Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means.

Attendance Policy: Every class is important to your success in school. Make every effort to attend all classes. A sign in sheet will be provided in each class. Each student must sign themselves in and out daily. If a student misses more than one hour of the class period, the grade will reflect an absence. Anytime missed will affect the total number days required for completion. Attendance grades are calculated as follows: Each tardy is 10 points off the attendance grade. Each absence is 15 points off the attendance grade.

If a student misses more than 4 absences, they will be dismissed from the course, according to College of the Mainland policies. All courses must be completed and passed with a C or better to be able to advance to the next courses and to be able sit for the licenser exam. It is the student's responsibility to understand the course requirements and maintain sufficient attendance and work completion.

Tardiness Policy: Entering the class after the time class begins is counted as a tardy. Leaving class before class is over is counted as a tardy. Every four Tardis equals one absence.

Contagious Illnesses: In the event a student contracts a contagious illness, such as COVID 19 or strep, the following steps can be utilized to avoid being withdrawn for excessive absences.

1. For COVID 19

- a. self-report on the COM website. Follow the instructions given.
- b. email your instructors with a copy of doctor's note or test result. These should be dated.

2. For other contagious illnesses

- a. Email the instructor with a copy of a doctor's note stating that you may not attend school, with dates and your name. (Any days missed prior to this will count toward total absences)

3. Once the instructor receives the Test result or doctor's note, they will email the student (to COM email) instructions on assignments that can be completed from home. These will be assigned on a case-by-case basis. Communicate with your instructor about this. If these assignments are completed by the due date, the days missed will not count toward your absences.

Maternity appointments: For doctor appointments due to maternity, the following steps can be utilized to avoid being withdrawn for excessive absences.

1. Communicate with your instructor prior to the appointment of the absence.
2. Bring a note from the doctor stating the appointment date and time upon returning to class.
3. Make up work will be assigned on a case-by-case basis.

*Any absence will affect your success in class. Do your best to attend every class.

Communicate with your instructors when issues arise and know what assignments need to be made up.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 5. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 18. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is December 1.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention is very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Academic Dishonesty: Any incident of academic policy will be dealt with in accordance with college policy and the Student Handbook. Academic dishonesty – such as cheating on exams is an extremely serious offense and will result in a grade of zero on that exam and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate discipline action.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is using someone else's words or ideas and claiming them as your own. Plagiarism is a very serious offense. Plagiarism includes paraphrasing someone else's words without giving proper citation, copying directly from a website and pasting it into your paper, using someone else's words without quotation marks. Any assignment containing any plagiarized material will receive a grade of zero and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate discipline action. Google search, copy and paste are considered plagiarism.

Make-Up Policy: Written assignments/Work books may be turned in on the First day back from an absence at the beginning of class; Written tests may be made up by making arrangements with the instructor on the first day back from an absence (this is the students responsibility; Practical skills & Oral Reports may not be made up. NO LATE WORK IS ACCEPTED

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook. <https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal. https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf

IMPORTANT: Eligibility for an occupational license may be impacted by one's criminal history. Students with a criminal history should confer with faculty or the department chairperson.

Students have a right to request a criminal history evaluation letter from the applicable licensing agency.

Notice to Students Regarding Licensing: Effective September 1, 2017, HB 1508 amends the Texas Occupations Code Section 53 that requires education providers to notify potential or enrolled students that a criminal history may make them ineligible for an occupational license upon program completion. The following website provides links to information about the licensing process and requirements: www.tdlr.texas.gov Should you wish to request a review of the impact of criminal history on your potential TDLR Cosmetology Operator Certificate which leads to testing for licensure, prior to or during your quest for a certificate, you can visit www.tdlr.texas.gov and request a "Criminal History Evaluation": This information is being provided to all persons who apply or enroll in the program, with notice of the requirements as described above, regardless of whether or not the person has been convicted of a criminal offense. Additionally, HB 1508 authorizes licensing agencies to require reimbursements when a student fails to receive the required notice.

Disclaimers/Additional Policies: Instructors may, at their discretion, withdraw a student due to lack of attendance, or the inability to maintain the prescribed minimum rate of progress (70% test average) stated in the course syllabus. Also, any behavior detrimental to the learning process of the student or class. Students should be familiar with the Cosmetology Welcome Packet & Student Expectations.

Professionalism Grading Rubric: Prompt, Prepared, Uniform & Compliance & Hair/Make-up. All five areas must be met to receive a grade of 100%. If not met the daily professional grade will be 0.

Zero Tolerance Policies:

1. Bullying. Physical or Mental. We will strive to maintain a positive atmosphere at all times.
2. Uniform. Wear it or return home, get in uniform and return to school including lab jacket
5. No Borrowing. Bring your supplies or go home, retrieve your supplies and return to school.

Concerns/Questions Statement: If you have any questions or concerns about any aspect of this course, please contact me using the contact information previously provided. If, after discussing your concern with me, you continue to have questions, please contact the Department Chair Jamie Hunsucker, jhunsucker1@com.edu or 409-933-8608 or Department chair Carla Boone cboone@com.edu or 409-933-8616.
