Tuesday: 1 to 3pm online

Required Textbook and Materials:

1. Business Law Today, The Essentials Text and Summarized Cases, 13th Edition, Roger Leroy Miller (Specially bundled with MindTap for Internet class Inclusive Access)
2. Access to Internet and a Web browser that supports Brightspace D2L Learning System
3. Other materials, as mentioned by instructor online

Course Description: The course provides the student with foundational information about the U.S. legal system and dispute resolution, and their impact on business. The major content areas will include general principles of law, the relationship of business and the U.S. Constitution, state and federal legal systems, the relationship between law and ethics, contracts, sales, torts, agency law, intellectual property, and business law in the global context.

Pre-requisite: High school coursework in U.S. history and government, or equivalent.

Course requirements: All students enrolling in their Internet or Hybrid section must complete the course designed to help navigate D2L.

As this is an online course, it is crucial that you be self-motivated and self-disciplined. You need to carefully read each chapter unit, the associated required readings, attempt online activities and practice quizzes. It is also your responsibility to take each assessment quiz, midterm, and final exam, and participate in scheduled discussions, according to the scheduled timeline in your Semester Schedule. It is your responsibility to submit all assignments on time. There are no makeup assignments.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

A variety of means is included to evaluate student performance. Methods of evaluation employed to evaluate student performance are:

1. EXAMS: Students will complete a midterm competency examination covering chapters 1 to 12 and a final competency examination covering chapters 13,14,16,18,19,21,22,24 & 25. Both competency exams will be administered online as designated by the instructor within the semester schedule. NOTE: No submissions allowed after the assigned due date elapses for exams.

The midterm exam will address Core Objective: Social Responsibility (SR) by covering principles of law that apply to business and business transactions.

2. QUIZZES: Each quiz will be available for 4 days (either from Monday to Thursday or from Thursday to Sunday). The student will complete 8-chapter quizzes online in Blackboard as scheduled within the semester schedule. Each quiz can be taken twice. It is used as one of the learning tools, as well as an evaluation tool to familiarize students with definitions, concepts, and application. The best 7 will be averaged for grade.

Quiz 1 will address Core Objective- Personal Responsibility (PR) by describing the origins and structure of the U.S. legal system and the relationship of ethics and law in business.

NOTE: No submissions allowed after the assigned due date elapses for quizzes

3. DISCUSSION: Students will post self-introduction and reply to a classmate's posting. Students will also complete Case Study discussions online as scheduled within the semester schedule. Each Case Study discussion will come with specific instructions.

This assignment will address Core Objective: Critical Thinking Skills (CT), and Communication Skills (CS) by applying, interpreting, and analyzing current law, rules, and regulations to settling real- life business disputes.

NOTE: No submissions are allowed after the assigned due date elapses.

Grading Formula

A.	2 Exams	@500 points	50%
B.	7 Quizzes (out of 8)	@350 points	35%
C.	4 Discussions	@150 points	15%
Total		<hr/> 1000 points	100%

Grading Scale: Letter grades will be awarded according to the following criteria:

A = 900 points or above	(90% to 100%)
B = 800 to 899 points	(80% to 89%)

C = 700 to 799 points (70% to 79%)

D = 600 to 699 points (60% to 69%)

F = anything less than 599 points

NOTE: The instructor DOES NOT give a W. Anything below 60% earns an F grade. It is the student's responsibility to acquire and complete the withdrawal form when and if the student decides to drop the class.

Late work and Make-up Policy: Late work is not accepted except under documented extenuating circumstances with approval from your instructor. No make-up exams or assignments will be given or accepted.

Attendance Policy: The online students will log in to the class at least five times per week on three different days during the week to check for any new assignment, emails, announcements, or instructions and to complete their work. Regular attendance and punctuality of submitting assignments, quizzes and exams is very important. History has shown that in order to be successful in this course, students must learn the material as it relates to practical applications in the business world. However, failure to attend class will not constitute an official or automatic withdrawal.

Communicating with your instructor: The primary means for communication with the instructor is through the Class Related Questions Discussion Topic. Post all questions, comments, concerns you have related to this class within the Class Related Questions. When a question is posted in this forum both the instructor and the students will help the class to find a solution. It is imperative and the SOLE RESPONSIBILITY of the student to check the Discussion Forum for new posts. This is your virtual classroom.

Class email (Course Messages) should be used for private communication -regarding any personal matter. Your message will be returned within 48 hours (except for weekends and holidays). The instructor will check messages at least every other day or three times a week. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty can only share any information about performance in class through COM email. No other email can be used for performance-related questions.

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student_Handbook_2023-2024_v2.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students with the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact:

Kimberly Lachney, Student Accessibility Services Coordinator

Phone: 409-933-8919

Email: AccessibilityServices@com.edu

Location: COM Doyle Family Administration Building, Student Success Center

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Failure to log in will NOT constitute an official or automatic withdrawal. It is the student's responsibility to acquire and complete the drop form when the student has decided to drop the class. Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 5-week session is July 1. The last date to withdraw from the 10-week session is July 30. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 5-week session is August 2. Please visit <http://www.com.edu/admissions/drop-notification> to obtain more information about the six-drop limit regarding the consequences of DROPPING a class multiple time.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress:

If you are experiencing stress or anxiety about your daily living needs including food, housing or just feel you could benefit from free resources to help you through a difficult time, please click here <https://www.com.edu/community-resource-center/>. College of the Mainland has partnered with free community resources to help you stay on track with your schoolwork, by addressing life issues that get in the way of doing your best in school.
