Course requirements:

Exams: There will be four exams during the semester with a value of 100 points each, 70 points for a Multiple-Choice portion, 30 points for the Essay portion. Exam material will be drawn from quizzes, assigned readings, blackboard assignments and all class activities. Students should pay particular attention to terms in the study guides, which will be available on Blackboard at the beginning of the module. Each exam may consist of multiple-choice questions, short answer, and map questions

Core Objective: Critical Thinking

Essay Exams: There will be four essay exams during the semester, these are in addition to the multiple-choice exams you will take in class. Essay Exams will be available from the beginning of a Module, so you will have several weeks to work on these essays. The instructions for the essays will be in Blackboard. Utilizing the COM Tutoring Center is for your benefit, but for these exams it will be 10 points extra credit.

Assessment Quizzes: In addition to the four exams, there will be 10 quizzes in Blackboard to assess your progress between major exams. Quizzes will count for a total of 100 points (10 points for each quiz). Like exams, quizzes cannot be made up. Missed quizzes receive a grade of zero. Quizzes address the following Core Objective: Critical Thinking.

Movie Critique: I have a list of suggested movies in Blackboard. Choose a film appropriate for our class. After watching the movie, you will write a two-page typed paper about the film. You will address the question of how this movie/documentary fits into the class discussions we have had. Is this an accurate representation of what we have been studying? See course schedule for due date. Upload your finished paper to Blackboard.

- You may go longer than 2 pages, but your paper needs to be detailed. Do not imply and expect me to know what you mean.
