

DRAWING II

Fall 2021

Mondays and Wednesdays, 930am – 12:20pm, Fine Arts Building, Rooms 130 & 133

First day: 8/23 Last day: 12/8

Instructor Info: Mark Greenwalt, mgreenwalt@com.edu

To contact the Fine Arts office, call 409 933 8348

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. Make sure you have access to your COM email. If you cannot reach me for some emergency, contact our Program Assistant at 409 933 8348.

Student Hours: Students may email me any time and I will respond within 24 hours inshallah, maybe longer on weekends, but usually I respond much sooner. If you cannot reach me for some emergency, contact our Program Assistant at 409 933 8348.

Office hours are in Room F-132 or studios, 830 – 930am, and Friday mornings 830 – 1130 am.

Required Textbook: No text is required: drawing materials appropriate to assignments are required.

This course uses OER such as Wikipedia, Museum websites, and Google Arts and Culture

Supplies: Students must customize their supplies to their projects and maintain a visual journal. Lack of supplies may negatively impact project grades and undermines portfolio development. Project parameters for assignments will be jointly developed as part of the curriculum. Additional experimentation with materials may count as extra credit per discretion of the instructor. Students are advised to discuss any problems regarding supply acquisition with the instructor.

Course Description: Drawing II is a studio course exploring drawing with continued emphasis on descriptive, expressive and conceptual approaches. Students will further develop the ability to see and interpret a variety of subjects while using diverse materials and techniques. Course work will facilitate a dialogue in which students will employ critical analysis to broaden their understanding of drawing as a discipline.

Student Learner Outcomes:

- 1: Describe visual subjects through the use of accurate and sensitive observation.
- 2: Generate drawings which demonstrate descriptive, expressive, and conceptual approaches with an increased focus on individual expression.
- 3: Utilize varied materials and techniques, including color media, with informed aesthetic and conceptual strategies.
- 4: Demonstrate an appropriate level of professional practice, including safety, craft and presentation.
- 5: Analyze and critique drawings verbally and/or in writing.
- 6: Relate their drawings to historical and contemporary developments in the field.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

- + Other than the first week of class, students will receive a single letter grade for each week of the 16-week semester = 15 grades. Weekly grades will relate to projects, assignments, stages of completion, preparation, and studio participation.
- + Drawing II students will collaborate with the instructor to customize 4 major projects due near the ends of each month along with weekly exercises relating to analytical gesture drawing.
- + Students are expected to minimally invest 6 hours a week of studio lab time to the course.
- + If students are ill, or must quarantine, project requirements will still need to be met. Quarantining students will need to be able to photograph their work and send to the class and instructor via COM email. It is the student's responsibility to make arrangements with the instructor in case of illness, quarantine, or other valid reasons not to be in class. Unless other arrangements are made, absences may negatively affect weekly grades
- + Students are expected to track and average their weekly grades. For example, the average of an A and an F is two C's.
- + Additional studio time/homework may be needed to achieve higher project grades. Other than the final project/critique all assignment grades must be resolved before the last two weeks of class.
- + Maintaining supplies is an ongoing homework assignment. Lack of supplies/preparation may result in the reduction of a weekly grade.
- + Some assignments may require research time outside of class.
- + Students are required to keep a visual journal (sketchbook) relating to the course. Completion of the journal will count as one of the weekly grades toward the end of the semester.
- + students may propose modifications to assignments in support of course objectives and a collaborative learning environment.
- + The instructor may consider extra credit for students who significantly contribute to an inquisitive and collaborative learning environment, participate in external exhibitions, or conduct relevant research at the MFAH or Menil Collection for example.
- + Students are expected to develop skills related to the language of art. Other than the final project, students may rework or re-do projects prior to week 15. The Final Critique is conducted in the last week of class. No artwork production will be conducted on Critique day.

Grading Rubric for Visual Images:

"A": = Superior achievement = Excellent

- + Artwork is formally harmonious and varied
- + Artwork unifies form, subject matter, and content
- + Artwork addresses expressive considerations
- + Artwork is original, inquisitive, and self-motivated
- + Artwork supports ideas about process and creative behaviors
- + Artwork is appropriately crafted and presented
- + Artwork demonstrates investment in time, materials, and effort
- + Assignment parameters are followed
- + Drawings typically demonstrate strong line variation, tonal variation, and stylistic consistency.

