Required Textbook: Texas Criminal and Traffic Law Handbook 2019 – 2020 Edition /
Publisher: LexisNexis / ISBN: 9781522185031 (Soft Cover).

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Course Description: This course is one in a series of five courses that make up the Basic Police Academy block of instruction. This course, BPO-IV provides knowledge, instruction, and participation in laws that are directly related to field work. Topics include the Texas Transportation Code; laws involving intoxicated drivers as well as standardized field sobriety testing; the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Code; the Texas Family Code and civil liability. In addition, classroom instruction is supplemented with demonstration and student participation in the practical skills involved in the areas of patrol procedures; mechanics of arrest and Use of Force Options; firearms safety; emergency medical care; traffic collision investigation; report writing and crime scene investigations.

Course Requirements:

Students will have to know and demonstrate a working knowledge of the Texas Transportation Code, the Texas Family Code and the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Code. Students will have to demonstrate a working knowledge of the Texas DWI Laws and demonstrate the proper SFST testing of suspected intoxicated drivers as set forth in the law by the State of Texas. Students will have a working knowledge of collision investigations; mechanics of arrest; use of force options; crime scene investigations and their respective reporting procedures. Students will have a working knowledge, as well as demonstrate their ability to administer 1st aid and CPR techniques.

Attendance Policy: The Texas Commission on Law Enforcement requires students to attend the class in its entirety. Any hours missed must be made up before completing the program. The students must notify the Director of designee of any absence or he/she will be dismissed from the academy program. All hours missed must be made up before the end of the academy. (See Section X - Cadet Attendance Requirements in the Rules and Regulations handout for the BPOA).

Withdrawal Policy: Withdrawals from the course, (and in essence the academy), are made to the Coordinator of Law Enforcement Training in writing to be accepted by the Director of the Training Academy. Withdrawals are handled as resignations per the Rules and Regulations of the College of the Mainland Criminal Justice Training Center Law Enforcement Academy. Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is March 2. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is April 25. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is May 4.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor.

Early Alert Program: The Counseling Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Warning Program. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Warning Program you will be contacted by someone in the Counseling Department. As student success and retention is very important to us, someone from the Counseling Department will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

As per BPOA Rules students must achieve and maintain a 75% average by the end of the fourth week. Written notice will be given to any student who drops down within 3 points of that minimum score.

Dropping below the 75% average after the 4th week can bring about termination from the program if the Director determines that it is in the best interest of the student and the academy.

Academic Dishonesty: Any incident of academic policy will be dealt with in accordance with college policy and the Student Handbook. Cheating on any test/exam will bring about immediate termination from the academy. (See Academy Rules and Regulations Section VI – Cheating).

Concerns/Questions Statement: If you have any questions or concerns about any aspect of this course, please contact me using the contact information previously provided. If, after discussing your concerns with me, and you continue to have questions, please contact Dr. R.E. Davis the Department Chair of Public Service Careers at 409-933-8313 or via his e-mail at rdavis29@com.edu

Please note: Important Information:

HB 1508 was passed and went into effect on September 1, 2017. This bill requires all entities providing educational or instructional programs that prepare a student for an occupation or vocation requiring a Texas occupational license to inform the student or program participant that their eligibility for an occupational license could be impacted by the student's criminal history. Therefore, because eligibility for an occupational license may be impacted by one's criminal history. Students with a criminal history should confer with the Program Coordinator / Director or the department chairperson. Students have a right to request a criminal history evaluation letter from the applicable licensing agency.

COVID-19 Statement: All students, faculty, and staff are expected to familiarize themselves with materials and information contained on the College of the Mainland's Coronavirus Information site at www.com.edu/coronavirus. In compliance with Governor Abbott's May 18 Executive Order, face coverings/masks will no longer be required on COM campus. Protocols and college signage are being updated. We will no longer enforce any COM protocol that requires face coverings. We continue to encourage all members of the COM community to distance when possible, use hygiene measures, and get vaccinated to protect against COVID-19.
