Student hours and location: Mon & Wed 8:50pm – 9:20pm in assigned classroom LRC 248.
COM Office Location: Administration Building, Business Office Conference Room

Course Communication: The best way to contact me is via COM e-mail. Response time typically within an hour during the week.

Required Textbook/Materials: No required textbook. All course content is available in Blackboard. While this is not an internet course, it will be helpful to have access to internet in order to complete research and review course lectures.

Course Description: This course integrates preparation in academic reading skills and skills with writing a variety of academic assignments. Topics include critical reading and writing skills. Students will be expected to write compositions similar to those assigned in ENGL 1301. Placement: (1) TSI Essay - score of 2 or 3 with TSI Writing multiple choice of 340-49 or (2) TSI Reading - score 342-350 or (3) Successful completion ("C" or better) of READ 0340 or ENGL 0330 prior to 8/31/2014 or (4) Successful completion ("C" or better) of IRW 0300.

Course requirements: This course is a prerequisite for ENGL 1301. It is designed to support your work in Composition I and to provide additional instructional support in reading and writing. In this course, we will discuss concepts about research and writing. You will be required to write and evaluate different types of works as well as participate in weekly discussions about the writing process with your peers. There will be weekly writing and reading assignments for this course ranging from short responses to longer detailed responses.

You will also be given additional writing time and tutorial support in IRW 320 for your ENGL 1301 assignments. If you ever need assistance on your ENGL 1301 assignments, you may e-mail a copy of your drafts to your professor for review.

Determination of Course Grade

Participation Credit: Participation credit will consist of ten writing journals given throughout the semester that will allow us to discuss various writing / reading concepts, explore ideas for writing, and share your thoughts and feelings. Each writing journal will be worth 10 Points or 100 Points total for the course.

Each writing journal will require you to respond to the writing prompt with an original response of at least 100-200 words or 5-6 sentences in length.

Reading Comprehension/Short Writing Units: Students will be given three different text comprehension/short writing units throughout the semester that will require you to read an assigned literary selection and respond. Each unit will consist of a vocabulary assignment and a short one-page personal reflection response to the reading. Each reflection response assignment will include a list of possible topics/themes found in the reading to assist us in thinking about our responses.

Reading Unit 1: Poetry

Students will be given a poem to read, and two assignments related to the poem to respond to (150 Points Total). Detailed instructions and examples will be given for each assignment prior to the assignment due date.

Vocabulary Assignment: 50 Points

Reading Response Assignment: 100 Points

Reading Unit 2: Short Story

Students will be given a short story to read, and two assignments related to the short story to respond to (150 Points Total). Detailed instructions and examples will be given for each assignment prior to the assignment due date.

Vocabulary Assignment: 50 Points

Reading Response Assignment: 100 Points

Reading Unit 3: Novel (Chapter selection)

Students will be given a link to a chapter from a novel to read, and two assignments related to the novel's chapter to respond to (150 Points Total). Detailed instructions and examples will be given for each assignment prior to the assignment due date.

Vocabulary Assignment: 50 Points

Reading Response Assignment: 100 Points

Author Response Assignment: Throughout the semester we will watch three videos of authors discussing topics that are important to us as writers: understanding the importance and power of our words, importance of the freedom of expression in writing, and the importance of experiencing diverse voices in reading/writing.

Each Author Response Assignment will require us to watch a short video clip of the authors discussions and write a short one-paragraph (100-200 word or 5-6 sentence minimum) response to the topic. Each Author Response Assignment will be worth 50 Points (150 Points Total). Detailed instructions will be given for each assignment prior to the assignment due date.

Additional Short Writing Assignments: There will be two additional writing assignments this semester that will focus on email etiquette and a mini research project. These assignments will be 50 Points each and comprise 100 Points in your course total. Detailed instructions and examples will be given for each assignment prior to the assignment due date.

Quizzes: Throughout the semester we will have eight quizzes over various writing or reading element discussions. Quizzes will vary in weight and will comprise 200 Points of your final grade.

EXTRA Credit-Creative Writing Assignment: The final week of our semester we will discuss the role of creative writing in Academia and there will be a three paragraph Creative Writing Assignment you may choose to submit for up to 30 extra credit points. Detailed instructions will be given for the assignment prior to the assignment due date.

Detailed Grading Formula: Detailed Grading Formula: A cumulative point system for grading is used in this course. The points listed are the maximum value a student can earn in the different assignments.

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook. <https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf>. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Holly Bankston at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Counseling Statement: Any student needing counseling services is requested to please contact Holly Bankston in the student success center at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. Counseling services are available on campus in the student center for free and students can also email counseling@com.edu to set up their appointment. Appointments are strongly encouraged; however, some concerns may be addressed on a walk-in basis.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 6. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 19. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is December 2.

F_N Grading: The F_N grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The F_N grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the F_N grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an F_N grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

COVID-19 Statement: All students, faculty, and staff are expected to familiarize themselves with materials and information contained on the College of the Mainland's Coronavirus Information site at www.com.edu/coronavirus. In compliance with Governor Abbott's May 18 Executive Order, face coverings/masks will no longer be required on COM campus. Protocols and college signage are being updated. We will no longer enforce any COM protocol that requires face coverings. We continue to encourage all members of the COM community to distance when possible, use hygiene measures, and get vaccinated to protect against COVID-19. Please visit com.edu/coronavirus for future updates.