"B" = Outstanding achievement = Good

- + Artwork attempts formal harmony
- + Artwork has minor problems with unifying form, subjects and contents
- + Artwork's expressive content is poorly considered
- + Artwork is derivative and lacking originality but still well crafted

- + Artwork demonstrates investment in time, materials, and effort
- + Assignment parameters are followed

“C” = Minimum achievement = Average

- + Artwork is dis-unified and poorly designed or organized
- + Artwork lacks commitment to realizing an effective image
- + Artwork lacks investment in time, materials, or effort
- + Artwork lacks criticality and/or the courage to take creative risks
- + Assignment parameters are not followed

“D” = Insignificant effort

“F” = Artwork is unattempted or missing

Creative Behaviors:

The Instructor places a high degree of emphasis on creative processes that may or may not result in a qualitative product. While luck is a factor in achieving qualitative success, effort and intellectual risk is the typical driving force behind superior achievement. Along with any given project, the instructor will also give consideration to creative strategies and behaviors such as: Flexibility, adaptability, resistance to premature closure, willingness to take intellectual risks, iterative prototyping, willingness to revise work in response to critical analysis, an ability to synthesize diverse ideas into a unified whole, inquisitive exploration of ideas, self-awareness in forming a personal esthetic, willingness to edit or abandon ideas in favor of other directions, originality, innovation, intrinsic motivation, willingness to suspend judgment, and an ability to identify and exploit the intellectual and physical resources at hand. In many ways, creativity may be summed up by an awareness of the many choices inherent within a process of making something new.

Given the effort and risk involved in creative attempts to transcend the mediocre and the predictable, the instructor may guarantee a “B” or higher on projects in exchange for student demonstration of these creative behaviors.

Consideration will also be given to students with limited prior experience in image manipulation and visual literacy. Dynamic progress is expected of all students regardless of native talent or prior experiences in creative imaging.

Success Tips for Students in Studio Courses:

- + Vary your perspective
- + Wander in and out of your comfort zones
- + Step back frequently & put your art up on the wall
- + Break away from problems and return with fresh eyes
- + Frequently invite criticism from peers and instructors. Practice forming arguments.
- + Work fast and make mistakes in developmental stages. Develop images at the speed of thought.
- + Become comfortable with ambiguity, confusion, and indeterminacy when developing complex ideas.
- + Frequently look at peer art and reproductions to borrow ideas.
- + Question entrenched habits (don't stay in the same place, think of imaging as game design)

- + Expand vocabulary via critical analysis
- + Get frequent critiques from peers and instructors – learn the names of your classmates
- + Find mentors and collaborators – form study groups

Course Outline: (subject to revision within the context of a collaborative learning environment)

Week 1: Introductions, syllabus review: What is drawing? Drawing as mapping. Drawing as image finding. Drawing as an extension of photography. Drawing as mark-making. Drawing as expression. Drawing as analysis. Drawing as synthesis. Flexibility and risk-taking as part of the drawing process: Supply acquisition.

Week 2: Discuss project proposals: Students will propose 4 major projects due near the ides of each month.
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ides_of_March

Project Ideas should explore possibilities iteratively through sketches and research.

See “Google Arts and Culture, Drawings”: <https://artsandculture.google.com/entity/drawing/m02csf?hl=en>

Gesture Drawing: Each class period, students will participate in a brief gesture drawing exercises using the figure within a perspective space;

Week 3: Develop project. Unless projects specify otherwise (such a mural or drawing on plywood with a blow torch) the final iteration will be on a full sheet of 140 lb rag paper or Bristol.

Week 4: Project #1 + presentation due

Week 5: Propose Project #2

Week 6: Develop Project #2

Week 7: Refine project #2

Week 8: Present project #2 = critique

Week 9: Propose Project #3

Week 10: Develop Project #3

Week 11: Refine project #3

Week 12: Present project #3 = critique

Week 13: Propose Project #4

Week 14: Develop Project #4

Week 15: Refine project #4

Week 16: Final Crit 12/6/21: Present project #4: Collaborate with other students to hang drawings in the COM Gallery for group critique: No work will be conducted on this day.

Artwork

Respect the artwork of self and others. Unless otherwise specified by the student (e-mail), the department may photograph students and display student artwork in exhibitions or wall spaces. On the back of artwork always put Name, Year, Semester, Title and Contact Info. It is the student's responsibility to maintain the integrity of works and supplies. Remove artwork and supplies at the end of the semester. Participation in student exhibitions may be considered for extra credit.

Attendance and Participation:

A high degree of professionalism and engagement is expected of all "A" students and will be considered for extra credit. Do not come to class if you are unwell.

Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty such as cheating is an extremely serious offense and may result in:

- 1: a grade of F on that exam/paper/project and/or
- 2: the student may be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate discipline action and/or
- 3: reduction of the final course grade or
- 4: the instructor may withdraw the student from the class

Plagiarism is using someone else's words or ideas and claiming them as your own. Plagiarism includes paraphrasing someone else's words without giving citation, such as copying directly from a website and pasting it into your paper without quotation marks. Phrases like, "according to Wikipedia" with quotes are ok. This is an art survey class. This class is not about writing academic papers. Student reports and website links are intended as a tool to contextualize concepts and make connections between ideas.

