Required Textbooks:

A purchased textbook is not required for this course. All content will be available in D2L/Brightspace.

Other Supplies:

A jump drive to save all work

The Nature of a Hybrid Course:

Hybrid courses are created to combine traditional face-to-face classroom instruction with online computer coursework. This class meets face-to-face once a week (Tuesdays & Thursdays at 8:00am-9:20am). Class meetings will be used for lectures, discussion and activities, and peer review. The online (D2L) portion of this class will consist of notes and videos, discussions, and activities. You must keep up with both aspects of the class to be successful and get the most benefit from the materials.

Course Description:

Intensive study of and practice in writing processes, from invention and researching to drafting, revising and editing, both individually and collaboratively. Emphasis on effective rhetorical choices, including audience, purpose, arrangement, and style. Focus on writing the academic essay as a vehicle for learning, communicating and critical analysis.

Course Requirements:

Students will be required to write a diagnostic essay, a short critique of a restaurant or a film of their choice, two (2) major essays involving academic research based on an assigned topic, and a final essay reflecting on each student's progress over the semester. Students will also be required to submit two (2) outlines in preparation for the two research-based essays. Finally, students will be required to record an oral presentation on an assigned grammar topic using either Google Drive or YouTube.

Determination of Course Grade:

Your semester grade will be calculated according to the following percentages:

Diagnostic Essay —5%

Critique Essay—7.5%

Analysis Essay—25%

Persuasive Essay—30%

Reflective Essay—5%

Grammar Oral Presentation—5%

Research tutorial quiz and two (2) formal outlines—10%

Weekly Homework (quizzes, activities, online discussion etc.)—12.5%

Methods of Evaluation:

Essays, in-class and online discussion activities, and research essays.

Grading Scale:

A 90-100% =exceptional work; superior in both style and content

B 80-89% =above average work; superior in content

C 70-79% =average work, good enough but not extraordinary

D 60-69% =below average work; unsatisfactory in mechanics, style, content

E F 50-59% =failing work; deficient in mechanics, style, and content

Make-up Policy:

Major Assignments

All major essays will be due on a Sunday. If you cannot make the deadline, then you can submit the essay by the following Tuesday. However, once this grace period has ended, the submission area in D2L will be locked, and I will no longer accept the assignment. I will only extend beyond this grace period in cases involving military service, religious holidays, or documented emergencies.

Any attempt to email me the essay after the grace period will be rejected. Any claims of D2L not allowing you to upload and submit will need to be substantiated with evidence from our IT department.

The only assignment exempted from the grace period is the reflective assignment, which must be submitted by classtime Thursday, December 4.

Homework, Quizzes, and In-class work

Deadlines for homework and activities will not be extended under any circumstance. Any missed in-class work cannot be made up and a grade of zero will be recorded.

Extra Credit:

I will give you five extra points if you thoroughly participate in peer review. That means 1) showing up with a rough draft of an acceptable length and 2) participating in the reading of drafts and providing feedback on peer review days.

Attendance:

The Policy

Your attendance is vital and mandatory. Without you, I am just a guy standing in a classroom, talking to myself. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of class, and you are expected to arrive on time as set forth in the COM student handbook. Aside from military service and religious holidays, absences in college courses are not defined as being “excused” or “unexcused.”

To my dual credit and collegiate high school students: Yes, I’m sorry, but you will be counted as absent if you do not attend class due to high school extracurricular activities (sports, field trips, etc.). I realize this may seem unfair, but I must hold you to the same standard as all my students.

How Absenteeism Will Affect Your Semester Grade

You are allowed to miss five (5) classes for the entire semester. After you have reached this limit, I will deduct one full letter grade from your semester average for each additional absence. For example, if your semester average is a 92 (“A”) and you have missed a total of seven classes for the semester, your final semester grade will be a 72 (“C”).

Along with attending the face-to-face portion, students are expected to log in to D2L to complete all necessary online activities. Along with a grade, these online activities will count as your attendance for the days we do not meet. Students must complete at least one of these assignments to be counted as “present.”

As you can see, excessive absences can easily eat away at your semester average, so avoid skipping class and reserve these absences in case a personal issue arises.

Tardiness:

Students arriving five (5) minutes after the beginning of class will receive a “mark” in attendance. Three (3) of these marks will equal to one absence. Students arriving after the 20 minute point will remain marked absent for the class period. These same rules apply to leaving early.

Please do not abuse the above policy: It is meant to be insurance, not an excuse to arrive late every day. I reserve the right to revoke this policy if I feel it is being abused by any individual in the class.

Communication Policy:

You are welcome to call, e-mail, or come see me during my office hours. I will try to respond to your e-mails within a 24-hour timeframe during the work week. E-mails sent during the weekend may not receive a response until the following Monday.

All electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means.

Student Learner Outcomes:

Students Completing English 1301 will be able to

1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative writing processes.
2. Develop ideas with appropriate support and attribution.
3. Write in a style appropriate to audience and purpose.
4. Read, reflect, and respond critically to a variety of texts.
5. Use Edited American English in academic essays.

Student Learner Outcome	Maps to Core Objectives	Assessed via this Assignment

General Education Core Objectives:

Students successfully completing this course will demonstrate competency in the following Core Objectives:

1. Critical Thinking Skills: Students will demonstrate creative thinking, innovation, and the ability to analyze, evaluate, and synthesize information.
2. Communication Skills: Develop, interpret, and express ideas through written, oral, and visual communication.
3. Social Responsibility: Students will demonstrate intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
4. Personal Responsibility: Evaluate choices and actions of others or one's own, and relate consequences to ethical decision-making.

Academic Dishonesty:

Plagiarism and Collusion: “Plagiarism” means the appropriation of another’s work and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one’s own written work for credit. “Collusion” means the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit.”

AI/LLM: Unless a professor gives you permission to use AI in an assignment, doing so is scholastic dishonesty according to COM’s Student Conduct policy, which forbids students from “Falsifying documentation submitted for purposes of obtaining a grade or course credit.” Your assignments in this class are intended to show me what your skills are in writing, researching, and critical thinking, and your grades reflect the skill level you are at. Using AI in an attempt to make it look like your skills or ideas are better than they actually are is academic dishonesty.

Editing Software: Use of editing software such as Grammarly is also forbidden as it is commonly flagged as AI. Microsoft Word has embedded editing software that can be used. Otherwise, you can get assistance at COM’s tutoring center or through Tutor.com, which is embedded in our D2L shell.

Violation of the Scholastic Honesty code will result in a “0” for the assignment and any chance of a rewrite will not be allowed. Repeat offenders may face probation or dismissal from the college system. What I’ve noticed from past experience is that many students who plagiarize, collude, or use AI do so because they are having problems with the assignment. Please, if you are tempted to do this, resist the urge and talk to me about the problems. We’ll work something out.

All major assignments will be scanned with a software called Turnitin, which detects plagiarism and AI use.

Avoiding Plagiarism:

The following resources were created to help students understand what plagiarism is and how to avoid it.

- How to Cite and Avoid Plagiarism (A very good YouTube lecture series that covers subtle to egregious forms of plagiarism. I recommend it for all students.)
- You Quote It, You Note It! (Sponsored by Acadia University’s library, this website also covers what plagiarism is and is not, but in an interactive way.)

Technology Outage Policy:

I do not consider personal technology problems to be a valid excuse for missing deadlines. Every semester students experience total or near-total computer failures. If this happens to you, you have two (2) options: use a backup computer or drop the class. Computer labs are available on campus if your personal computer becomes disabled during the semester.

Never fail to make a backup of each assignment as you create or edit it—use a jump drive. Do not depend on the “original,” whether it’s on your hard drive or elsewhere.

If a campus-wide outage occurs, however, all students will have the opportunity to submit assignments at a later designated due date. I will post the new due date as an announcement, along with making the necessary changes to my course calendar.

Concerns/Questions Statement:

If you have any questions or concerns about any aspect of this course, please contact me using the contact information previously provided. If, after discussing your concern with me, you continue to have questions, please contact the Department Chair, Brian Anderson, at 409-933-8186 or banderson@com.edu.

Course Outline:

A course outline (calendar) has been provided for you. See the document attached at the end of the policies.

Institutional Policies and Procedures

Grade Appeal Process:

Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook <https://www.com.edu/student-services/student-handbook.html>. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor’s professional judgment of the quality of the student’s work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services:

College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement:

Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact:

Kimberly Lachney, Student Accessibility Services Coordinator

Phone: 409-933-8919

Email: AccessibilityServices@com.edu

Location: COM Doyle Family Administration Building, Student Success Center

Textbook Purchasing Statement:

A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy:

Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 1. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 14. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is November 25.

FN Grading:

The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program:

The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress:

If you are experiencing stress or anxiety about your daily living needs including food, housing or just feel you could benefit from free resources to help you through a difficult time, please click here <https://www.com.edu/community-resource-center/>. College of the Mainland has partnered with free community resources to help you stay on track with your schoolwork, by addressing life issues that get in the way of doing your best in school. All services are private and confidential. You may also contact the Dean of Students office at deanofstudents@com.edu or communityresources@com.edu.

Nondiscrimination Statement:

The College District prohibits discrimination, including harassment, against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, age, veteran status, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender (including gender identity and gender expression), or any other basis prohibited by law. Retaliation against anyone involved in the complaint process is a violation of College District policy.
