Course Description: History 1302 is a survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the Civil War/Reconstruction era to the present. United States History II examines industrialization, immigration, world wars, the Great Depression, Cold War and post-Cold War eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History II include American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, urbanization and suburbanization, the expansion of the federal government, and the study of U.S. foreign policy.

This course will emphasize political, social, and economic developments, as well as other significant topics. This course (a) meets the requirements of a college transfer course for four-year degree programs (b) prepares students for upper-division coursework in history (c) prepare students for the academic rigors of upper-division coursework in the social sciences (d) prepares students for developing their critical thinking skills.

Course requirements:

Homework: Students are expected to read each assigned chapter each week. Generally, in college: A student spends 3 hours for every hour in class. For a three-hour course (such as History), most students spend about 7-9 hours per week studying and preparing for class. Students are expected to read and prepare prior to coming to class. This will lead to class discussions and a better understanding of the chapters.

Exams: There will be four exams during the semester with a value of 100 points each, 50 points for a Multiple-Choice portion, 50 points for the Written portion. Exam material will be drawn from quizzes, assigned readings, D2L/Brightspace assignments and all class activities. Students should pay attention to terms in the study guides and quizzes, available on D2L at the start of the module. Each exam may consist of multiple-choice questions, short answers, and map questions

Core Objective: Critical Thinking

Writing Portion Exams: There will be four writing portion exams during the semester, these are in addition to the multiple-choice exams you will take in class. Writing Portion Exams will be available from the beginning of a Module, so you will have several weeks to work on these essays. The instructions for the writing portion will be on D2L.

Format (Title Page, Double Spaced, Times New Roman Font)	15%
Content (Discussion of topic, ie accuracy)	30%
Mechanics- spelling, grammar and words not to use, Proper in text citations, if needed	25%
Works cited page included	15%
Length of Paper	15%
Total	100%

Assessment Quizzes: In addition to the four exams, there will be at least 10 quizzes given in class to assess your progress between major exams. We will have more than 10 quizzes, for example, if we have 15 quizzes, we will drop the lowest 5 quizzes at the end of the semester. Quizzes will count for 100 points (10 points for each quiz). Like exams, quizzes cannot be made up. Missed quizzes receive a grade of zero. All quizzes will be in D2L and timed based on the number of questions in the quiz. If you have a required Video lesson to view, you must do that to be eligible to view the quiz. Please do not email the instructor asking what chapters the quizzes cover. This information is in D2L. Quiz dates are tentative depending on how far we get on our topics in class.

Quizzes address the following Core Objective: Critical Thinking.

Discussion Participation: You will be required to participate in class discussions. Material for discussions will come from the textbook. You should read your textbook chapter before coming to class so you may participate in the discussions and earn your grade.

Research Paper Proposal: After your topic is approved in the Discussion Board you must submit your Proposal and Thesis statement. You also need to submit an initial Works Cited Page. Sources that you will use for your paper. Please submit those sources in MLA format.

Step 1: Write a thesis statement that replies to the question prompted for the paper. Remember that this thesis statement will guide the development and support of your paper. For assistance in writing a thesis, please check the following link:

https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/general_writing/the_writing_process/thesis_statement_tips.html

Step 2: Give me the main idea of the source. Main idea and summary are two different things. What is the author trying to tell us with his book/article.

Step 3: After each source, include a detailed summary. Then reflect on the information you have gathered from the source and explain how the source fits into your overall research for this paper.

You must view all feedback on the proposal before you can submit your Research Paper.

Thesis Statement	25%
Sources	25%
Source Summary	25%
Source Main Idea	15%
How well does the source fit into the overall
Research Paper	10%
	100%

Research Paper: Each student will write a 5-page research paper on a topic in US History from 1492-1877. This paper should be in a research paper format and NO LESS than 5 pages. A works cited page should be included. Follow MLA formatting guidelines, including citations and a works cited page. Paper must be double spaced Times New Roman font, 12 pnt. Please review rubric for grading criteria. Before you write your paper, post your topic on the appropriate discussion board. This is to make sure you choose a topic that falls into this class's scope. If you do not post in the discussion board and get your topic approved, you risk receiving a zero for the paper. You must use at least 5 sources (no textbooks of any kind).

You will also be required to use the COM Tutoring center to receive feedback for your paper. Students will be required to turn in a Paper proposal and view the feedback before you will be able to turn in your Research Paper which will include the thesis statement and sources you plan to use.

The Research Paper Assignment will be graded using the following formula:

Analyze sources	25%
Create an argument through the use of historical evidence	25%

Effective use of Critical Thinking Skills	25%
Effective use of Communication Skills (written)	15%
Length of Paper	10%
	100%

Oral Presentations: Each student will create an oral presentation over the topic that you wrote your research paper on. You will not read the paper but give a presentation telling us what you learned about the subject. Students will create their video on the appropriate discussion board. The presentations should be 3-5 minutes long.

Verbal Communication	33.4%
Content/Organization	33.3%
Enthusiasm/Audience Awareness	33.3%
Total	100%

Responsibility Paper: Students will pick a person or movement that fits into the time period of HIST 1302 – 1877 to 2010. Students will write a two-page typed paper on the Social and Personal Responsibility of the subject. The student must include a paragraph in their paper discussing the social and personal responsibility of the individuals involved. Please be specific when discussing personal and social responsibility. Students will use primary and secondary sources for their paper. You must include a works cited page. You will also be required to use the COM Tutoring center to receive feedback for your paper.

