Required Textbook/Materials: Psychology in Everyday Life, 5th edition; by David G. Myers; published by Worth Publishers. ISBN:9781319133726 . Achieve is an online course that we will be using to read, study, and complete homework activities.

Refer to “CONTENT” tab on D2L and click “Required Book and Achieve Access” tab to register for Achieve.

If you buy Achieve access (which is REQUIRED for this course) from the above website YOU AUTOMATICALLY get access to the ebook, so it is the cheaper option!

It is your choice if you want a hardcopy, paperback, or digital book. BUT YOU NEED ACHIEVE access ALSO!

Refer to “CONTENT” tab on D2L and click “Required Book and Achieve Access” tab to register for Achieve.

Course Description: This is an introduction to the field of psychology, dealing with such topics as the scientific method and theories, neuroscience and behavior, perception, consciousness, learning, memory, intelligence, motivation, emotion and stress, personality, psychological disorders, and therapy.

Course Requirements:

CHAPTER ACHIEVE ACTIVITIES:

There will be a total of 14 Chapter Achieve activities that will be done online using Achieve program on the Macmillan website. (See the section of “Required Textbook/Materials”) with each Achieve assignment having a maximum of 100 points. Achieve will be assigned for each chapter. Chapter Achieve include readings, video activities, and a quiz.

All students must complete the Achieve assignments by the scheduled date. There are NO Make-up Achieve .

NOTE: Please be aware that although you have one full week to complete the chapter Achieve activities it is discouraged to start close to the due date.

DISCUSSION BOARDS:

Each student will be required to complete 1 Introduction Forum and 12 Discussion Forum posts throughout the semester. These posts will allow you to discuss a topic related to the assigned chapter in greater depth.

In the Introduction Forum, each student will be required to complete an Introduction Post during the first week of classes. This post will allow you to introduce yourself to the class with a short biography. In this biography, you can include any details about yourself that will allow your fellow students to “put a person to the name”. The Introductions Forum Post will be worth a 100 points.

Each Discussion Forum Post has the following instructions:

1. Review the assigned article(s) or video(s)
2. Post a brief description of the topic and discuss what they have learned
3. Post a brief summary of their thoughts are on the topic
4. Reply to a minimum of two other student’s posts and rate it

Each Discussion Forum Post will be worth a maximum of 100 points.

You will earn up to 35 points for your description of the topic and what you have learned, up to 35 points for your thoughts on the topic, and up to 30 points for your reply to another student.

NOTE: Responses can be deleted at the discretion of the instructor. Responses will only be deleted if the instructor determines them to be aggressive, rude, degrading, etc., and they may be deleted without notice to the student. All such responses will receive a grade of 0 for the deleted thread. Please refer to the syllabus for more information regarding student conduct and expectations.

IN CLASS ASSIGNMENTS: In class assignments are occasionally given as the instructor’s way of ensuring students are actively coming to class. NO IN-CLASS ASSIGNMENTS can be made up. Two lowest assignment grades will be dropped at the end of the semester.

PRESENTATIONS:

Throughout the semester, students will have presentations as individuals and in groups. Each student will be required to complete 2 presentations throughout the semester. These Presentation will help students examine various topic in the field of psychology and identify how these impact our society on the community, state and national level. Further, this presentation will allow students to examine the importance of being knowledgeable of their own personal biases and/or stereotypes, and how they can be more informed in their future interactions.

Each Presentation Post has the following instructions:

1. Research the assigned topic
2. Develop a 7-10 minute presentation on the topic. Specific instructions will be provided.
3. Share your presentation with the class. Specific instructions will be provided

Each Presentation will be worth a maximum of 100 points. You will earn up to 30 points for Quality of Information and Organization, up to 30 points for Quality of Verbal Communication, up to 30 points for Quality of Non-Verbal Communication and up to 10 points for the Written Summary.

ALL PRESENTATIONS LESS THAN 7 MINUTES WILL NOT BE GRADED!

EXAM:

There will be a total of 4 Exams, with each exam having a maximum of 100 points. Exams will be broken down into sections containing between 2 and 4 chapters, and each exam will have a total of 40 questions (true/false, multiple choice, matching) and free response questions. Exams will be timed and you will have the total class time to complete each exam.

All students must complete the exams in class. There are NO Make-up Exams. Students arriving to the exam more than 15 minutes late will not be allowed to take the exam.

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook Student Handbook 2022-2023 v4.pdf \(com.edu\). An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Kimberly Lachney at 409-933-8919 or klachney@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 5-week session is June 30. The last date to withdraw from the 10-week session is July 31. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 5-week session is August 4.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.
