Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula (methods of evaluation to be employed to include a variety of means to evaluate student performance):

For the high school:

- Semester averages are determined on the basis of 50% major grades; 20% quizzes; 10% daily grades; 20% Final Exam.
- At least four major assessments (papers) each semester. Assessment methods used in English III DC include research, oral presentations (group and individual), compositions, special projects, and an occasional objective test.

Projects are considered long term and follow test rules. These are due on date assigned only; otherwise, penalties will be incurred.

- A minimum of 10 daily grades. Check for understanding grades include: oral participation, research process, journals and reaction papers.
- A minimum of 2 quiz grades. Quiz grades may include, but are not limited to, reading quizzes, dialectic notebooks, annotations for novels read, comprehensive class discussions, etc.
- All work is expected to be handed in on time; otherwise, late work will receive 30 points off for the first day, 10 points off for each additional day after that, and an assignment will not be accepted at all if more than 4 days late.

In the event of Distance Learning, late assignments will not be accepted, due to the extra time that is typically given to self-pace while working on the assignments.

The college grade will be the letter equivalent of the numerical grade given for the high school

- Three college credits will be awarded at the end of the spring semester as long as the student’s final average for first and second semester are at least a 70%. Students who do not have a 70% final average will not receive a C and will no longer be eligible for college credit, as is directed by College of the Mainland.

Grading Scale:

Letter Grade	Final Average in Percent – Friendswood ISD	Final Average in Percent – College of the Mainland
A	90-100	90-100
B	80-89	80-89
C	75-79	70-79
D	70-74	60-69
F	0-69	0-59

Semester grades of 79% or 89% WILL NOT be rounded up to a higher grade. Do not even ask.

Make-Up Policy:

A dual credit course taken at a high school campus is a college course in all respects. Retesting is not a standard practice and is not allowed on student request. Please review your course syllabus and ask your professor for details on grading policies and procedures.

Attendance Policy: Each college student is expected to attend class. No more than 20% of the classes may be missed without losing credit for the semester. For college purposes, absences are defined as any time a student is not physically present in the classroom during class time. A student may be dropped from the class at any point after 20% absence, based on attendance and success in the course.

High school attendance follows school policy outlined in the Student Code of Conduct manual. School related absences as well as any pre-planned absence requires that work missed be turned in the day it is due. If on a field trip, etc. students are expected to turn in assignments the day they are due or make arrangements prior to the absence(s) for missed work.

In case of an absence, email the teacher for instructions on makeup work, so you will not get behind.

If a student misses 20% of a class, the instructor has the right to fail the student based solely on attendance.

Tardiness Policy: When a student is less than 10 minutes late they will be marked as tardy. If the student is more than 10 minutes late, he/she will be marked absent. On the 4th tardy to one class, a student may be referred to the office for disciplinary action. Every three tardies to a period will count as an absence in that period, which could contribute to a student's make up hours. Note: All make-up hours will be made up on campus; no community service will be accepted for attendance hours.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 6. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 19. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is December 2.

November 19, 2021 is the last day to drop with the college and receive a "W" rather than a grade.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an F_N grade.

Disclaimers/Additional Policies: Students will need the following items. If there is a circumstance that prohibits the student from getting them, then he/she needs to speak to the teacher before Tuesday, August 25, 2020.

1. College of the Mainland Campus ID
2. one box of tissues
3. hand sanitizer

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention is very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Classroom Conduct Policy: College of the Mainland requires that students enrolled at COM be familiar with the Standards of Student Conduct, which can be found in the on-line Student Handbook.

<http://www.com.edu/student-services/student-handbook.php>. Students are expected to be familiar with and abide by the Student Code of Conduct. Any violations of the Code of Conduct will result in a referral to the Dean of Students and may result in dismissal from this class.

Academic Dishonesty and Plagiarism: College of the Mainland is committed to a high standard of academic integrity in the academic community. In becoming a part of the academic community, students are responsible for honesty and independent effort. Failure to uphold these standards includes, but is not limited to, the following: plagiarizing written work or projects, cheating on exams or assignments, collusion on an exam or project, and misrepresentation of credentials or prerequisites when registering for a course. Cheating includes looking at or copying from another student's exam, orally communicating or receiving answers during an exam, having another person take an exam or complete a project or assignment, using unauthorized notes, texts, or other materials for an exam, and obtaining or distributing an unauthorized copy of an exam or any part of an exam. Plagiarism means passing off as his/her own the ideas or writings of another (that is, without giving proper credit by documenting sources). Plagiarism includes submitting a paper, report, or project that someone else has prepared, in whole or in part.

Collusion is inappropriately collaborating on assignments designed to be completed independently. These definitions are not exhaustive. When there is clear evidence of cheating, plagiarism, collusion, or misrepresentation, disciplinary action may include but is not limited to requiring you to retake or resubmit an exam or assignment, assigning a grade of zero or "F" for an exam or assignment; or assigning a grade of "F" for the course. Additional sanctions including being withdrawn from the course, program or expelled from school may be imposed on a student who violates the standards of academic integrity.
