It is online and FREE. Click on the website and scroll down a bit. You will find a table of contents, a PDF version, and a link to view the text online. Click on that and you will be able to navigate through the text chapter by chapter and section by section.

Course Description: This course, examines the origin and development of the U.S. Constitution, structure and powers of the national government including the legislative, executive, and judicial branches, federalism, political participation, the national election process, public policy, civil liberties, and civil rights.

Course requirements:

COURSE EXAMS

During the semester, there are four scheduled class exams. All exams will be administered online, and each exam is worth 15% of your overall grade. It is imperative that students keep up with class assignments and readings if they wish to succeed in this course. The exam dates are listed in the course calendar (see below). Each exam will cover only the material since the last exam, including both the readings and class discussion.

RESEARCH PAPER

Students will be expected to write a research paper for the class and submit it through Blackboard. The paper must be submitted by 11:59 p.m. Wednesday, November 24th, 2021. The paper is worth 20% of your overall grade for the class. Guidelines for the paper will be posted on blackboard.

DISCUSSIONS

Discussions represent the interactive component of this course. Each unit will have one current event question associated with it. These topics are related to the current controversies taking place in American politics today. These forums are a way of exchanging information with your fellow students. There will be 4 discussion questions that I will post throughout the semester online. Each discussion is worth 5 points towards your overall grade in the course. The discussion dates are listed in the course outline. DO NOT WAIT until the end of the unit to begin posting. Late posts will not be graded!! Pay close attention to due dates! Follow the discussion guidelines posted in the getting started section of the course.

Determination of Course Grade/Detailed Grading Formula:

Grading Scale:

Exam One = 15%

Exam Two = 15%

Exam Three = 15%

Exam Four = 15%

Discussions= 20% (There are 4 discussions, each discussion is worth 5%)

Research Paper = 20%

Total = 100%

Grades will be assigned according to the following scale at the end of the semester:

89.5-100=A

79.5-89.4=B

69.5-79.4=C

59.5-69.4=D

Below a 59.4=F

Make-Up Policy: All assignments are given a due date. If students are absent from class, it is their responsibility to obtain the assignments given in class. Assignments are to be turned in by the due date. If students miss a discussion, they will not be accepted and will be given the grade of 0 (zero). Students who miss exams one, two or three have an opportunity to make up the exam; however, there will be a 30-point deduction. There will be no opportunities to make up exam four if missed; a grade of zero will be given for exam four. Students who miss an exam must contact the instructor to schedule when they are to take the exam. Please note that if a student has a valid excuse, then I will allow them to make up missed work without any type of penalty being assessed. Documentation must be provided such as a doctor's note.

All students are expected to be present on test days designated by the instructor. Exams must be taken at their scheduled times and may not be made up later without prior approval of the instructor.

Attendance Policy: If you want to pass, come to class. In an online environment, this means you should sign in multiple times a week and should expect to spend several hours a week in the course reviewing lessons/completing Lesson Modules and completing other course material. The online material goes beyond the material presented in the text, and you will be held accountable for this material on the exams and course assignments. The discussion component of the course also requires you to engage your fellow students in “conversation,” which requires you to regularly read and respond to posts.

Communicating with your instructor: ALL electronic communication with the instructor must be through your COM email. Due to FERPA restrictions, faculty cannot share any information about performance in the class through other electronic means. (Faculty may add additional statement requiring monitoring and communication expectations via Blackboard or other LMS)

Institutional Policies and Guidelines

Grade Appeal Process: Concerns about the accuracy of grades should first be discussed with the instructor. A request for a change of grade is a formal request and must be made within six months of the grade assignment. Directions for filing an appeal can be found in the student handbook. <https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf.

An appeal will not be considered because of general dissatisfaction with a grade, penalty, or outcome of a course. Disagreement with the instructor's professional judgment of the quality of the student's work and performance is also not an admissible basis for a grade appeal. https://build.com.edu/uploads/sitecontent/files/student-services/Student_Handbook_2019-2020v5.pdf

Academic Success & Support Services: College of the Mainland is committed to providing students the necessary support and tools for success in their college careers. Support is offered through our Tutoring Services, Library, Counseling, and through Student Services. Please discuss any concerns with your faculty or an advisor.

ADA Statement: Any student with a documented disability needing academic accommodations is requested to contact Holly Bankston at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is located in the Student Success Center.

Counseling Statement: Any student needing counseling services is requested to please contact Holly Bankston in the student success center at 409-933-8520 or hbankston@com.edu. Counseling services are available on campus in the student center for free and students can also email counseling@com.edu to set up their appointment. Appointments are strongly encouraged; however, some concerns may be addressed on a walk-in basis.

Textbook Purchasing Statement: A student attending College of the Mainland is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from the college-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Withdrawal Policy: Students may withdraw from this course for any reason prior to the last eligible day for a “W” grade. Before withdrawing students should speak with the instructor and consult an advisor. Students are permitted to withdraw only six times during their college career by state law. The last date to withdraw from the 1st 8-week session is October 6. The last date to withdraw from the 16-week session is November 19. The last date to withdraw for the 2nd 8-week session is December 2.

F_N Grading: The F_N grade is issued in cases of failure due to a lack of attendance, as determined by the instructor. The F_N grade may be issued for cases in which the student ceases or fails to attend class, submit assignments, or participate in required capacities, and for which the student has failed to withdraw. The issuing of the F_N grade is at the discretion of the instructor. The last date of attendance should be documented for submission of an F_N grade.

Early Alert Program: The Student Success Center at College of the Mainland has implemented an Early Alert Program because student success and retention are very important to us. I have been asked to refer students to the program throughout the semester if they are having difficulty completing assignments or have poor attendance. If you are referred to the Early Alert Program you will be contacted by someone in the Student Success Center who will schedule a meeting with you to see what assistance they can offer in order for you to meet your academic goals.

COVID-19 Statement: All students, faculty, and staff are expected to familiarize themselves with materials and information contained on the College of the Mainland’s Coronavirus Information site at www.com.edu/coronavirus. In compliance with Governor Abbott's May 18 Executive Order, face coverings/masks will no longer be required on COM campus. Protocols and college signage are being updated. We will no longer enforce any COM protocol that requires face coverings. We continue to encourage all members of the COM community to distance when possible, use hygiene measures, and get vaccinated to protect against COVID-19. Please visit com.edu/coronavirus for future updates.

Communication & Grade Time Policy: The primary way to contact me is through email. I only reply to College of the Mainland email accounts. I check my email regularly and will respond to you within 24 hours. I will grade your exams, and discussion posts within 168 hours of the due date.

Success Tips for Students:

1. Read the syllabus. The syllabus is a critical resource for any course. It is the road map or 'game plan' for the entire course—get to know it well. Print a copy on the first day of class, read through it twice.
2. Plan weekly study times. Studying, participating in forums, and completing assignments in an online class can be challenging, even more so when juggling multiple responsibilities. Time management is vital for online students.
3. Log onto the course home a minimum three times per week. Logging onto the course home page consistently each week is associated with higher grades for students according to several studies on online student behavior. Get into the habit of checking in consistently, even daily, to read discussion posts, check for instructor announcements and/or review course materials.