Content Information: This is a college level course. Many textbooks, art periodicals and original artworks in the COM art studios, public libraries, websites, and museums, depict nude figures, cadavers, anatomical structures as well as contemporary and historical artifacts depicting content referencing sexuality, biology, propaganda, depictions of violence, religious iconography, ambiguities, symbolisms, or other cultural contents, forms, and subjects that some viewers may find offensive. Students are expected to view artifacts critically. Art serves all masters. Rather than turn away from discomforting images, artists have a social responsibility to formulate a critical response to the entire spectrum of images, designs, and artifacts of the human imagination. Class discussions may address such content when it relates to art production or other research appropriate to academic courses. Studio courses may additionally analyze nude models and skeletal remains within the parameters of traditional studio practices. The sensitivity of the individual student will be respected and accommodated to the maximum extent possible. Feel free to initiate discussions regarding course content.

Studio Safety for Persons and Artwork

- + BE AWARE: of tripping hazards, extension cords, sharp objects, lifting, falling, or things falling on you.
- + TOXICITY: regarding any art supplies. Read labels. Spray fixatives must be used under the vent hood or outside. Ventilation required for OMS solvents (oil painting).
- + BLOOD: cutting yourself creates a messy biohazard and interrupts teaching and learning for others. Students will be fined $5 dollars (which will go to the art scholarship fund) if they cut themselves.
- + DUST: wet sand only, no techniques creating charcoal clouds or pastel dust.
- + CLEAN work areas especially if using oily substances that can contaminate acrylic paintings, causing delamination.
- + FOOD: wash hands frequently. All studio surfaces must be free of oils & grease residue.
- + Treat ARTWORK (and all persons) with respect and care. Store artworks in racks, lockers, or shelves. Label artworks. Return still-life and other items top their place
- + SINK: no paint globs or trays left in the sink.
- + ELECTRICITY: Turn off lights and vents after use. Clean up broken light-bulbs and report any possibility of glass shards to the instructor.
- + ACTIVE SHOOTERS: Run, Hide, Fight! Know what room you are in.
- + FOLLOW COM Covid-19 policies on masking, washing, and distancing. Don't come to class feeling ill!

Phones: Students are expected to be able to access internet images and other information relating to the course. Devices must be used professionally. The instructor believes Wikipedia is one of the greatest learning tools ever invented. No photos of models are allowed. Photos of students are with their permission.

General Education Core Objectives: Students successfully completing this course will demonstrate competency in the following Core Objectives:

1. Critical Thinking Skills: Students will demonstrate creative thinking, innovation, and the ability to analyze, evaluate, and synthesize information.
2. Communication Skills: Develop, interpret, and express ideas through written, oral, and visual communication.
3. Teamwork: To include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal.
4. Social Responsibility: Students will demonstrate intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.

Student Learner Outcome	Maps to Core Objective	Assessed via this Assignment
1. Describe visual subjects through the use of accurate and sensitive observation.	Critical and Creative Thinking	Portfolio
2. Generate drawings which demonstrate descriptive, expressive, and conceptual approaches		Works demonstrating visual balance and the attachment of aesthetics to data
3. Utilize varied materials and techniques with informed aesthetic and conceptual strategies.	Social Responsibility	Portfolio
4. Demonstrate an appropriate level of professional practice, including safety, craft and presentation.	Teamwork	Final Critique and Gallery Installation

5. Analyze and critique drawings verbally and/or in writing.	Communication Skills	Final Crit
6. Relate drawing to design, art history, and contemporary artistic production.		Master study

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook. <https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor’s professional judgment of the quality of the student’s work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal. https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Holly Bankston at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Counseling Statement: Any student needing counseling services is requested to please contact Holly Bankston in the student success center at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. Counseling services are available on campus in the student center for free and students can also email counseling@com.edu to set up their appointment. Appointments are strongly encouraged; however, some concerns may be addressed on a walk-in basis.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw is March 3rd for the 1st 8-week session, April 26 for the 16-week session, and May 5th for the 2nd 8-week session.

F_N Grading: The F_N grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The F_N grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the F_N grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an F_N grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Student Concerns: If you have any questions or concerns about any aspect of this course, please contact me using the contact information previously provided. If, after discussing your concern with me, you continue to have questions, please contact my Chair Paul Boyd at 409 933 8347, office FA-122, or pboyd@com.edu
