

ARTS-1304-002I5-S12025 Art History II July 7-Aug 8, 2025 Summer 2 2025 Asynchronous

Instructor Information: Zoie Buske, zbuske@com.edu

Learning Outcomes:

When you leave this course you will have:

- Written a successful art history paper.
- Improved your visual literacy, which is your ability to read works of art, or visual culture and discern: 1. What the artwork is trying to communicate to you (or the viewer it was originally intended for) and 2. What it says about the moment in history, and the society it was created in.
- Improved your research skill set.

Student hours and location: Lectures are pre-recorded and have been uploaded into D2L. Attendance will not be required, but the lectures must be watched. After watching the lecture, the students must submit a question that they had about the lecture to D2L – Lecture questions are due Sunday at Midnight. Individual meetings with the instructor are held via appointment.

Required Textbook/Materials: For this class we will be using the textbook "Reframing Art History." It is an open source art history textbook that you can access from any device. You will not need to purchase a textbook for this class.

- Note: The textbook covers Art History, from Prehistory to the present, so we will not cover every chapter in this course.

Course Description: (14th century to the present) A chronological analysis of the historical and cultural contexts of the visual arts from the 14th century to the present day. Prerequisite: TSIA2 ELAR <945 with Diagnostic 5-6 and Essay 0-4, <945 with Diagnostic 4 and Essay 0-8, or >945 with Essay 0-4, or equivalent developmental course with a grade of "C" or better.

MUST READ: For this class you will be required to watch the lectures posted to D2L. Lectures are all uploaded, and you can watch at your own pace. However, weekly you will be required to submit a question you had about each lecture.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

Question Submission for Lectures, and Reading Assignments - 40%

Paper 1 - 10%

Paper 2 - 25%

Final - 25%

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy: Late work will be accepted. However, -10 points will be deducted for every day the assignment is late. Exceptions are made for extenuating circumstances. Extra credit and make up work will be discussed on a case by case basis.

Attendance Policy: Attendance will not be mandatory for this course; however, you must watch the lectures that are posted.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. (Faculty may add additional statement requiring monitoring and communication expectations via D2L or other LMS)

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student_Handbook_2024-2025_v2.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact:

Kimberly Lachney, Student Accessibility Services Coordinator

Phone: 409-933-8919

Email: AccessibilityServices@com.edu

Location: COM Doyle Family Administration Building, Student Success Center

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 5-week session is June 30. The last date to withdraw from the 10-week session is July 29. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 5-week session is August 1.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress:

If you are experiencing stress or anxiety about your daily living needs including food, housing or just feel you could benefit from free resources to help you through a difficult time, please click here https://www.com.edu/community-resource-center/. College of the Mainland has partnered with free community resources to help you stay on track with your schoolwork, by addressing life issues that get in the way of doing your best in school. All services are private and confidential. You may also contact the Dean of Students office at deanofstudents@com.edu or communityresources@com.edu.

Nondiscrimination Statement:

The College District prohibits discrimination, including harassment, against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, age, veteran status, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender (including gender identity and gender expression), or any other basis prohibited by law. Retaliation against anyone involved in the complaint process is a violation of College District policy.