Covers: Critical Thinking, Social Responsibility, Personal Responsibility, Communication

Example Topic: Harriet Tubman’s decision to help runaway slaves, what are the consequences of her actions? What personal responsibility does she have and how does it influence those around her? What social responsibility does she have and how does it influence those around her?

Effective use of Critical Thinking Skills	- 25%
Effective use of Communication Skills (grammar & work usage)	- 25%
Analysis of the Social Responsibility component of the topic	- 25%
Analysis of the Personal Responsibility component the topic	- 25%
	100%

All Paper Requirements: Points will be taken off for incorrect formats

- Spelling and capitalization need to be correct
- All papers must have a title page, be typed, double spaced with a 12-pt. font
- All pages must have appropriately sized margins.
- All papers must contain information detailed in the procedure section of these guidelines
- Do not submit a paper you have used for another class.
- All Papers require a works cited page with sources that were used

Sources: Please use the COM Library for sources for all papers.

Sources NOT to use: Any encyclopedia, Wikipedia, History.COM, PBS, anything that ends in .org, NPS, NPR, Kahn Academy, no news stations, Whitehouse.gov. Also do not use any article that does not show its sources. Most websites are not college level academic sites. Use the Library, you can do this online.

Extra Credit: All Extra Credit is already available in D2L. Please do not ask me for more extra credit, or alternate assignments if you fail to turn in assignments. I will not provide any assignments to replace missed assignments. This is the only extra credit that I will give you. Please do not email me and ask for more extra credit.

DUE DATES: All due dates are listed in D2L. Please utilize the Calendar, Announcements, and the assignments themselves for the due dates. Please do not email your instructor asking for due dates, they are listed in D2L.

Turnitin: All papers will be submitted to Turnitin. Please check your similarity report, this flags plagiarism. Also, Turnitin now checks to see if your paper was written by Artificial Intelligence, you will not see this percentage, but your instructor will. Any percentage of Artificial Intelligence usage will result in a zero for your paper. Do not use Grammarly or any other online helpers to help you write your paper, it will show up as Artificial Intelligence. There will be no rewriting of papers once the due date has passed. If you need help with papers, use the COM Tutoring Center.

No “Recycled Assignments for Course Credit: You may not re-submit an essay or discussion post (or portions thereof) that you did in another course for credit in this course, including material from one of my classes in an earlier semester. Therefore, even if you have done an assignment before in another class, you must do it from scratch this semester.

Grades: Students should be reviewing their grades and feedback frequently. I do not allow assignments to be redone. Once an assignment is graded, it will not be re-graded.

Feedback: To improve your writing, you should be reviewing feedback. When you upload your paper, you should review your similarity percentage and fix your papers.

Technology statement: The instructor is not required to consider lost/missing/unacceptable work stemming from technical non-compliance and/or end-user technical issues. Failure to maintain Internet or computer access shall not constitute a valid excuse for missed work. Any student who cannot keep up with the coursework owing to a lack of computer or Internet access or functionality should refer to the Library Computer Lab hours of operation (<https://www.com.edu/computer-labs/library-computer-lab>) and plan to complete all coursework during posted hours.

If you fail to complete an assignment or exam because your computer crashes or loses internet access, forget to attach a file, attach a wrong/blank/empty file to an assignment, did not verify submission of the correct file/information/link/etc., or did not use the appropriate browser or operating system to access and complete course work, then you are not entitled to make up or resubmit the course work. If the assignment, discussion, project, or exam was not completed or submitted in a timely manner due to your error or due to end-user technological issues of any kind, it cannot be made up.

Grades: Please make sure you are checking your grades weekly, if you see any issues you need to let me know asap. Do not wait until the end of the semester. Please do not email me at the end of the semester asking me for a grade bump. I give plenty of extra credit, I do not bump grades.

Make-Up Policy: There will be NO makeup tests or quizzes given. You are given dates for exams in advance. Please make every effort to be in class on that day as I will not give make-up exams or quizzes. Essays and other papers are available for several weeks, you should be working on them and not wait until the last minute. I will not give extensions on any papers as they are available for weeks. There is no Make- up work, you have a window of several days and in some cases several weeks to complete assignments. I do not go back and open assignments up Late work will not be accepted. Please do not ask for alternate assignments.

If you have issues with an assignment, you need to see me BEFORE the assignment is due. I cannot help you if you contact me after the assignment is due. . Please do not email me missed assignments, all assignments must be uploaded to D2L. I will substitute your lowest exam grade for one missed exam (this DOES NOT mean I drop a grade). If you miss more than one exam those grades will be a zero. I do not give extensions on papers as they are available for several weeks.

Please be aware going on a trip/vacation does not warrant getting extra time to complete assignments.

If you have issues with an assignment you need to see me BEFORE the assignment is due. I cannot help you if you contact me after the assignment is due.

If you have issues with the grade on an assignment DO NOT wait until the end of the semester to say something. I will not go all the way back to look at those assignments.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. Instructor will reply to email within 24 hours, weekend emails will be answered on Monday. Please include your course name and number in the subject line. (HIST 1302-102)

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student_Handbook_2023-2024_v2.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Kimberly Lachney at 409-933-8919 or klachney@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a "W" grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is February 28. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is April 22. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is May 1. The last date to withdraw for spring mini session is May 29.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress:

If you are experiencing stress or anxiety about your daily living needs including food, housing or just feel you could benefit from free resources to help you through a difficult time, please click here <https://www.com.edu/community-resource-center/>.
