Required items unique to this class:

Notebook for journal writing

Online access at home

Access to a laptop or computer on and off campus

General Course Description:

IRW 0320: This course is a co-requisite class for English Composition 1301. This course integrates preparation in academic reading skills and skills with writing a variety of academic assignments. Topics include critical reading and writing skills. Students will be expected to write compositions similar to those assigned in Composition and Rhetoric: English 1301. This course carries institutional credit and may not be used to meet degree requirements. Placement: (1) TSI Essay—score 2 or 3 with TSI Writing multiple choice score of 340-349 or (2) TSI Reading—score of 342-350 or (3) Successful completion (“C” or better) of Read 0340 or ENGL 0330 prior to 8/31/2014 or (4) Successful completion (“C” or better of IRW 0300. This course does not transfer.

Format for All Papers:

All written work (including rough drafts, D2L posts, and projects) should be typed, double-spaced, use a standard 12-point Times New Roman font, have 1-inch margins, and have page numbers with your last name preceding it on the top right corner, etc. Use Modern Language Association (MLA) style guidelines (available inside A Pocket Style Manual and on The OWL at Purdue Web site [<https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/>]). Put the word count below the date. The word count is for me and is not a part of MLA requirements. Also, include a Works Cited when I ask for it.

NOTE: I will not always read or score any work that doesn't meet the minimum requirements; this includes meeting deadlines. All major Assessment projects will be submitted as Microsoft Word document attachments via D2L. All Assignment posts should be simply copied and pasted from Word into the Discussion Board forum text boxes. This saves us, readers, time since we don't have to download then open these very short assignments to read them and reply to them. If when you copy/paste your work from Word into the Discussion Board forum threads, you lose spacing or formatting, don't worry too much; I care most that the MLA elements exist, and you attempted to get the spacing and formatting right. It is easy to determine if you did from my end. Note: It might be necessary for you to use these keyboard keystroke combinations when copying/pasting from Word to the D2L text boxes: Control A to highlight your work, Control C to Copy what you've highlighted, and once you're on D2L, Control V to paste from MS Word to the text box on the D2L Discussion Forum thread you created.

Course Requirements/Grading Formula:

Participation and Attendance	25%
Journal participation and completion: 15 to 25 handwritten pages	25%
Friday writing: (see below for more details)	50%
-----
TOTAL	100%

Course Grade Determination: This course's grades will be made up of in class participation and low-stakes assignments. The idea is to complement the work you do for English 1301 while affording many opportunities to practice reading, writing, thinking strategies, and processes.

Friday writing projects will include drafts and polished versions and reflections of the following:

1. A professional cover letter
2. A resume
3. Three scholarship application essays
4. A final reflective and analytical essay

Grading Scale:

- A 90-100% = Excellent work; superior in both style and content.
- B 80-89% = Good work; solid content
- C 70-79% = Average work; meets the minimum requirements
- D 60-69% = Below average work; does not meet the requirements
- F 50-59% = Failing work; deficient in mechanics, style, and content; all late work will lose half credit

Make-Up /Late Work Submission Policy:

If you submit anything late but within twenty-four hours after the assignment is due, you will automatically lose some credit but only up to a letter grade. If you submit your work past twenty-four hours, I will accept it for half credit in most cases, though if the work is strong, I might credit the work up to 75%. What this means is always aim for high-quality writing even if the work is late. The last day I will accept any work will be Monday night (11:59 pm) of the last week of class. I will not provide feedback for any work that is submitted late after the first deadline or for work that fails to meet minimum requirements though I will assign a grade.

Attendance, Participation, & Drop by Instructor Policy: Participation contributes to your Daily Grade average. This is a f2f participation-heavy course. The success of the course depends on the community we build; thus, your presence on D2L and in class is vital. I reserve the right to drop you after four consecutive missed assignments and/or four missed classes without notice from you. In sum, your active engagement is key.

IT’S BEST TO COMMUNICATE WITH ME IF YOU KNOW YOU’LL BE UNABLE TO FINISH ASSIGNMENTS or if you are going to be absent.

Communication Policy: Email me at dserda@com.edu using your COM email, please. I do not check D2L messages with daily frequency. I only use that function to send your major project comments. You may of course also call me during office hours and/or leave me a voicemail. Lastly, I highly recommend you message me via COM’s Office 365 Microsoft TEAMS as it is convenient, and we can often dialogue quickly through it. I recommend you download the TEAMS app.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with course instructors must be through your COM email and COM’s Microsoft Office 365 TEAMS. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means.

Student Learning Outcomes for COM’s English department:
Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Locate explicit textual information, draw complex inferences, and describe, analyze, and evaluate the information within and across multiple texts of varying lengths.
2. Comprehend and use vocabulary effectively in oral communication, reading, and writing.
3. Identify and analyze the audience, purpose, and message across a variety of texts.
4. Describe and apply insights gained from reading and writing a variety of texts.
5. Compose a variety of texts that demonstrate reading comprehension, clear focus, logical development of ideas, and use of appropriate language that advance the writer’s purpose.
6. Determine and use effective approaches and rhetorical strategies for given reading and writing situations.
7. Generate ideas and gather information relevant to the topic and purpose, incorporating the ideas and words of other writers in student writing using established strategies.
8. Evaluate relevance and quality of ideas and information in recognizing, formulating, and developing a claim.
9. Develop and use effective reading and revision strategies to strengthen the writer’s ability to compose college-level writing assignments.
10. Recognize and apply the conventions of standard English in reading and writing.

General Education Core Objectives:

- 1. Critical Thinking Skills: Students will demonstrate creative thinking, innovation, and the ability to analyze, evaluate, and synthesize information.
- 2. Communication Skills: Students will develop, interpret, and express ideas through written, oral, and visual communication.
- 3. Teamwork: Students will consider different points of view and work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal.
- 4. Social/Personal Responsibility: Students will evaluate choices and actions of others or one’s own and relate consequences to ethical decision-making.

Academic Dishonesty:

Any incident of academic policy will be dealt with per college policy and the Student Handbook. Academic dishonesty is an extremely serious offense and will result in a grade of zero on that exam, assignment, or project, and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for the appropriate disciplinary action. Using artificial intelligence (AI) technology to produce parts or all of your college work qualifies as academic dishonesty if your instructor didn’t explicitly ask you to use it. Please avoid using AI unless your professor says otherwise. When in doubt about whether you can use any technology to help you with your work, ask your professor.

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism is using someone else’s words or ideas and claiming them as your own. Plagiarism is a very serious offense. Plagiarism includes paraphrasing someone else’s words without proper citation and attribution, copying directly from a website, and pasting it into your paper, and/or using someone else's words without quotation marks. Any assignment containing any plagiarized material will receive a grade of zero, and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for appropriate disciplinary action.

College of the Mainland Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student\_Handbook\_2023-2024\_v2.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students with the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Kimberly Lachney at 409-933-8919 or klachney@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 11. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 28. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is December 7.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program:

The Counseling Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Warning Program. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Warning Program, you will be contacted by someone in the Counseling Department. As student success and retention is very important to us, someone from the Counseling Department will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer for you to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress:

If you are experiencing stress or anxiety about your daily living needs including food, housing or just feel you could benefit from free resources to help you through a difficult time, please click here <https://www.com.edu/community-resource-center/>. College of the Mainland has partnered with free community resources to help you stay on track with your schoolwork, by addressing life issues that get in the way of doing your best in school. All services are private and confidential. You may also contact the Dean of Students office at deanofstudents@com.edu or communityresources@com.edu.
