Student hours and location:

Required Textbook:

American Government, Openstax, 3rd Edition (this is free and is provided in the course in D2L as a digital e-text)

Course Description:

Origin and development of the U.S. Constitution, structure and powers of the national government including the legislative, executive, and judicial branches, federalism, political participation, the national election process, public policy, civil liberties and civil rights.

Course requirements/Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula

Grade Scale (based on 1000 total points possible):

A = 900-1000

B = 800-899

C = 700-799

D = 600-699

F = 0-599

Intro and Concluding Discussion Forums and Orientation Quiz (15 points)

The introductory discussion forum and the orientation quiz are in the Start Here folder. Do the Concluding Discussion Forum at the end of the course (end of Lesson Eight).

Lesson Quizzes (200 points):

Each lesson quiz is worth 25 points. The format for each exam is "open book" and each exam has a time limit of 30 minutes. Utilize the PowerPoint chapter presentations as well as the textbook to prepare for each exam.

Each student will have one attempt per exam, so study hard before you attempt to take an exam. Exam questions are pulled from a larger group of questions. By design, there is not enough time to look up each question, so study prior to taking the exam. The grade will post immediately after submission.

You must be prepared for each exam by reading the assigned chapter, doing the chapter discussion forum, doing any written assignments associated with the chapter. Do not procrastinate; give yourself time to complete each exam in sequence as you progress through the chapters and the units. You may, of course, move at your own pace ahead of each deadline.

On rare occasions, there may be an issue with the exam questions. Please let me know if that is the case. I always appreciate help in catching errors in the exam. Always feel free to check the answers against the book – if you have a question about an answer marked wrong, just email me with the question and your evidence (a pic) from the book.

Unforeseen glitches during an exam attempt can occur from time to time. There are several steps you can take to ensure you do not have a problem during an attempt. Go ahead and contact me if you have any problems with the exam, if it is a tech support problem, consult tech support.

Midterm and Final Exam (200 points)

There is a midterm and final exam each worth 100 points. The midterm will cover Lessons 1-4, the final will cover Lessons 5-8.

Written Projects (240 points):

There are five written projects for the course.

- Legislative Profiles (40 points)
- President Profile (40 points)
- Supreme Court Project (40 points)
- Interest Group Project (40 points)
- Final Paper (80 points)

See instructions for each assignment in Blackboard. There will be an attached rubric given with the grade on the written assignment. Be sure to answer all questions for each assignment. Questions that require more work are always worth more points. Do not skip questions that require paragraph summaries or extended replies, you're grade on the assignment will suffer greatly if you do. Incomplete written assignment may not be accepted and may be given a 0, so do not turn in half-completed work or skip any of the questions. Do not cut and paste any answers for the written assignments unless otherwise indicated. That is plagiarism. Students who plagiarize will get a 0 on the assignment and may fail the course and be reported to the college.

Discussion Forums (320 points)

There are 16 chapter discussion forums worth 20 points each for a total of 320 points. For each Discussion Forum, write a 250-300-word response (use your word processor to count the number of words and include that at the end of your post). Your response should carefully address all parts of the question in a coherent, organized, and professional manner. You must also respond to someone else's post with a 100-word response (use word count again). Your responses should be your own words. Do not cut and paste - this is plagiarism. If you do quote the textbook or other sources, be sure to use parenthetical citation or footnotes for proper attribution. Use proper grammar and spelling – posts with excessive grammar and spelling errors may receive a lowered grade or a 0.

Late Work/Make-Up, and Extra Credit Policy

Late work is generally not accepted. If late work is accepted, the grade may be lowered or given a 0 at the discretion of the instructor.

Make-up work is generally not accepted. If make-up work is accepted, the grade may be lowered or given a 0 at the discretion of the instructor.

Unless otherwise indicated during the course, there is no extra credit in this course.

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student Handbook 2024-2025 v6.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.
