CONTINGENCY PLANNING
SUMMER 2022
Internet Class

Instructor: Dr. George Njoku
Email: gnjoku@com.edu
Office Phone: (409) 933-8542

Student hours and location: Virtual office hours by appointment only. Instructor will be available during scheduled student hours for this class. All student (office) hours will be conducted via phone or Team. Please email the instructor to set up the appointments.

Required Textbook/Materials: No textbook required.

Course Description: This course is an introduction to the development of an emergency response contingency plan for a facility or community. Emphasis on analyzing the hazards, writing, and implementing the contingency plans, and evaluating the effectiveness of the contingency plan.

Course requirements:

Examinations: Final Examination: There will be a comprehensive final examination over the material covered in the class. Exams must be taken at the designated time unless prior arrangements have been made with the professor. Students who have an unexcused absence will not be allowed to make up an exam and receive the grade of “0” (zero).

Project Report: Each student is required to write one project report. Topics and specific instructions for the report will be provided by the instructor. Students are not expected to present their papers on the date the assignment is due. If they are turned in late, the student will receive a 50% reduction in points. Papers and reports will not be accepted after the due date and result in a grade of “0” (zero).

Homework: There will be three (3) homework assignments based on FEMA IS series as provided by your professor. You must submit your certificate of completion to the Blackboard Assignment link or hardcopy to your instructor. Each homework assignment has a maximum of 100-points each. Failure to turn in a required homework at the prescribed time will result in zero “0” points awarded for the assignment. If you cannot make the class, you must email the homework to your professor, at the email address provided in this syllabus, prior to the beginning of the class time on the date it is due

Discussions: There are two assigned discussion boards for this class, each worth 50 points. Clear instructions regarding the expectations of each discussion will appear with the assignment/link to the discussion board. For each Discussion Board assigned you will need to make an original post and respond to the posts of at least two classmates. Original Discussion Board posts are due by Sunday midnight.

Reflection Journal: There will be seven reflection journals reflecting what you learned in each of the class topics covered. Each journal entry is worth ten points and must be submitted at the end of each course week.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula: (methods of evaluation to be employed to include a variety of means to evaluate student performance)

Grading Scale:

- 90 – 100% = A
- 80 – 89% = B
- 70 – 79% = C
- 60 – 69% = D
- Below 60% = F

Grading Distribution:

- |   |            |
|---|------------|
| 1. Final Examination –                        | 100 points |

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy: Late work will not be accepted. There will not be any make-up or extra-credit policy.

Attendance Policy: Students at the College of the Mainland are expected to participate in every learning activity assigned. Participation in each learning event (Discussion board, homework assignments, etc.) constitutes class attendance. Each student is expected to log into the online class at least twice a week to make sure each week's lesson is fully comprehended or check Instructor communication.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. (Faculty may add additional statement requiring monitoring and communication expectations via Blackboard or other LMS).

Student Learner Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Identify and apply regulations and standards
2. Identify and describe components of the contingency planning process
3. Develop and evaluate a contingency plan

General Education Core Objectives: Students successfully completing this course will demonstrate competency in the following Core Objectives:

1. Critical Thinking Skills (CT) – creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
2. Communication Skills (COM) – effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication
3. Social Responsibility (SR): Students will demonstrate intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.

Student Learner Outcome	Maps to Core Objective	Assessed via this Assignment
SLO #1	Critical Thinking	Final Exam
SLO #2	Communication Skills	Report & Presentation
SLO #3	Social Responsibility	Midterm Exam and Assignments

Academic Dishonesty: “Scholastic dishonesty” shall include, but not be limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. “Collusion” shall be defined as the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for fulfillment of course requirements. Per COM Policy FLB (Local) “Student Conduct: Student Rights and Responsibilities”.

Student Concerns: If you have any questions or concerns about any aspect of this course, please contact me using the contact information previously provided. If, after discussing your concern with me, you continue to have questions, please contact Derrick Lewis, Department Chair at 409-933-8607 or dlewis22@com.edu

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook. <https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student\_Handbook\_2019-2020v5.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal. https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student\_Handbook\_2019-2020v5.pdf

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Holly Bankston at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Counseling Statement: Any student needing counseling services is requested to please contact Holly Bankston in the student success center at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. Counseling services are available on campus in the student center for free and students can also email counseling@com.edu to set up their appointment. Appointments are strongly encouraged; however, some concerns may be addressed on a walk-in basis.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law.

F<sub>N</sub> Grading: The F<sub>N</sub> grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The F<sub>N</sub> grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the F<sub>N</sub> grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an F<sub>N</sub> grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress:

If you are experiencing stress or anxiety about your daily living needs including food, housing or just feel you could benefit from free resources to help you through a difficult time, please click here <https://www.com.edu/community-resource-center/>. College of the Mainland has partnered with free community resources to help you stay on track with your schoolwork, by addressing life issues that get in the way of doing your best in school. All services are private and confidential. You may also contact the Dean of Students office at deanofstudents@com.edu or communityresources@com.edu.
