The open book tests allow you to re-enforce your weekly learning. The tests are composed of matching, multiple choice, fill in the blank and true/false questions. Students will have 90 minutes to complete and only one attempt, (with the exception of Chapter 9 which is the Mid-Term Essay Quiz). The topics for the chapter tests correspond to the weekly chapter reading topics:

Chapter 1-The Supervisory Challenge

Chapter 2-The Managerial Functions

Chapter 3-Supervisory Planning

Chapter 4-Supervising a Diverse Workforce

Chapter 5-Leadership and Followership

Chapter 6-Communicating in a Noisy World

Chapter 7-Principles of Motivating Followers

Chapter 8-Solving Problems, Making Decisions, and Managing Change

Chapter 9-The Principles of Organizing (Mid-Term Essay Quiz includes Chapters 1 –9)

Chapter 10-Empowering Employees for Success

Chapter 11-Building and Managing Effective Teams

Chapter 12-Performance Management

Chapter 13-Fundamentals of Controlling

Chapter 14-Resolving Conflicts (No Quiz/Conflict Self-Assessment Assignment instead)

Chapter 15-Positive Discipline

CLASS DISCUSSIONS:

There will be 11 graded Discussion Forums posted during the semester. One topic will be available weekly (except weeks when Projects are due and during Thanksgiving break) that will correlate with topics discussed in the weekly chapter readings.

Discussions will be centered on learning resources such as video clips, articles, case studies, statistics, surveys, and white papers. Student responses will be in Essay format (with appropriate citations / APA formatting) and should address the topic in detail using critical thinking which demonstrates their ability to apply what is being learned.

Additionally, students will need to reply to a minimum of 2 post generated by fellow students. Replies in response to posts by other students should clearly address the content and position of that post and all opinions and statements must be supported (with either textbook reference or from another reference researched). Students are encouraged to make multiple posts to a topic as they learn more about the topic or to respond to additional posts by other students.

Class Discussions represent 20% of the overall course grade based on the average of all 12 Discussion Forum Post/Replies. Each forum is worth a maximum of 100 points.

PROJECT 1

Project 1 will embody components of topics covered in Chapters 1-5. Students will select a topic from Chapters 1-5 and create the following:

Research Paper-Must be a minimum of 600 words

- APA format
- Double spaced
- Contain 4 references (The course textbook may be used as one of your references)

The research paper should contain the topic, the importance of the topic in the work place, ways to implement the topic in the work place, pros and cons of the topic and how they impact the work place, and examples of the topic being used within the work place.

Power Point-Must be a minimum of 7 slides (not including Title page and References page)

- Optional video clip that applies to your topic
- Speaker notes to support the topic and slides

Maximum points for Project 1 will be 200 points. Project 1 will make up 20% of overall course grade.

PROJECT 2

Project 2 will aid the student in communicating effectively with like-minded people in managerial positions. The student will select an individual that holds a managerial position and, interview them about the following:

- line of work / industry
- personal background (including education and experience)
- responsibilities / career transitions
- career goals for the future

You will create a detailed written transcript of the entire interview which must be turned in along with a 1-page summary about the interviewing process. An email with the interviewee's name and title must be emailed to the instructor prior to the start of the interview.

This project is to exercise interview muscle and aid students in the art of communication. This interview must be as professional as possible, dress and professionalism will be included in the grading process.

Maximum points for Project 2 will be 200 points. Project 2 will make up 20% of overall course grade.

PROJECT 3

Project 3 will give students an opportunity to 'act in a supervisory capacity'. Part 4 of the textbook presents various Critical Incidents that supervisors may be faced with.

- COMPLETE CRITICAL INCIDENT 4-3 (pages 601 –602) –“Coping with the New Manager”
- COMPLETE CRITICAL INCIDENT 4-5 (pages 604 –605) –“Discharge for Absenteeism?”

Students will read and check for understanding, the two critical incident scenarios as indicated above, then use critical-thinking and effective decision-making to discuss how to solve/address the problem by completing the Questions for Discussion following each critical incident.

Remember that you are acting in a supervisory capacity, so proper investigation should be completed and problem-solving and decision-making options clearly outlined!

Maximum points for Project 3 will be 200 points. Project 3 will make up 20% of overall course grade

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula

Students will be graded on "points-earned" criteria. A grade of C or above is considered acceptable.

Attendance Policy:

Students in the course are expected log into Canvas at least THREE times per week to check announcements and email messages as well as submit assignments and complete quizzes/exams, and any other gradable class activities. Attendance is established based on submissions not logging into Canvas.

Withdrawal Policy:

Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are only permitted to withdraw six times during their college career by State law. The last day to withdraw for the 16 week courses is November 18th.

It is the responsibility of the student to withdraw from the course officially by contacting Admissions and completing the necessary processes.

FN Grading:

The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor.

Early Alert Program:

The Counseling Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they have difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Counseling Department. As student success and retention is very important to us, someone from the Counseling Department will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals

Academic Dishonesty:

Any incident of academic dishonesty will be dealt with in accordance with college policy and the Student Handbook. Academic dishonesty – such as cheating on exams is an extremely serious offense and will result in a grade of zero on that exam and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate disciplinary action.

Late Policy:

Discussions and quizzes will not be accepted late. The projects will be accepted late up to 7 days after the due date with a 10% deduction.

Concerns and Questions:

If you have any questions or concerns about any aspect of this course, please contact me using the contact information previously provided. If, after discussing your concern with me, you continue to have questions, please contact Mr. Andrew Gregory at 409-933-8339 or Agregory2@com.edu.

Grade Appeal Process:

Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook. https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Success Tips for Students, Course Delivery & Expectations:Course Delivery & Expectations

The course content is delivered online.

Technology Outage Policy:

It is your responsibility to complete the coursework in a timely manner. THE ONLY EXTENSION OF DUE DATES related to technology outage is an outage of College of the Mainland's systems such as Canvas or the internet connect to the College. If your computer or internet provider is experiencing a technological outage, other options include completing the work at the College or at another location, which has WIFI.

Classroom Conduct Policy:

College of the Mainland requires that students enrolled at COM be familiar with the Standards of Student Conduct, which can be found in the on-line Student Handbook. <http://www.com.edu/student-services/student-handbook.php> . Students should act in a professional manner at all times. Disruptive students will be held accountable according to college policy. Any violations of the Code of Conduct will result in a referral to the Office for student Conduct and may result in dismissal from this class.

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism is using someone else's words or ideas and claiming them as your own. Plagiarism is a very serious offense. Plagiarism includes paraphrasing someone else's words without giving proper citation, copying directly from a website and pasting it into your paper, using someone else's words without quotation marks. Any assignment containing any plagiarized material will receive a grade of zero and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate disciplinary action. <http://en.writecheck.com/ways-to-avoid-plagiarism/>
