Student hours and location: 2nd Floor Library M 003- Monday/Wed 5:00-6. Tuesday- 11-3.
Also available online by request.

Required Textbooks: All reading materials are online for free. Semester topic focus -- Literature of the Undead, exploring boundaries between life and death, the uncanny and its importance in modern culture and film.

Course Description: The study of one or more literary genres including, but not limited to, poetry, fiction, drama, and film. (Texas ACGM). Prerequisite: ENGL 1301 with a grade of “C” or better.

Major Course Requirements:

Book/Film Reviews (minimum 2 pages, no secondary research): Must be done outside of class. Review of each film/book will include a discussion of current events as they relate to the film or book and how or if the film/book reinterprets, changes, or shifts the norms of the genre.

Essays: For the major research-based essay assignment, you will pick a work outside of class assignments and research the historical and cultural norms of the work. Include a minimum of three secondary sources and build a critical argument based on your observations and close reading. Instructions for additional shorter essays will be distributed separately.

Oral Presentation: This will be based on the book/film review assignment and will be explained in detail in class and a separate handout. The presentation of 5 minutes must include interpretation and not just summary.

Midterm/Final/Class Participation You will have a midterm and a final exam as well as 3-5 shorter essays as written assignments. You will be required to watch one film and read one book outside of class and to write a review on each.

You will also be required to participate in class discussions and give an oral presentation. It is mandatory and necessary that you do so.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula (methods of evaluation to be employed to include a variety of means to evaluate student performance):

Essays	15%
Reviews of book/film	15%
Midterm	30%
Final	30%
Participation	10%

Grading Scale:

A =	90-100
B =	80-89
C =	70-79
D =	60-69
F =	59 or less

Make-Up Policy: There are no make-ups for missed tests. A student is responsible for any work missed in class. Some assignments such as peer reviews and group work may not be made-up. Students missing such assignments will receive zeros for those assignments. A student has 2 class periods to turn in missed in-class writing assignments. Failure to turn in missed in-class writing assignments within 2 class periods will be penalized. It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor regarding any missed assignments or the need for make-up work.

Attendance Policy: Attendance is expected for every class meeting. All students are required to attend every class promptly. If a student misses more than 4 (4) classes, he/she places the successful completion of this course in serious jeopardy. I reserve the right to drop you after two (4) missed classes.

Tardiness Policy: Any student tardy after attendance is absent for the day.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. (Faculty may add additional statement requiring monitoring and communication expectations via Blackboard or other LMS)

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student_Handbook_2023-2024_v2.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Kimberly Lachney at 409-933-8919 or klachney@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is February 28. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is April 22. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is May 1. The last date to withdraw for spring mini session is May 29.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

Resources to Help with Stress:

If you are experiencing stress or anxiety about your daily living needs including food, housing or just feel you could benefit from free resources to help you through a difficult time, please click here <https://www.com.edu/community-resource-center/>. College of the Mainland has partnered with free community resources to help you stay on track with your schoolwork, by addressing life issues that get in the way of doing your best in school. All services are private and confidential. You may also contact the Dean of Students office at deanofstudents@com.edu or communityresources@com.edu.

Classroom Conduct Policy: College of the Mainland requires that students enrolled at COM be familiar with the Standards of Student Conduct, which can be found in the on-line Student Handbook. <http://www.com.edu/student-services/student-handbook.php>. Students should act in a professional manner at all times. Disruptive students will be held accountable according to college policy. Any violations of the Code of Conduct will result in a referral to the Office for student Conduct and may result in dismissal from this class.
