It is online and FREE. Click on the link and scroll down a bit. You will find a table of contents, a PDF version, and a link to view the text online. Click on that and you will be able to navigate through the text chapter by chapter and section by section.

Course Description: This course examines the origin and development of the Texas constitution, structure and powers of state and local government, federalism and inter-governmental relations, political participation, the election process, public policy, and the political culture of Texas.

Course requirements:

COURSE EXAMS

During the semester, there are four scheduled class exams. All exams will be administered online, and each exam is worth 15% of your overall grade. It is imperative that students keep up with class assignments and reading if they wish to succeed in this course. The exam dates are listed in the course outline (see below). Each exam will cover only the material from the last exam, including both the reading and class discussion.

RESEARCH PAPER

Students will be expected to write a research paper for the class and submit it through Brightspace/D2L. The paper must be submitted by 11:59 p.m. Wednesday, November 26, 2025. The paper is worth 20% of your overall grade for the class. Guidelines for the paper will be posted on Brightspace/D2L.

DISCUSSIONS

Discussions represent the interactive component of this course. Each unit will have one current event question associated with it. These topics are related to the current controversies taking place in Texas politics today. These forums are a way of exchanging information with your fellow students. There will be four discussion questions that I will post throughout the semester online. Each discussion is worth 5% of your overall grade within the course. The discussion dates are listed in the course outline (see below). Late posts will not be graded!! Pay close attention to due dates! Follow the discussion guidelines posted if you expect to receive full credit for the discussions.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

Grading Scale:

Exam One = 15%

Exam Two = 15%

Exam Three = 15%

Exam Four = 15%

Discussions= 20% (There are 4 discussions, each discussion is worth 5%)

Research Paper = 20%

Total = 100%

Grades will be assigned according to the following scale at the end of the semester:

89.5-100=A

79.5-89.4=B

69.5-79.4=C

59.5-69.4=D

Below a 59.4=F

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy: All assignments are given a due date. If students are absent from class, it is their responsibility to obtain the assignments given in class. Assignments are to be turned in by the due date. If students miss a discussion, they will not be accepted and will be given a grade of 0 (zero). Students who miss exams, one, two or three, have an opportunity to make up the exam; however, there will be a 30-point deduction. There will be no opportunities to make up for exam four if missed; a grade of zero will be given for exam four. Students who miss an exam must contact the instructor to schedule when they are to take the exam. Please note that if a student has a valid excuse, then I will allow them to make up missed work without any type of penalty being assessed. Documentation must be provided such as a doctor's note.

All students are expected to be present on test days designated by the instructor. Exams must be taken at their scheduled times and may not be made up later without prior approval of the instructor.

Extra-Credit Policy: I do not provide extra credit.

Attendance Policy: If you want to pass, come to class. In an online environment, this means you should sign in multiple times a week and should expect to spend several hours a week in the course reviewing lessons/completing Lesson Modules and completing other course material. The online material goes beyond the material presented in the text, and you will be held accountable for this material on the exams and course assignments. The discussion component of the course also requires you to engage your fellow students in “conversation,” which requires you to regularly read and respond to posts.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. (Faculty may add additional statement requiring monitoring and communication expectations via D2L or other LMS)

Academic Dishonesty: Any incident of academic policy will be dealt with in accordance with college policy and the Student Handbook. Academic dishonesty, such as cheating on exams, is an extremely serious offense and will result in a grade of zero on that exam and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for appropriate discipline action.

Plagiarism:

The practice of taking someone else's work or ideas and passing them off as one's own. Students who engage in plagiarism will receive a zero for that assignment. Link(s) to resource(s) about ways to avoid plagiarism: <http://en.writecheck.com/ways-to-avoid-plagiarism/>

Artificial Intelligence (AI), defined as the intelligence of machines or software as opposed to human and/or animal intelligence, has been thrust to the forefront of matters related to academic integrity. Understand that student submissions of AI-generated work will constitute a violation of academic integrity. Any unauthorized use of ChatGPT, Grammarly, WordTune, or other AI-Generated content to complete written course requirements WILL be considered cheating. The ability to clearly articulate via written communication in a student's own words remains a vital part of the educational process at COM.

It is required for students who need assistance with spelling and basic grammar to utilize the spell-check and grammar-check features available in most word-processing software, most of which are capable. Additionally, COM also offers tutoring services.

Student Concerns: If you have any questions or concerns about any aspect of this course, please contact me using the contact information previously provided. If, after discussing your concern with me, you continue to have questions, please contact Shinya Wakao, Department Chair of Social and Behavioral Sciences at P: 409-933-8107, email: swakao@com.edu

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook <https://www.com.edu/student-services/student-handbook.html>

An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact:

Kimberly Lachney, Student Accessibility Services Coordinator

Phone: 409-933-8919

Email: AccessibilityServices@com.edu

Location: COM Doyle Family Administration Building, Student Success Center

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 1. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 14. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is November 25.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress:

If you are experiencing stress or anxiety about your daily living needs including food, housing or just feel you could benefit from free resources to help you through a difficult time, please click here <https://www.com.edu/community-resource-center/>.
