Student hours and location: F-119 office – Student (office) hours on door

Required Textbook/Materials: The Beat Goes On: Popular Music in America, 5th Edition. Michael Campbell, Cengage, 2019 NOT REQUIRED OPTIONAL

Course Description: A general survey of various styles of music of the Americas, including but not limited to jazz, folk, rock, and contemporary music. This course which meets the college's fine arts core requirement is open to all students. Prerequisite: TSI Reading 342 or equivalent development course with a grade of "C" or better.

Course requirements: 5 exams and a concert report

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

5 exams: 75%

Paper Assignment: 10%

Attendance/Participation: 15%

Late Work, Make-Up, and Extra-Credit Policy: Homework assignments will receive a ten-point deduction for every class day they are late. Classroom assignments may not be made up. Tests must be made up within two class periods (one week) of the original test date. It is the responsibility of the student to make arrangements with the instructor for the make-up test. Please note that the make-up test will be a different test than was originally given. Extra Credit will be discussed in class.

Attendance Policy: Students at College of the Mainland are expected to attend every session of all classes for which they are registered. Any absence or late arrival potentially lowers your grade.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. (Faculty may add additional statement requiring monitoring and communication expectations via D2L or other LMS)

Student Learner Outcome	Maps to Core Objective	Assessed via this Assignment
1. 1. Students will evaluate a given musical composition.	Critical Thinking	Discussion and Exam
2. 2. Prepare a concert report	Communication	Paper
3. Show effective teamwork through participatory group activity	Teamwork	Classroom performance or discussion
4. Demonstrate awareness of concert decorum appropriate to the venue/occasion/culture	Social Responsibility	Discussion

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook https://www.com.edu/student-services/docs/Student_Handbook_2024-2025_v2.pdf. An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor’s professional judgment of the quality of the student’s work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal.

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact:

Kimberly Lachney, Student Accessibility Services Coordinator

Phone: 409-933-8919

Email: AccessibilityServices@com.edu

Location: COM Doyle Family Administration Building, Student Success Center

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 2. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 15. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is November 26.

FN Grading: The FN grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The FN grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the FN grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an FN grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.
