Textbook/Materials: O’Hair, D., Rubenstein, H., Stewart, R., (2019) A pocket guide to public speaking (6th ed.). Boston: Macmillan Learning. Textbook is OPTIONAL.

Course Description: This course emphasizes the principles of oral communication skills in both speaking and listening situations. In addition to theory in verbal and nonverbal technique, the course prepares students for planning, organization, and delivery of different types of informative/persuasive presentations. Two types of learning occur in this course: (1) cognitive or knowledge-based learning and (2) skill development. This course will combine both types of learning so that the student can attempt to convert what he/she knows about public speaking into how he/she acts when speaking publicly. *This course is a 3-credit hour transferable semester course.

Course requirements: SPCH 1315 is based on a 1000 points system. Your final grade in this course is based on your performance in the following areas:

- Three MAJOR speeches (WITH APA formatted Outlines)
 - o 1st - Self Introduction Speech 2 - 5 minutes (no sources required)
 - o 2nd - Informative Speech 5 - 7 minutes (3 sources minimum)
 - o 3rd – Persuasive Speech 6 – 8 minutes (4 sources minimum)
- In-Class Activities
- Formal Assignments
- Speech Evaluations

Special Projects: There are two major REQUIRED speeches in this class. The first is an Informative Speech Presentation. The second is a Persuasive Speech Presentation. Evaluation Criteria and Rubrics will be provided to students upon official assignment.

Informative and Persuasive Speech Presentations:

- The informative speech presentation assignment is worth 200 out of 1000 pts (20%) of your overall grade. The assignment provides Public Speaking students with an opportunity to demonstrate their ability to research, develop and deliver extemporaneous speeches with effective verbal and nonverbal techniques.

- The persuasive speech presentation assignment is worth 230 out of 1000 pts (23%) of your overall grade. This assignment provides students to develop proficiency in presenting a variety of speeches as an individual or group (e.g., narrative, informative or persuasive).
- In addition to both presentations, students will demonstrate effective usage of technology when researching and/or presenting speeches with the power point presentations.
- A typed full-sentence, double spaced, 3-5 pages in the outline (in APA format) is REQUIRED for each of these two presentations.
- All written assignments MUST be submitted as a WORD document. Link and/or instructions for submission will be provided.

FINAL GRADES ARE NON-NEGOTIABLE!!!

Regardless of final outcomes, no student will be allowed to pass this course unless they have successfully completed BOTH major speaking assignments.

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy: NOTE: This is NOT a self-paced course!! It is the student’s responsibility to know and keep up with due dates and deadlines.

Outlines:

A complete (3-5-page/full sentence) outline for speeches must be submitted ON or BEFORE the assigned DUE DATE! IN ADDITION, NO OUTLINES WILL BE ACCEPTED IF THE OUTLINE DOES NOT MEET THE MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS! There are several options available to the student if he/she is not able to submit the assignment by the due date in order to bypass a grade of zero being dispensed for the assignment:

1. Turn the outline in BEFORE the due date!
2. E-mail the outline to your instructor prior to the due date.
3. Upload the outline prior to due date. If you choose to e-mail the outline, always pick up the phone and verify that it has been successfully received.

AGAIN: Student presentations will NOT be graded without having submitted a formal 3–5-page outline by the due date. All formal outlines (informative and persuasive) must be submitted in full-sentence, double spaced format. This format will be taught within the course and is required for credit.

Presentations-Missing the Round:

If the student has turned in a complete/formal outline (by deadline) but is late in presenting the information, the student must have a legitimate reason. Failure to provide adequate documentation will result in losing 25% (or more) of the assignment grade. The opportunity to make up a missed speech with no legitimate reason is left to the professor’s discretion.

Attendance Policy: Regular class participation is expected!! A student CANNOT expect to pass this course without contributing to discussions and other assignments on a regular basis. Students are expected to check their course emails a minimum of 1-2 times a week!

Please note: the professor reserves the right to drop a student from the course. If, however, it becomes the student’s decision to not continue in the course, the normal procedure for dropping a course should be followed by the student. Remember, it is not the professor’s responsibility to initiate the withdrawal in such a case and failure to do so by the student may result in an “F”. All students should familiarize themselves with the posted “W” Day cutoff. It is the student’s responsibility to withdraw from a class. If a student simply stops participating in the class and does not officially withdraw before “W Day”, it will result in receiving an F in the course. This is the easiest way to fail a course and the most preventable. Mark your calendars for this semester’s “W-Day”!

If it becomes necessary for a student to miss class/an assignment/etc, the student should confer with his/her professor before the day the assignment is due.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. (Faculty may add additional statement requiring monitoring and communication expectations via D2L or other LMS).

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook Student Handbook 2022-2023 v4.pdf \(com.edu\). An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.
